the war finance corporation, to aid in financing foreign trade, was voiced by Secretary of the Treasury Houston be-fore the house and senate joint agricultural committees.

While Secretary Houston is opposed to reestablishment of the corporation and has "declined to assume any responsibility for reviving it," it was understood he had informed senators and representatives he would accept the mandate of ongress, provided it assumed full responsibility for making the corporation operative again.

SITUATION HELD BAD

Houston said in his opinion there was no way to finance agricultural experts because of the financial situation existing between Europe and the United States "Europe now owes the United States about $14,000,000,000," said Houston. "Our exports are increasing annually, follows: so that this year they will total about $8,100,000,000. How Europe can pay for the exports it is now receiving or can take more from the United States, I don't know."
