Change Made In Portland Ring Smoker

SPORT NOTES

NEWBORN, Dec. 12.—The presence of a deputy sheriff prevented what might have proved to be a serious riot here during the basketball game Saturday night between the North Pacific Dental college and the American Legion post of Newberg. One of the rioters said to have taken a swing at one of the ex-service men and the war was on. It was quickly settled, however, and the game progressed, the locals winning 22 to 14. The tooth tinkers were guests of the American Legion at a dance immediately following the contest. Dr. E. H. Uter was the referee.

North Bend, Dec. 12.—Football enthusiasts are trying to arrange a game between the Coquille All-Stars and the undefeated Marshfield Independents for New Year's day. Gordon Hassmussen, former Oregon Aggie, is managing the Independents and says that his team will be ready to battle the best of them.

Memphis, Dec. 12.—For the second time during the 1920-21 basketball season the junior boys' quintet trimmed the seniors. Saturday's result was 32 to 29. Guy Lee, with 13 points, led the senior attack, while his brother, M. Lee, made 14 markers for the winners. George Fletcher was the referee and L. P. Gilmore acted as umpire.

The Honeyman Hardware company hoopers trimmed the Young Men's Christian Association students 21 to 18 Saturday night, and in two contests so far this campaign the hardware men have scored 144 points as against 34 for the opposition. Irwin Cole, Dave Wright and Captain H. A. Goode are the leading scorers.

Thirty-four to 19 was the outcome of the National Fraternity Society of the Deaf-Piedmont club basketball game staged at the Astoria on Saturday night. The Silent Five were on the long end of the count throughout and their playing in the second half was much faster than in the first. The lineup: N. F. S. D. (34)—Piedmont (19) Kelly, 18; Cliff, 2; Bauer, 12; Glenn, 2; Waters, 2; Metcalf, 2; Greenwald, 2; Ray, 2; Acuff, 2; Spare, 2. B. L. Caven, referee.

The Jefferson high quintet beat the Y. M. C. A. Swastikas 18 to 15 in a practice game Saturday. Wednesday the two teams met and the high schoolers won 42 to 15.

Ace Pollock, sports writer of Denver, is a member of the Colorado legislature, having been elected at the recent election.

Princeton will utilize its tennis courts for ice hockey practice.

Big Leagues' Heads Adopt Agreement

By Henry L. Farrell

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—Fur on the major league backs has been smoothed by a new national agreement that has been approved by a committee and most likely will be ratified this week.

The direction of the bristles on the minors' backs will not be known until January 10, when a new agreement has to be made by the majors is acted upon.

After a two days' pow-wow between the majors and the minors, presided over by Judge Landis, two agreements were accepted yesterday—one affecting relations between major league clubs and another between the major and minor leagues.

The major leagues' agreement, effective for 25 years, recognizes Judge Landis as the supreme power of baseball, with jurisdiction to settle all disputes and mete out punishment to leagues, clubs or individuals guilty of conduct detrimental to the game. A fine of $5000 and a withdrawal of its rights to sit in league sessions can be imposed on such a club.

As an advisory committee to act with Landis, the agreement names the presidents of each major league.

When disputes arise between the two leagues in a joint session, the agreement provides for a roll call by clubs. In case a four and four vote results, the president of the league will be allowed to vote for his league, and in case of a disagreement between the presidents, the commission can decide the issue.

The major league agreement does not touch on draft, considered the most vital part of the new agreement.

MAY RESUME DRAFT

The contents of the agreement drawn up for the minors was not made known. Resumption of the draft at $5000 is said to have been included. This clause is expected to be the one over which the minors will battle most. The American association and the International league of the class AA group are unalterably opposed to the draft, according to the statements of their presidents. However, the leagues are known to be divided.

Practically all of the smaller leagues are in favor of the draft and it is understood that the class AA contingent could be brought in line for $7500.

Willard in Wonderful Shape Confident of Regaining Title

By William K. Hutchinson
International News Service Staff Correspondent

AWRENCE, Kan., Dec. 12.—(U. N. S.)—A new Jess Willard—a big blonde giant with a "fighting heart" at least—will face Jack Dempsey, king of heavyweights, on March 17 of next year.

The former world's champion fell from fame when he crumpled in a helpless heap at Dempsey's feet in Toledo two years ago. It was out to win his title back—but first he wants to lick Dempsey. Embittered against those who term him a "has been," Willard will stage his "come back" to "prove to the world" he can defeat Dempsey.

GOING TO WIN

Willard's size is stunning. Interviewed at his home here today, he towered above ordinary men like a giant, carrying his 260 pounds and 6 feet 8 inches of stature with an agility that was surprising. His cheeks are bright red and his eyes squint from long hours spent in the open. He is the picture of health.

Willard's monstrous physique is solid flesh and muscle except for one roll of fat across the waistband. His arms are hard as granite and his shoulders are marvelous. Few men have so much flesh on their bones. He is a powerful man, his battle with Dempsey. Willard is soft now, but strict training will weld him into a dangerous opponent.

There is one Willard "if." It is whether he will train faithfully.

Tad Fails to Get Kick Out Of Ring Bout

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—(U. N. S.)—Jack Dempsey will appear in a match at Madison Square Garden tomorrow night for the first time in his life. BILL MINUS IN ROCKING

Dempsey is the only heavyweight champion with the exception of Jeffries and Jack Johnson, who has not appeared in Madison Square Garden. All the others from Sullivan down fought and won there. Tomorrow night the champion meets Bill Brennan.

We can't say that we get an awful kick out of the match. Brennan is a good man. He's just about Dempsey's size and is a good boxer but as far as socking goes, Bill is a bit minus.

He has met and won from a number of men that Dempsey met but where they stuck a long time with Bill they were carried out after meeting Dempsey. Dempsey stopped Brennan a few years ago in six rounds. After the bout Brennan declares a broken ankle forced him to stop. Tomorrow night a broken jaw may force him to "sky the wiper."

NO BETTING AT ALL

There is no betting on the bout at all. Odds are too great in Dempsey's favor. All men declare a broken ankle forced him to stop. Tomorrow night a broken jaw may force him to "sky the wiper."

Certainly! The Athletics might beat the Cleveland Indians five in a row. Sir Barton might make Man o' War look as though he had a truck hitched on behind. Thormahlen might outlast Babe Ruth. Sure thing! But would you bet on that?

Washington Teams Adopt Basketball Schedule for Year

Plans were launched for a Southwest Washington track meet to be held about the middle of May at the Southwest Washington fairgrounds. ## Future of High School Sports Much in Doubt

WITHDRAWAL of the public schools from the Portland interscholastic league has left scholastic athletics in a muddled condition.

The action of the public schools in withdrawing from the association was a complete surprise to the representatives of the Hill Military academy and Columbia will make an effort to reorganize the league but in case this fails, it is believed that an association, which will include the academic schools in school district No. 1, will be organized.

If a new league is formed, it is likely that Hill and Columbia will arrange to play out-of-town teams in Portland during the basketball, baseball and football seasons.

The records of the Interscholastic League have been turned over to Joseph Hill of the Hill academy, who has appointed Father Burke of Columbia university, president of the league.

An effort to bring about some amicable settlement of the situation will be made some time this week.

Peninsula Eleven Wins From All-Stars

LONDON, Dec. 12.—(U. P.)—George L. Carpenter, European heavyweight champion, and Frank Moran, the American who finished Joe Beckett in two rounds, have practically been signed for a 20-round bout here in February, it became known today.

New York, Dec. 12.—(U. P.)—The reserved seat sale for the Dempsey-Brennan bout has already passed the $100,000 mark. Promoter Rickard announced, while the receipts are expected to go beyond $200,000.

Dempsey is to get $100,000, while Brennan will get $25,000.

Stecher Defends Title Tonight

New York, Dec. 12.—(U. P.)—Joe Stecher, heavyweight wrestling champion of the world, will defend his title against Strangler Lewis here tonight in a finish match at the Seventy-first regiment armory.

Lewis' admirers predict a victory for their favorite tonight. Followers of the champion are just as confident.

Gipp Resting Little Easier

South Bend, Ind., Dec. 12.—(U. P.)—A critical change in the condition of George Gipp, Notre Dame star football player, caused a hurried consultation of physicians here early today. Later a statement was given out that he was "resting a little easier."

Gipp has been ill with pneumonia for three weeks.

"All-Stars" Vs. Coaches Suggested

THERE is little likelihood of the proposed New Year's day game between an aggregation composed of the coaches of the Northwest colleges and high school teams and the Multnomah club eleven, according to Harry Dorman, manager of the "Winged M" squad.

"The club regulars are a pretty badly crippled condition as a result of the contest with the Pacific fleet team and it would be impossible to get them together again this season," said Dorman, "but if the Northwest conference and the P. N. A. will sanction a game between the coaches and an all-star college squad I will try to assemble a team and stage the contest."

DIRECTORS TO DECIDE

"I intend to put the matter before the directors of the club Monday night and I feel sure that Multnomah will do everything possible to arrange that game, the proceeds to go to Portland charity."

The subject of the contest was broached at the Northwest conference meeting Saturday. The coaches' team would be composed of Rutherford (O. A. C.), fullback; Borlecke (Whitman) and Huntington (Oregon), halfbacks; Dorias (Gonzaga), quarterback; Spellman (Oregon), Martlet (Oregon), Williams (Oregon), Magician (C. U.), Philbrook (Benson), Mathews (Willamette) and Applegate (W. S. C.), linemen.

Dorman stated that he would try to assemble a team selected by Northwest critics.

Manth Leads Physical Association

Otto C. Mauth, director of physical education of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club, was reelected president of the Oregon State Physical Education association at the annual meeting held at Reed college Saturday, while W. H. Knapp, also of Portland, was reelected secretary. The other officers named were George W. Clark, vice president, and Mrs. L. Centro, treasurer. Seventeen new members were taken in.
