

Ken Bartlett Joins "Winged M" Football Team.: Langford Awaiting Bell for Herman Bout

Oregon Star To Play With Club Squad

KEN BARTLETT, former University of Oregon football star and a member of the championship coast conference team of 1916, will be in the Multnomah club lineup Saturday in the gridiron contest against the Pacific fleet team. Bartlett is in great condition as the result of his work with the Oregon freshmen team during the 1920 season and will need but little practice to get up to the club signals.

Bartlett will be stationed at right tackle during a part of the game. Manager Dorman is not quite sure of the ability of Pete DeCicco, who starred in the Aggie game, to participate in the contest and as a result is counting on Bartlett to fill the position.

Langford Is Ready to Mix With Herman

WINDING up his training with a spirited workout Wednesday afternoon, Sam Langford, the Boston "Tar Baby," is ready to exchange wallops again with "Tiny" Herman. The two heavies will tangle in the main event of the Portland boxing commission smoker Thursday night in the Hellig theatre.

Langford is confident of winning. He should be, for he stands head and shoulders above Herman as a mitt wielder. The big colored heavy should not have any trouble disposing of Herman via the knockout route, despite the fact that Chet McIntyre, Herman's manager, declares that "Tiny" is going to force Langford to go the limit.

FRANCIS TO REFEREE!
Herman is due to arrive from Tacoma, where he has been in earnest training for the bout, Wednesday night. Herman will go through some light gym work Thursday afternoon.

Frank Watkins, chairman of the Portland boxing commission, is expected to name Grover Francis as referee despite the objections Langford is reported to have made.

GRUNAN HAS BATTLE
The semi-windup contest Thursday night between Young Sam Langford and Al Grunan should be a classy bout. Both are clever boxers with ability to hit in the pinch.

Roy Sutherland is expected to make Puggy Morton, who, by the way, says he does not draw the color line and that his manager was responsible for his refusal to box Willie St. Clair, extend himself in one of the preliminary contests. Johnny Bosovich will tangle one of Chet McIntyre's finds, Young Jack Dempsey, in a six round event and Ted Hoke will tangle with Joe Dunn in the curtain raiser.

Reds to Train in Cisco
Cisco, Texas, Dec. 1.—(L. N. S.)—"Matty" Schwab, ground keeper for the Cincinnati Reds, who will spend their training season here next spring, will begin work today putting the ground in shape. He will remain here until the time for arrival of the team, the Chamber of Commerce having agreed to pay his expenses in order to have the grounds in fine shape.

Mitchell to Lead Braves
Boston, Mass., Dec. 1.—Fred Mitchell, ex-manager of the Chicago Nationals, has been named field leader of the Boston Braves. This announcement was made Tuesday by U. W. Grant, owner of the Boston Nationals.

Idaho Elects Evans
Moscow, Idaho, Dec. 1.—The 1921 University of Idaho football team will be led onto the field by Grover Evans, as captain. The election of the American Falls athlete took place Monday night at a banquet. He is a two-year man and plays end.

Francis May Stay
The club backfield quartet will line up the same as it did in the Thanksgiving day game with Brown at quarter, Briggs and Welch halves and Zlati, Fullback. Hiatt, who was ill last week, has rounded into good shape.

Grover Francis turned out with the team Tuesday night, but the fact that he has been out of the game for a long time means that he will not likely be used regularly.

Under the eye of Coach Ingram, who stars on the Navy team in pre-war days, the Pacific Fleet squad, a team of giants, worked out on the club field Tuesday afternoon. The sailors are considered one of the strongest teams on the coast.

Varnell to Referee
Arrangements have been completed for special sections in the grandstand for sailors and all former service men.

George Varnell of Spokane will officiate as referee and Sam Dolan of Corvallis will be the umpire.

The club squad will workout Wednesday and Thursday nights to perfect their team work. New plays have been rigged up by Manager Dorman.

Willard to Get Chance With Mauler

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—(L. N. S.)—William Harrison Dempsey is preparing for the first real campaign he has launched in defense of his title since he became heavyweight champion of the world.

Dempsey will engage in a number of bouts against the best men available prior to his big championship affair with Georges Carpentier. The first of these is but two weeks away.

IS KEEPING FIT
On December 14 the champion will collide with Bill Brennan in a 15-round decision bout in Madison Square Garden. He has been in light training with this bout in prospect for more than a month, but with the definite announcement of the date he has set about working in earnest.

Dempsey does his training in Central Park and aboard the United States training ship Granite State, which is anchored in the Hudson off Ninety-sixth street. Numbered among his sparring partners are Bill Tate, Dan O'Dowd, Battling Thomas and Young Jack Johnson. Today the champion took on two new partners in Al Reich and Clay Turner, and from now on will box at least 10 rounds daily.

Dempsey is keeping fit. He takes the best care of himself and does some sort of work every day, whether or not he has a bout in prospect. Since he took up golf more than six weeks ago he got plenty of outdoor exercise in addition to his regular road work. He looks the part of a champion.

TAKES JESS ON IN MARCH
Next March he is going to fulfill a promise he made at Toledo when he defeated Jess Willard. He is going to give the big Kansan a chance to win back the title. The match is set for St. Patrick's day and will be over the 15-round route in Madison Square Garden.

The manner in which Dempsey won from Willard led ring followers to believe that big Jess would be foolhardy to seek a return match. Willard evidently does not think so. For several months Willard has been going through easy training stunts on his Kansas farm. He believes he can come back.

The terms of the coming Willard-Dempsey bout have not been given out. Certain it is, however, that the financial distribution will be revised. This time Dempsey will carry off the lion's share of the purse, which, it is believed, will be large.

Willard should be as much of an attraction against Dempsey as Brennan. Several years ago Dempsey knocked Brennan out. Now Bill is going to get another chance. And so is Willard.

Kelso Firm Given Contract to Build Dike for Rainier
Kelso, Wash., Dec. 1.—Burcham Bros. of this city have been awarded the contract for the construction of the dike system for the Rainier, Or. dike district. The contract price is $15,500. They will commence clearing the right of way at once.

Payment of taxes without penalty ended Tuesday. County Treasurer L. P. Brown reports that taxes were paid better this year than ever before and only a small percentage will be delinquent.

Revival services in the Baptist church by Rev. Harry O. Anderson, evangelist, and his singer, Luther Solt, are attracting large attendance.

Chicago Milk Price At 14 Cents Quart
Chicago, Dec. 1.—(L. N. S.)—Due to declines in the wholesale price, distributors announced today a reduction of 1 cent per quart in the price of milk. The new price is 14 cents per quart.

BOXING

SEATTLE, Dec. 1.—(U. P.)—Jim Flynn, veteran Pueblo fireman, took a bad beating from Boy McCormick, English light heavyweight champion, here last night in a four round go. Flynn tried hard enough but all he could do was to stick his chin in the way. McCormick fought under wraps and played horse with Flynn during the final rounds. Marty Foley, Tacoma middleweight, and Vern Searcy of Wenatchee, fought a good draw. Ray Scribner, Anacortes bantam, gave away nine pounds in weight to Stan Fitzgerald and then knocked the local boy down four times in three rounds, Fitzgerald finally reaching the floor without being hit in the third round, losing the verdict. Young Zuzu and Boy McCaslin, welter, fought a draw and Hugh Curley, welter, was knocked out by Young Ketchell in the second round.

New York, Dec. 1.—(L. N. S.)—Jack Sharkey and Joe Lynch, who will meet in a return bout of 15 rounds at Madison Square Garden tomorrow night, wound up training here today. Recently these rival bantams met in the Garden and fought to a draw decision.

Cleveland, Ohio, Dec. 1.—(U. P.)—Carl Tremaine, local bantam, will meet Pal Moore, Memphis, in a 10 round bout here Thursday afternoon.

Tremaine's Garden tomorrow night, wound up training here today. Recently these rival bantams met in the Garden and fought to a draw decision.

Aberdeen, Wash., Dec. 1.—(U. P.)—Harry Casey of Seattle knocked out Archie Stoy, Aberdeen lightweight, in the third round of a scheduled six round bout here Wednesday night. Frankie Webb, Portland, was outpointed by Bud Fitzgerald of Seattle.

Spokane, Wash., Dec. 1.—(U. P.)—Lackey Morrow of Spokane was given a well-earned decision over Al Lupo of Tacoma at the Murphy benefit bouts here last night. The Spokane feather outboxed Lupo throughout and had him on the canvas twice in the final round. Jimmy Cottrell of Spokane and George Eagle of Seattle boxed a slashing four-round draw. Cottrell put Eagle through the ropes in the second round, but Eagle finished strong.

Frankie Williams of Spokane scored a knockout over Young Mike O'Dowd of St. Paul in the second; Lester White, marine sergeant, and Sailor Bosco of Oakland drew; Joe Richardson of Spokane kayeed Van Dusen of Spokane in the third, and Ned Barnes of Spokane scored a technical knockout over Jimmy Hamilton of New York.

Milwaukee, Wis., Dec. 1.—(U. P.)—Joe Weiling, Chicago lightweight, has suspended for one year by the Milwaukee boxing commission for his poor showing against Lew Teller here recently.

Toledo, Ohio, Dec. 1.—"Chuck" Wiggins and Tommy Gibbons will box a 12-round, no-decision bout here Monday night.

Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 1.—Joe Stecher successfully defended the world's championship title here Tuesday night against Salvatore Chevalier of France, winning two straight falls in 24 minutes and 40 seconds and 7 minutes and 40 seconds.

Seattle, Wash., Dec. 1.—William H. Kiepper was reelected president of the Seattle Coast league baseball club at the meeting of the directors Tuesday night.

Centralia, Wash., Dec. 1.—The big plant of the Eastern Railway & Lumber company will be closed next week for an indefinite period. Reid F. Hubbard, secretary of the company, has announced. Lack of demand for lumber and the low price, said to be below cost of production, are the reasons given. The plant has been running nearly the entire year with two shifts, giving employment to 475 men.

Coast Grid Schedule Is Made for '21

BERKELEY, Cal., Dec. 1.—According to the schedule drawn by managers and coaches, only three conference games will be played between the teams of the Pacific Coast conference during the 1921 football season.

Following is the schedule, which will be presented to the directors of the conference for approval:

October 20—California versus Oregon at Eugene; Oregon Agricultural college versus Stanford, at Palo Alto.

November 5—Washington versus California, at Berkeley; Stanford versus Pullman, at Pullman.

November 12—Oregon versus Washington, at Seattle; Pullman versus Oregon Agricultural, at Corvallis.

November 19—Oregon Agricultural college versus Oregon, at Eugene; California versus Stanford, at Palo Alto.

November 26—Pullman versus Washington, at Seattle.

The managers passed a ruling allowing the conference team to schedule a fourth game, but as yet none has been announced, although it is probable that O. A. C. will arrange another conference game at Corvallis. Before coming here, James Richardson, general manager of student activities at Corvallis, practically concluded arrangements to play the University of Washington at Corvallis, but whether this contract will be carried out remains to be seen.

The application of the University of Southern California was rejected by the conference. Much comment was heard regarding the decision.

Although the formal announcement gave the claim that Southern California is too far away from the Oregon and Washington colleges to make games in the Southland feasible, it was whis-

Flying Fish Annex Water Polo Title

The "impossible" has happened. Emmett Rogers and Eddie Humphrey were not on the water polo team which won the 1920-21 house league championship of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club. These two swimmers here have had a faculty of drawing membership on the squad which eventually won the medals, but after several seasons of success, they picked a loser this campaign.

The final game for the title was staged between Captain Tom Wallace's Flying Fish and Captain Ted Alonen's Sinks. Humphrey and Rogers were Sinks' players. The final score was 9 to 6 and it was bitterly fought throughout. Locke Webster scored six goals and Frank McHale registered the other three for the poor Fish, while Alonen and Frank Lindstrom divided scoring honors for the Sinks. The lineups:

Flying Fish (9): Sinks (6):
Webster Forward Alonen
Webster Forward Lindstrom
Wallace Forward Humphrey
Tucker Goal Rogers
Brook Guard Hoberg
Jack Cady, referee; Mick Wiley and Gus Douglas, goal scorers; Deo Mallett, timer.

Layton Leader in Cue Play
Chicago, Dec. 1.—(U. P.)—Jack Layton of St. Louis led a field of 12 today in the race for the world's three-cushion billiard championship by his victory here last night over Clarence Jackson, whom he defeated.

Pierre Maupome of Milwaukee climbed to third place by beating Augie Kleckner in the race for the world's three-cushion billiard championship by his victory here last night over Clarence Jackson, whom he defeated.

International polo matches may take place at Hurlingham club, London, June 18, 22 and 25. The American challengers are hopeful of regaining the cup.

SPORT NOTES

OUT-OF-TOWN basketball teams are rather backward in accepting challenges from Portland quintets so far during the 1920-21 season but this may be accounted for in the fact that the outsiders have not fully organized for the coming campaign. There are any number of good combinations in Portland ready to take on all comers.

Manager Louis Gallo of the Honeyman Hardware company hoopers hasn't been able to secure a contest for his proteges. His squad worked out in the Franklin high gymnasium the other night and he feels confident that the athletes are ready to battle the best of them. He can be reached in care of the Honeyman Hardware company or by calling Marshall 3158.

Ray Brooks, secretary of the newly organized Portland Basketball association, is looking for another quintet to complete the circuit. Call Marshall 215 and ask for Larrison or Brooks. The next meeting of the league is set for Monday night at Spalding's.

Manager Phil Unkeles has a team that will meet any other quintet averaging up to 125 pounds. He took on one contingent tipping the scales around 140 pounds and won. He can be reached at Main 8798.

The Highland football team won from the North Portland eleven 8 to 6 Sunday. Thanksgiving day Highland scored a 42 to 6 victory over the Irvington representatives.

International polo matches may take place at Hurlingham club, London, June 18, 22 and 25. The American challengers are hopeful of regaining the cup.

Cyril Tolley, the noted British amateur golfer, considers "Chick" Evans, Francis

Outnot and Bobby Jones the three greatest amateur golf players in the world, according to English reports.

Associated cricket clubs of Philadelphia will send a team to England next year.

The Dufferin Driving club and the Toronto Driving club will conduct a winter's racing program at Duffort park, Toronto.

Wrestling season will start in New York city November 22.

Nearly 425,000 gunners have taken out licenses in Pennsylvania this fall.

Harvard will play 19 basketball games, starting December 10 with Boston university at Cambridge.

Peanuts' Pander to Coach H. S. C. Quintet

Henry Pander has been named to coach the High School of Commerce 1920-21 basketball team of the Portland Intercollegiate league, according to an announcement made by J. P. Elton, principal of the institution. As an athlete, Pander gained considerable recognition both in intercollegiate as well as independent circles, for he was heralded as a 125-pound marvel. What he lacked in weight on the football field he made up in stamina and his ability to diagnose the opposition's attack was uncanny. He played basketball on the Commerce team two or three years ago. The Stenographers are handicapped because of not having a floor on which to practice. Principal Elton has been dickering for the Neighborhood house and the B'nai B'rith gymnasium for his athletes, but as yet he has not been able to come to any definite agreement. Coach Pander had ambitions of working out with his players some time this week, but unless a floor is available he will have to postpone the first season until next week.

Famous Notre Dame Grid Star Near Death

South Bend, Ind., Dec. 1.—(U. P.)—Little hope was held out for the recovery of George Gipp, famous Notre Dame football star, ill with pneumonia at a local hospital, according to his physicians today.

Gipp, earlier reported slightly improved, took a turn for the worse this morning, it was announced.

His condition is critical and there is little chance for his recovery, hospital officials stated.

Gipp is also rated as one of the cleverest baseball players Notre Dame ever had. Johnny Evers, manager of the Chicago Cubs, has already launched efforts to have him play with Chicago next year. Gipp is a center fielder and is said to be a good hitter.

London Wins Mat Contest

San Francisco, Dec. 1.—(U. P.)—Jim London won his wrestling match with John Pesek last night, taking the one fall required in 1 hour 23 minutes 15 seconds.

Holland has a big stadium at Amsterdam. Another is planned for The Hague, where it is hoped to stage the next Olympiad games.
