

NINE INDICTED IN LIQUOR RING AT SAN FRANCISCO

San Francisco, Dec. 1.—(I. N. S.)—Warrants were to be served today on nine persons indicted last night by the federal grand jury in connection with the investigation of bootlegging activities.

John D. Costello, secretary to Senator James D. Phelan; Mrs. Glad K. Warburton, former acting prohibition director; Harry Brotski, Douglas Newton and William M. Dean, already under indictment, and four others whose names were placed on secret file, were indicted by the grand jury. It also filed a voluminous report on its probe of illicit liquor traffic which was withheld from the time being from the public on order of Federal Judge Dooling to permit its official transcription.

Costello was indicted as a result of the story told by Harry Marquard, cafe owner, to the grand jury. Marquard declared he had purchased "protection" and named in addition to the late Lorin Handley, former prohibition director, Costello and others.

In a statement today Costello declared the grand jury had been unfair to him. He said he had agreed to appear before the jury and waive immunity in order to tell his story. He was not called. Costello claims he is a victim of circumstances. He said that in luncheon at Marquard's with Handley he had no knowledge that his presence there was being used to "reassure Marquard."

Conspiracy to violate the prohibition act is charged against all the defendants.

250 GALLONS OF MOONSHINE SEIZED ON CHICKEN RANCH

Two hundred and fifty gallons of moonshine whiskey, in one gallon and two gallon jugs, was the find made by internal revenue men and Deputy Sheriffs Schirmer and Christoffersen through a search at the I. H. O'Neil chicken ranch on the Barr road, Tuesday afternoon.

The liquor was buried on the place and the seizure was so extensive that an auto truck was called from Portland to haul in the stuff. Two dismantled stills were found in a shed and there were 40 empty sugar sacks on the place. Although the place was watched by officers for many hours, no one appeared, and it is said the owner has not been found.

First Girl to Join Army

The first girl to join the army through the Portland recruiting station appeared Wednesday morning at the home of Sergeant and Mrs. Samuel L. Latham. The girl, weighing eight pounds, was born early Wednesday morning and the station is in a quandary as to what corps she shall be attached.

Adequate Telephone Rates

In pre-war days all that was necessary to secure telephone service was to place an order. The telephone plant was there and ready for you. No one expected any other condition and it was natural that it should be so. The war came and the equipment ordinarily used to provide for your needs was taken to supply the urgent requirements of the nation. Men, money and materials became scarce. Telephone construction practically ceased. Almost immediately the resultant pinch was felt. Telephone service in some localities could not be secured at all; in others only after indefinite delay. Such conditions grow rapidly worse—a telephone plant must be constantly extended.

It has been impossible to catch up with the accumulated demand, much less restore the normal condition of having plant ready for service as orders are received. This is our problem today.

We must build millions of dollars' worth of plant in order to satisfy your service requirements. We are operating today in Oregon at a deficit. We are not even earning the interest and dividend charges on the present plant. We cannot secure the money to fulfill your service requirements and build the plant necessary unless we can show a fair return on the investment.

We are asking for rates that will give such a return and permit the securing of money to build the plant you require. We believe you are as greatly interested in this matter as we are and we ask your support toward this end.

You are interested in good and sufficient telephone service. We must have adequate revenue to provide it.
