

EAT CRANBERRIES RAW FOR FLAVOR

By Hyman H. Cohen
More cranberries should be used by the public. Many are inclined to believe that it takes much work to utilize cranberries for the table, but this is scarcely true.

If you have never heard of eating cranberries raw and have not tasted them in that condition, you are missing something worth while.

The proper way to use raw cranberries is to put the berries in a food chopper, grind them fine. Then they should be put in a vessel and sugar sprinkled over the fruit. Then the mass should be heated just sufficiently to melt the sugar, care being taken not to cook the berries. After this is done the cranberries are ready to eat.

One taste will be followed by another in an effort to discover just what the taste resembles. There is a difference in the flavor of the berries eaten this way and in the cooked style.

It's a good method and one that takes practically no time. Once used, cranberries in that style will be on the table quite frequently.

Governor's Pay Runs During His Absence

Salem, Dec. 3.—Governor Olcott does not lose his salary as the state's executive by his temporary absence from Oregon, according to an opinion written for Secretary of State Koser by Attorney General Van Winkle, who declares that the law was not intended to suspend or transfer the salary of the governor during his temporary absence from the state, although the duties of that office during the interval were to be performed by the president of the senate. The opinion is silent, however, as to any compensation which might be coming to W. T. Vinton, who is holding down the gubernatorial job during Governor Olcott's temporary absence.

Man Hit by Auto Has Broken Arm

A. W. Whitmer, aged 53, of 737 East Broadway suffered a broken arm, cuts on legs and a scalp wound when he was struck by an automobile driven by J. D. Byrd, 911 East Thirty-ninth street southeast, at East Twenty-first street and Broadway Thursday night. Whitmer was taken to St. Vincent's hospital. Byrd was held on $100 bail on a charge of reckless driving.

The inventor of a safety razor with a blade which moves from side to side as it is drawn along a man's face claims it does its work twice as quickly as the ordinary safety razor.

Sale of All Sales!

You may have attended lots of sales in Portland—BUT never have you seen a Sale like this before.

If you will recall your memory back to only a few days and see what the prices were then and what we are selling them for today. Who has done it?

The Swedish Delicatessen & Grocery Store. What would prices be if it weren't for us?
