Employees Enjoy Novelty Party—A novelty party for the employees of Marshall-Weiss company was given Saturday evening at the company's offices, Fifteenth and Lovejoy streets. The evening was spent in dancing, cards and a musical program furnished by Miss Helen Matthews and the Zenith quartet with the assistance of Greenwood orchestra. Luncheon followed.

Students Get Dividend—Hobart Benson, manager of the Reed college Co-operative store, has assumed the role of Santa Claus, and Tuesday's mail left Reed with dividend checks for half a hundred patrons of the college store. Most of the stockholders who will receive dividends as Christmas presents are in Eastern colleges engaged in graduate study. The two weeks' vacation at Reed also gave the student manager opportunity for adding totals on purchase receipts for the past three months. Anna Allen of New Jersey proved to be the "Coop's" best customer, with $46 of purchases since September 15. Florence Hixon was second with $42. Both are freshmen. The smallest purchase total amounted to 1 cent, believed to be a 1-cent stamp sale.

Missing Husband Sought—City Auditor Funk is in receipt of a letter from Mrs. George Chenier of Montreal, Que., asking for information about her husband who left the Canadian city nearly 30 years ago, presumably to come to Oregon. Chenier, who was 30 years of age when he left Montreal, is thought to have gone east as far as Omaha, thence to the Kankakee later returning to Oregon. In 1904 Mrs. Chenier received word that her husband was killed in a mine disaster in Oregon, but doubts the report. City officials can find no record of the missing man, but does the city's death record from 1898 to date include Chenier's name, the health department reports.

Acts in Leger Case—United States Senator Charles McNary has urged the subpoena-general immediately to "take charge of Louis Poy, the Chinese leper held by the city at the new isolation hospital, according to a letter received by City Health Officer George Parrish. McNary is urging the deportation of Poy, he advises. Because of Louis Poy's arrival in the United States prior to Chinese exclusion, it is doubtful if the government can deport him, Parrish says, but the government should be compelled to place the man in one of its leper colonies.

Irish Relief Campaign—The committee in charge of the Irish relief campaign in Oregon has received advice that the fund telegraphed from Portland were the first to reach Eamon DeValera for distribution among the suffering people of Ireland. Tonight's meeting in Hibbard hall will formally open the campaign. Addresses will be made by the Rev. J. M. O'Farrell, John R. Murphy and other speakers, interspersed with musical numbers by Miss Eleanor Lillis, Ted Cosgrave and Miss Madigan.

Stabbing Is Suspected—Henry Brown was arrested Tuesday night following the fatal stabbing of a man at the Globe hotel. Rins exhibited a wound at police headquarters, telling the police he had been stabbed by Brown, according to the police version. After his injury had been attended to Rins guided the police to a place in the North End where Brown was arrested. He is being held for investigation.

To Discuss Irish Cause—Dr. W. T. McElveen, pastor of the First Congregational church, will discuss the Irish question Thursday night at 7:45 o'clock before his current events class. The 60,000 word report of the Committee of One Hundred recently called by The Nation, a New York weekly paper, to investigate the situation, will be the basis of the lecture. Admission will be free. An offering will be taken for the benefit of the Near East relief.

Terminal to Be Discussed—Portland's Union passenger terminal controversy will be the subject of discussion before the Progressive Business Men's club at its luncheon Thursday noon in the Benson hotel, City Attorney La Roche, who is also secretary of the mayor's terminal commission, will be the speaker of the day, and C. C. Hall will preside.

Child Is Injured—Bruce McKelison, 2 1/2-year-old son of Raymond V. McKelison, 28 Overlook boulevard, was knocked down and run over by a milk wagon driven by Henry Strigast as the lad was crossing the street near his home Tuesday afternoon. The child was taken home where it is reported he has no broken bones.

Woman Flees Jail—Climbing down the fire escape in the early morning hours, Helen Wilson, a prisoner from the woman's department of the city jail, escaped Tuesday leaving behind on Second street at the foot of the fire escape, a single blanket. She was being held for investigation by the health department.
