Xmas Festivities Crowd Society's Calendar Now

By Helen Hutchison
CHRISTMAS holiday festivities already are crowding the social calendar and the young folk home from college will surely be in need of a "rest from their vacation" by the time the holidays are over. If they participate in all the functions that have been planned for their entertainment during Christmas and New Year's. Nearly every evening is filled at the hotels, which offer ball rooms for dances, and numerous smaller parties for the daylight hours will occupy the girls who are home from school.

New Year's eve for the grown-ups promises to be unusually gay this year with dances at hotels, a fancy dress ball at the home of a prominent matron of the city, a dinner dance at the University club and an informal hop at the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club.

Following Christmas the women of Portland will rally to the call for relief for the three million and a half starving people of Europe who are dependent upon the 17,000 feeding stations which must be replenished immediately by the European relief council which has been organized under the direction of Herbert Hoover to raise a fund of $33,000,000 in America. Committees have already been arranged and the women are planning to devote much of their time to this work immediately following Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Sharp have sent out cards for a buffet supper for Thursday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hemingway of San Francisco, who have recently come to Portland to make their home and for Mrs. Henry K. Field and Charles K. Field, Mrs. Sharp's mother and brother, who will spend Christmas in Portland. Mrs. Charles F. Beebe, Mrs. Maurice Crumpacker, Mrs. Henry Hughes and Miss Joyce Parkin will assist Mrs. Sharp at the tables.

Those who have been invited for the affair include Messrs. and Mrs. Joseph E. Wiley, Walter Beebe, Frank Beach Riley, Chester G. Murray, John Raymond Holman, Kenneth Beebe, Thomas H. Williams, Charles F. Beebe, William B. Robertson, George Wilford Brown, James Morris, Joseph R. Boole, John A. Noyes, John LaTourrette, John W. Shuler, Robert McMurray, Henry Hughes, Thomas H. Beverley, and Mrs. Paul Becker, William S. Knox, Otis R. Wright, Eugene Watson, Rockey J. B. Bilderbeck, and Dr. Harry Blair. Mrs. Mary H. Scarborough, Mrs. James W. Cook, Mrs. James Gaud, Patrick Williams, Clarence Swall, Jamieson Parker, Charles S. Hubbard, Frederick S. Holman, Captain Roderick D. Grant, George Cecil and Charles K. Field.

Mrs. John K. Kollock has returned from an extended visit in the East, during which she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Tino Maressi at Hartsville, N. Y. Mrs. Maressi will be remembered by Portland friends as Miss Helen Goocle of this city, and they will also be glad to know that she will be a visitor in the city in the spring, when she will come west to attend the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Huber and Clift Cornwall of Short Hills, N. J. It was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maressi that the young people met last year.

Miss Mariam Holcomb will be hostess for a tea Monday afternoon at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Curtis Holcomb, in Graham avenue, honoring Miss Philena King, whose marriage to Roland P. Lockwood will be an event of December 28. The guests will include about 30 college girls home for Christmas vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. John K. Kollock will be hosts for a dinner of 12 covers Wednesday evening, honoring Miss Elizabeth Huber and her fiancé, Clift Cornwall, of Short Hills, N. J., who will arrive in the city today. The dinner will be given at the University club and will be followed by a supper dance at the Multnomah hotel.

Miss Dorothy Mettschan returned to Portland Friday morning from California, where she has been attending Mills college. Miss Mettschan with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Mettschan Jr., will entertain her young friends of the college set at a dance at Multnomah hotel the evening of December 30.

Miss Hope Avery of New York was the guest of honor at an informal luncheon for which Mrs. Preston W. Smith was hostess Friday afternoon. Covers at luncheon were placed for Mrs. Charles E. Miller, Mrs. Kenneth Robertson, Mrs. Mortimer Hall Hartwell, Miss Genevieve Thompson, Miss Avery and the hostess.

Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Thatcher and their two daughters, Elacita and Josephine, who have been absent from the city about two months, have returned and are at their home at 701 Washington street. During their absence they visited in St. Louis, Mo., and the Southern cities.

Miss Genevieve Thompson was hostess for a luncheon at the University club Tuesday honoring Miss Hope Avery of New York and Miss Lillian Moss of Berkeley, Cal. who with Dr. and Mrs. John Forest Dickson will leave in the near future for California. Covers at luncheon were placed for 12 guests.

Miss Agnes McBride and Miss Neil Imhaus, who have been absent from the city some months enjoying a visit in the East, have been at Palm Beach, Fla., during the past fortnight and expect to return to the city in time for the Christmas holidays.

Dr. and Mrs. William S. Knox were hosts last week at a dinner given in honor of Dr. Franklin H. Johnson, head of the Rockefeller Foundation in China. Guests included Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Benson, Dr. and Mrs. Frank R. Kistner and Dr. Richard Dillehunt.

Little Mary Kollock will be hostess for a luncheon party Tuesday at the home of her mother, Mrs. John K. Kollock, honoring Sally Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Lovich. The guests will include a group of little girls from Miss Castlin's school.

Mrs. I. N. Lipman was hostess for a dinner of eight covers at her home in Wayne street Thursday evening. Saturday Mrs. Lipman was hostess for an informal afternoon of bridge, honoring Mrs. S. W. Ehrman of San Francisco.

Mrs. D. W. L. MacGregor entertained informally at bridge Tuesday afternoon, a few additional guests calling at the tea hour.

MISS GWLADYS BOWEN, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. W. H. C. Bowen, who will take the part of Dame Quigley in Rosalind, the one act play by J. M. Barrie, to be given by the Drama league December 27 and 28.

Big Attendance Is Expected at 'College Prom'

COLLEGE folks are anticipating the big "college prom" to be given Christmas night, at the Multnomah hotel. Three successive meetings of the committees at the University of Oregon, Oregon Agricultural college and University of Washington have been held and they are planning for a large attendance. Invitations have been sent to all the high school students by the committee in charge in the city. These dances are given for the purpose of getting the students of the various colleges and high school students about to enter college acquainted and to create a spirit of comradeship between the schools. The college folk will arrive home for their holiday vacation today and a special meeting will be held Tuesday evening at the hotel to complete arrangements for the prom. Those in charge and those assisting the different chairmen are:

Dorothy McGuire, Curtis Phillips, Mildred Landreale, Hazel Green, Earl Clark, Hazel Weiden, Gus Dixon, Francis Lounsbury, Edward Miller, Richard McLary, Eva Versteeg, Edwin Serr, Mildred Seifert, Quinon Thomas, Alma Schurr, Frank Halper, Arthur Base, Elsie Dodson, Edward Suck, Albert Burson, Selma Kirschner, Conrad Koch, Edward Burson, Selma Weteland, Peter Sweeney, Bert Hayes, Dorothy Fisher, Arthur Burton, Helele Jones, Elizabeth Wiggins, Hal Garner, Chauncey Wightman, Janet Peers, Lawrence Smith, Dorothy Mitchell, Alys Sutton, Dorothy Houston, Byron Thomas, Cecil Dunn. Patrons and patronesses are: Mr. and Mrs. Leland Seifert and Mr. and Mrs. Pinker Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Myers were hosts for a delightful supper dance at the Oregon grill Monday evening on the occasion of Mr. Myers' birthday anniversary. Covers were laid at the supper table for about 40 of the younger married folk, and the table was attractive with chrysanthemums and dainty place cards. A candle-light birthday cake centered the table, which was cut with much ceremony by Mr. Myers.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Shea will be hosts for a Christmas family dinner party at their home in Johnson street. Their guests will include Mr. and Mrs. Irving L. Stearns, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. McGinn, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Shea and Mrs. Shea's mother, Mrs. A. M. McGinn.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cheney of Detroit have come to Portland to make their home and will occupy the George S. Whiteside house until spring. Mrs. Whiteside is in the East, where her son and daughter are attending school. Dr. Whiteside expects to join his family at Christmas time.

Miss Dorothy Shea will be hostess for a dance December 28 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Shea, in Johnson street. Her guests will include the members of the sub-debutante set.

Miss Sally Hart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Hart, arrived today from San Francisco, where she has been actively engaged in social service work. She expects to remain in Portland until January 7.

Miss Sparks and Lieut. Craig to Wed on Tuesday

MRS. NORMA SPARKS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Sparks of Vancouver, Wash., will become the bride of Lieutenant Harry L. Craig of Los Angeles, Cal., Tuesday evening at the home of her parents. The bride is a graduate of National Park Seminary, and has many friends in Portland. Lieutenant Craig is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Craig of Los Angeles, and during the war period, was stationed at Vancouver barracks. He is a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and is now stationed at Fort Montgomery, N. Y. The wedding will be an informal ceremony for which the Rev. L. K. Grimes will officiate. Miss Ruth Jones of Salem will sing the bridal hymn and at the collation supper following the ceremony Miss Hanita Mayer and Miss Bertha Masters will preside in the dining room. Lieutenant Craig will take his bride to Los Angeles and thence to Washington, D. C., to their home.

Mrs. James T. Jamecy entertained Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Philena King, bride-elect. Mrs. Charles W. King, Mrs. Charles E. Glafke and Mrs. Edward Newbegin presided at the tea and coffee urns. Mrs. S. May Glafke, Mrs. Cecil Teague, Miss Gretchen Colton, Miss Beth Ludlam, Mrs. J. E. Ludlam and Mrs. Ernest W. Crichton assisted.

Mrs. Maylon E. Scott (Stephanie Strat) will arrive early this week to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas T. Strat, Lieutenant Scott, who is stationed at Camp Lewis, will join his wife here later in the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. O'Brien will be hosts for a family dinner party Christmas day. Mr. and Mrs. Coe A. McKenna and children and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Brien of Pendleton will be their guests.

Mrs. Jay R. Coffey and small sons, accompanied by her sister, Miss Elizabeth Richardson, left Saturday morning to spend the holidays with their younger sister, Miss Virginia Lee Richardson, and other relatives in Texas.

Mrs. Lois Nitchy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Nitchy, returned Saturday from California, where she has been attending school at Castelleja. She will spend the Christmas holidays in Portland.

Kappa Alpha Theta will be host for a dance at Multnomah hotel December 29 for active and alumnae members and their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Boshcke and Miss Elizabeth and George Boshcke expect to spend the Christmas holiday season in California.

Miss Helen Teal has taken apartments at Alexander Court and will remain in the city for the winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick L. Warren are arranging a fancy dress party to be given at their home New Year's eve.

Mrs. Fred H. Green will be hostess for a dancing party to be given December 27 at her home in St. Clair street.

Well Known Girl Sets January 18 As Wedding Day

MISS ELIZABETH STANFIELD has chosen January 18 as the date for her wedding to Owen Davis of Chicago. The marriage will be solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Joshua Stanfield, in Fairview boulevard, and the details of the ceremony will be simple. Miss Stanfield has been the guest of honor at several informal affairs planned for her pleasure during the past fortnight. Last Saturday Mrs. Ernest Markle planned a delightful surprise tea and shower at the home of Miss Stanfield. Mrs. Victor Strode and Mrs. William Powell presided in the dining room at the tea hour.

A special meeting of the Decem club was held Monday evening in honor of Mrs. Minnie Shelland Carver, who after an absence of three years is in the city for a few days. Elizabeth Bird entertained the club at the home of her sister, Mrs. Lind. After disposing of the regular business, the girls enjoyed having a genuine good old time visit with their guest. Dainty refreshments were served later in the evening by Miss Bird and her sister.

Invitations have been issued for a dancing party to be given Wednesday evening, December 29, at Waverly Country club by Leland and Virginia Fenton, son and daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Hicks C. Fenton. Guests for the evening will include the members of the younger social contingent, many of whom have returned to the city from school for the Christmas holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Reade M. Ireland arrived in Portland early in the week from Idaho and will spend the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Ireland's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William MacMaster.

Waverly Country club will hold its annual open house New Year's day when a collation will be served throughout the afternoon, with music and dancing from 2 until 5 o'clock.

Miss Helen West was among the Portland girls who returned Friday from Mills college for the Christmas holidays, which she will spend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oswald West.

Miss Elizabeth Huber will be hostess for an informal dance at her home on Portland Heights Tuesday evening. Her guests will include only about 30 of the younger folk.

Dr. Jesse Ettleson will leave the city Monday evening for New York, where he will do post graduate work for the next month, returning to Portland early in February.

Miss Anna Warren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Warren, will be hostess for a tea to be given Monday afternoon, December 27, at her home in Westover road.

Members of Kenton club will dance at the clubhouse Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Copping will be hosts for the affair.

An enjoyable dinner party was given Thursday evening at the Hotel Portland by Charles A. Desmond. Covers were placed for 15 guests.

Patronesses for Sorority Dance Will Be Many

In addition to the list of patronesses already announced for the Chi Omega benefit dance, several other prominent society women will be on the list. The party will be one of the first of the holiday festivities, opening the week Monday, December 28, at the Multnomah hotel main ballroom. A special Christmas party to be given December 31, from 3 to 5 o'clock, for the smaller pupils of the Christmas Dancing school, is being anticipated by the members of the afternoon classes. This is an unusual affair and is conducted by Mrs. Mose Christensen and Victor Christensen. Special dances have been arranged with special features, with Santa Claus, who will have remembrances for all, as a central figure. The hall will be gaily decorated and in keeping with the holiday spirit.

Miss Mary Helen Spaulding arrived in the city Friday evening from the south, where she has been attending the Bishop school for girls at La Jolla, Cal. She will spend the Christmas holidays with her mother and with her grandmother, Mrs. Loyal B. Stearns.

Mrs. Charles F. Berg was hostess for a dinner Wednesday evening honoring Miss Dorothy Frankenu of San Francisco, who is a guest in the city at the home of Miss Elise Feldman. Covers were placed for 12 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Ehrman were dinner hosts Wednesday evening when they entertained informally at the Hotel Portland, places being marked for six friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben E. Ettleson expect to leave the city Monday evening for New York, where they will sail for Europe to be gone about three months.

Engagement Is Made Public at Dinner Thursd'y

DR. AND MRS. W. T. SIMMONS were hosts for a beautifully appointed dinner Thursday evening at which they announced the engagement of Miss Jennie Lee Simmons to Edward A. Burt. Miss Simmons is the sister of the late J. Curtis Simmons and of Dr. Simmons, and is a former St. Louis girl who recently came to Portland to make her home. Mr. Burt is a young attorney and is connected with the Crystal Ice company. He is also a member of Al Kader temple of the Shrine and of the Elks' lodge. Owing to a recent bereavement in the family the wedding will be a quiet affair at the home of Mrs. J. Curtis Simmons, in The Alameda, January 8.

Miss Elizabeth Peters of Irvington left Wednesday evening for an extended visit in Florida, Philadelphia and New York. In the last named city she will visit her sister, Mrs. Willard O. Wilson, formerly Helen Peters.

The Misses Mary and Elinor Woodard, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Woodward, are home for the Christmas holidays from Corvallis, where they have been attending college this year.

Miss Clara Teal, who has been spending several weeks in California with her brother, Henry Teal, has returned to Portland. Mr. Teal, who is improving in health, will spend the remaining winter months in the South.
