

Much for Little

Did you cut out and file the article on the automobile differential in the out-of-door section of The Sunday Journal? That article, secured at a cost of 5 cents, may save you several $50 repair bills.

It's All Here and It's All True THIS WEATHER—Tonight and Tuesday, rain; southerly winds. Minimum temperatures Sunday: Portland, 37; New Orleans, 59; Los Angeles, 54; St. Paul, 32.

Entered as Second Class Matter Postoffice, Portland, Oregon

YOUTHFUL ROBBERS WHO STOLE MILLIONS

ABOVE, five men arrested for complicity in the Council Bluffs train robbery. From left to right they are Merle Phillips, Fred Poffenberger, H. A. Reed, Orville Phillips and T. A. Daley. Below is the scene of the train robbery and the barn in which the robbers hid in their automobile while waiting for the train. Mrs. T. A. Daley, wife of one of the suspects, who turned three bushel baskets of ten dollar bills over to the police, is shown at the bottom. Keith Collins, overseas aviator and ex-army lieutenant, has been arrested as the "master mind" in the record robbery.

LANDON GIVEN 7 YEARS IN PRISON

George Landon, convicted white slaver, was sentenced by Federal Judge Wolverson this morning to seven years imprisonment in the federal penitentiary at McNeil Island. Landon staggered a trifle, nodded his head in recognition of the sentence and was led out of the courtroom by Deputy Marshal E. T. Mass. This case has been a very shocking one throughout the trial, Judge Wolverson said, imposing sentence. "You have shown an utter disregard for all laws. You attempted to overcome from the very first the objections of this girl, and succeeded in doing so." The trial, in which Mrs. Landon was also charged with white slavery, developed some of the most revolting circumstances ever alive in the local courts. The 16-year-old orphan girl who fell Landon's victim recited to the jury how she had been dragged down by Landon and taught to lead a life of shame. Immoral conditions in the home were told by witnesses occupying adjoining apartments in Seattle. Landon was charged with transporting the girl from Portland to Seattle, and from Vades, Wash., to Portland. Landon was convicted last Wednesday and was to have been sentenced Friday, but Wednesday night he got hold of a bottle of sheep dip in the county jail and attempted suicide by drinking it. He was taken to Good Samaritan hospital, where doctors saved his life. Mrs. Landon was acquitted by the jury. Counsel for Landon asked the court for leniency this morning, pointing to a rumor that the verdict of the jury was not unanimous on the first ballot cast.

Pardon Issued To Drug Thief By Gov. Vinton

Salem, Or., Nov. 29.—One of the first official acts of Governor W. T. Vinton, president of the senate and chief executive of Oregon, in fact, for the time being, because of the absence of Governor Olcott from the state, was to issue a conditional pardon to Clyde McDonald. The pardon was issued on the recommendation of Justice of the Peace Glenn Unruh and District Attorney James G. Heltzel. McDonald has served 45 days of a 90-day sentence in the Marion county jail, imposed when he was convicted of stealing drugs from Salem physicians' offices. For the first time in his several experiences as governor, in the absence of Governor Olcott, Vinton is occupying the executive offices in the capitol. Puffing away at a big black cigar of his favorite brand, Governor Vinton was busily engaged in affixing his official signature to numerous and various documents as though presiding over the destinies of a great commonwealth as his chief executive was a mere routine matter and all in the day's work. The canvass of the official vote brought Governor Vinton to the capitol from his home at McMinnville and while here he is making the most of the occasion by performing some of his other duties as executive, which would ordinarily have been taken care of at his office in his home town.

BANDIT CONFESSES BIG TRAIN HOLDUP

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 29.—(I. N. S.)—Securities, Liberty bonds and cash valued at between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000, the share of loot obtained by Lieutenant Keith Collins, alleged "master mind" in the $5,000,000 Omaha mail train robbery, were destroyed in a huge "bonfire" at Collins' Omaha home, according to a written confession he made here today. Collins, in his signed confession, declared he had destroyed his share of the loot excepting $500 in cash when he arrested. He burned the cash, which amounted to at least $25,000, before he fled, because he feared the "bills were marked," he said. Postal authorities admitted today that final checking of the loot placed its value at almost $5,000,000. Chief Postal Inspector Johnston, in a statement this afternoon, said Collins denied being the "master mind." Collins blamed Orville Phillips, 17-year-old "bandit," with having plotted the robbery. Phillips was the "baby" of the train robbers. "Orville plotted the whole thing," Collins said, according to Johnston. "He planned it and when he told me how easy it would be I fell for it. I never thought of robbing the train until he put it into my mind." "Collins was unarmed when captured and had only $4 in change in his pockets," said Johnston in his statement. CAUGHT IN BED Collins is charged by postal authorities with having planned the mail train robbery between Council Bluffs, Iowa, and Omaha, Neb., November 15. The capture was made by Inspectors W. L. Noah of St. Louis, W. M. Cable of Omaha and J. W. Adamson of Kansas City. The three men trailed Collins through four states after he fled from Omaha on the night of the robbery. They finally located him at the home of an uncle in Westville, Okla. Descending on the home before daylight, they smashed their way to Collins' bedroom.

HUERTA MAY PAY VISIT TO TEXAS

Mexico City, Nov. 29.—(I. N. S.)—Provisional President Adolfo De La Huerta, who will relinquish his office to General Alvaro Obregon tomorrow night, plans a trip to the United States unless his entrance into the cabinet of President-elect Obregon interferes with his plans. Provisional President De La Huerta has been suffering from ill-health for some time and his doctor has advised him to go away for a rest. If he goes to the United States the first city he will visit is El Paso, Texas. Beyond that he has no further plans for the journey. It is doubtful if De La Huerta will ever see the Oregon coast, although he has been urged to do so. His friends say that he has no political ambitions beyond representing Sonora, his native state, in the national senate. But De La Huerta will not seek the senatorship until his health permits him to return to public life. In informal conversations with members of the American Chamber of Commerce, the provisional president said that the chief aim of the new administration would be to get Mexico out of debt.

Terwilliger Road Closed Temporarily

Roadmaster William Eatchel has closed Terwilliger boulevard to traffic for a few days, pending the clearing away of landslides caused by recent rains. The major part of this work has been done and it is hoped the road will be ready to reopen Wednesday.

WASHINGTON BUILDING Sold for $250,000 To Local Interests

George Walter Hokem and a group of Portland associates have concluded a transaction whereby they today announced the purchase of the Washington building at the southeast corner of Fourth and Washington streets. The deal represents a consideration, it is said, of $250,000, and was handled by Walter J. Gearish, Marvin C. White and W. W. Ferguson. The Washington building is a five-story and basement structure 60 by 100 feet in dimensions, and is occupied chiefly by specialty shops. Hokem declares the purchase is solely an investment.

Deer Hunter, Shot By Nephew, Dies

Sacramento, Nov. 29.—J. P. Disprick of Pine Grove, who yesterday was mistaken for a deer by his 15-year-old nephew, Harold Jones, and shot twice with a high powered rifle, died early today in a local hospital, where he was rushed following the shooting. The slain man was the father of 10 children and was 46 years old.

AUTOMATIC PHONES BEING INSTALLED

Fifteen Hundred Will Be in Use in Mt. Scott District Alone Next Sunday Morning; Many New Improvements Are Added.

Next Sunday morning 1500 residents of the Mount Scott district will wake up and find automatic telephones in their homes. At midnight Saturday the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company will start the herculean task of moving 1500 telephone connections about two miles, from the Tabor office to the new Arleta station. All changes are from the manual to the automatic service and practically all are from the Tabor office. In order to avoid public confusion, numbers for these new phones have already been given to the 1500 subscribers and the new directory printed. Messengers started distributing the new directory today, but the public is cautioned by telephone officials not to use the new book until Sunday morning or they may get the wrong connection. Old telephone books are not being collected for this season. The plan of the telephone company is eventually to change all telephones in the city to the automatic system. All telephone numbers out of the new Arleta station will be prefixed by the number "6." Several improvements on the automatic telephone are found on the new instruments. The telephone is much lighter than the old automatic, the deck type being lighter than the present manual instrument. No push button for ringing the number is on the new instrument as every telephone is equipped with an automatic ringing device. This device has also been installed in the old automatic stations, so that it is no longer necessary to "ring" an automatic telephone anywhere in the city. The new telephones also permit two, three or four party lines the same as on the manual, but as yet the inventors have not overcome the ability of other parties from hearing the conversation. Only a few women will be employed in the new station to answer long distance, trouble and information calls and to transfer automatic and manual calls. Switch tenders, who will be telephone mechanics, will attend to other station business.

15 BLACK AND TAN POLICEMEN SLAIN

Dublin, Ireland, Nov. 29.—(U. P.)—Fifteen Black and Tan policemen were massacred in an ambush last night at Kilmichael, 20 miles west of Cork.

BAK'S CHECK UP ON PLUNGER RYAN

New York, Nov. 29.—Some of the greatest banking institutions in the country Monday will begin a series of conferences designed to establish the latitude and longitude, as well as the breadth and depth, of Allan A. Ryan's personal fortune. Ryan, a relatively young financier, promoter and son of Thomas Fortune Ryan, one of the leading financiers of New York, is making a check-up on Wall Street sensation. It was only a few months ago that he startled the financial district by cornering stocks of the Stets Electric company, was rejected from his position as New York Stock exchange and entered a suit for a million dollars' damage against the exchange board of directors. Ryan's story of today is a story of many millions. And it has a direct bearing on the great slump in securities prices which has marked stock market transactions of recent weeks. It involves motors and promotion, which classes of promotions millions have been turned over during the last year. But, while vast secrecy has surrounded the latest Ryan sensation, it would appear evident that the course of the great banks was decided upon to protect loans they had made to the financier on collateral which had slumped in value during the recent market slide. Ryan himself has expressed his complete lack of concern over the outlook. In fact, it has been declared with a flourish that he knows that Ryan's nominal assets should be between $20,000,000 and $25,000,000, whereas his liabilities are said to be but $16,000,000. STOCK PLUNGER, APPEALS TO COMPTROLLER, ALLEGES PLOT Washington, Nov. 29.—(U. P.)—No bank coming under federal supervision has made loans to Allan A. Ryan which are not covered by sufficient collateral, John S. Williams, comptroller of the currency, said today. Williams today gave out a short formal statement following a conference with Ryan, in which he alleged that Ryan had come here to secure the aid of Williams against what he charged were efforts by New York banks to make it appear that his financial affairs were not in good shape. Williams' statement was regarded as supporting Ryan. "There are very few national banks, as far as my information goes, to whom Ryan is an owner of a dollar," Williams' statement also said.

WRECKAGE IS SIGHTED IN BARGE HUNT

Pirrie Rescue Vessels Off Cape Johnson Discover Material on Shore; a Rough Sea Prevents Landing by Small Boats.

Astoria, Or., Nov. 29.—Large masses of wreckage, believed to be from the missing barge W. J. Pirrie, have been sighted by the steamer Santa Rita and the revenue cutter Snohomish on the rocks of Cape Johnson, according to a wireless message received from the Santa Rita by the North Head government radio station Monday afternoon. The message said that it is impracticable to attempt to reach the rocky place from the shore and that attempts to launch small boats failed, due to the rough sea. The two vessels have been unable to get close enough to make positive the identification of the wreckage, but will make further attempts, the message said. COAST BEING PATROLLED BY LAND AND SEA TO FIND BARGE Seattle, Nov. 29.—(U. P.)—Washington's coast line was being patrolled today on shore and off, for trace of the missing lumber carrying barge W. J. Pirrie, feared to have been lost with all on board in last Friday night's storm. W. R. Grace & Co., owners of the barge and of the steamer Santa Rita, (Concluded on Page Two, Column Four)

DR. HICKMAN HEARS SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Portland Pastor Accepts Presidency of Kimball College, at Salem; To Train Young Men for Careers in Methodism.

Dr. E. C. Hickman, associate pastor of the newly organized Centenary-Wilbur Methodist Episcopal church, has accepted the presidency of Kimball College of Theology at Salem, according to an announcement made from his pulpit Sunday. He succeeds Dr. H. J. Talbot, who died October 22. Dr. Hickman left for Salem this morning to assume his new duties. The release of Dr. Hickman from church work for appointment as president of the college was agreed upon before W. O. Shepard left for the East about two weeks ago to attend the spring convocation of the board of bishops. Dr. Hickman is regarded as one of the ablest Methodist ministers in the Northwest, so the college is getting a man who stands high in the estimation of his church. Dr. Hickman intends to follow each (Concluded on Page Two, Column Seven)

Dr. C. L. Large Fined $2000 For Violating Narcotic Act

After retracting his plea of not guilty and entering one of guilty in the federal court this morning, Dr. C. L. Large was fined by Judge Wolverson $2000 on a grand jury indictment of 32 counts charging him with violation of the Harrison narcotic act.

Counsel for Dr. Large told the court that the plea was being changed upon the understanding that no jail sentence be imposed. During the summer and fall of 1918 Dr. Large engaged in the wholesale business of supplying drug addicts with their daily quota. The government obtained the names of 23 of his daily customers and 29 counts of the indictment charge him with prescribing narcotics not for the cure of legitimate patients. Another count charges he obtained large supplies of morphine and cocaine by illegal methods; another that he failed to keep duplicates of his prescriptions as required by law and another that he failed to keep his records open for inspection to internal revenue agents. Assistant United States Attorney Hall S. Lunk told the court that Dr. Large prescribed cocaine and morphine for addicts and left the packages at a drug store. The addicts are said to have paid the druggist for the narcotics and to have left an additional sum for the doctor. So cleverly was the scheme handled that Local Agent W. R. Wood, who is known to many addicts, was unable to obtain convicting evidence. Wood arrested Dr. Large once and the case was compromised by payment of a $200 fine to the internal revenue department, at which time he was apprised of government narcotic laws. Today in court counsel for Dr. Large pleaded for leniency on the grounds of ignorance of the law. In order to secure enough evidence to bring about the indictment Wood secured the assistance of an operative from another city who was not known in Portland. Dr. Large was given 30 days in which to pay his fine. The doctor resides at 625 1/2 First street, but formerly lived in Forest Grove. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true to the goodness of life. The Rev. Dr. William L. Manning, widely known rector of Trinity church, thus attacked the movement for the revival of a "Blue Law" Sunday in his sermon today. He declared that the Puritan idea of Sunday was a mistaken and distorted one and that its revival now would be a grave injury. (By Universal Service) New York, Nov. 29.—The church must not only allow but encourage wholesome games and sports on Sunday, and the clergy, whenever this is possible, should take part in them. "We must bring God near to the people in their pleasures and joys as well as in their sorrows. We must make it clear that the Christian religion does not stand for petty restraints and restrictions and gloom and severity, but for gladness and freedom to all that are true