SATURDAY, JANUARY 1 house at Waverley Country club from 2 to 5:30.
House at home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Davis Jr.
House at studios, sixth floor, Bush & Lane building.

Stage, Screen; Woman's Realm

NEW YEAR'S DAY, 1921 CLUB CALENDAR

The Oregon Journal extends to each and every member of Portland's 200 women's organizations cordial good wishes for a year of united and effective effort in their many lines of endeavor and offers all possible assistance.

New Year's Day Events to Be Informal

By Helen Hutchison

NEW YEAR'S day will be the occasion of numerous informal functions and family dinners in Portland homes. Waverley Country club will hold open house all day and will serve a collation from 2 to 5 clock. There will also be from 2 to 5 o'clock. There will also be usic for dancing. The studios of the Bush & Lane building will be open for an informal reception and musical program which will asbuilding will receive their friends from Moore, Mrs. Mitylene Fraker Stites, Dorothea Nash, Pauline Miller Chapman, Frances Sheehy, Elsie Lewis, Abble Whiteside and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Wedecasion of the annual progressive dinner, which each year is arranged with such mystery surrounding its details. The company includes about 100 young marging fully who directly follows:

Sorts about something.

"Now, what can be the matter with that prickly fellow?" wondered Mrs. Grouse. "I am sure there hasn't been any one here in the Group Found to New Year's day will also be the ocried folk who dine at various uncon-ventional places and who usually spend the last hours of the evening dancing to-the announcement of the engagement of Miss Loving Dunbar of Seattle to Robert O. Morrison, son of Dr. and Mrs.

She hurried on to where she could see hostess in Scattle. Miss Dunbar is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David E. Iunbar of Scattle. She is a graduate of mean him. the University of Washington and a member of Alpha Chi Omega. She arrived this morning to be the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Morrison for a short time. crossly. Mr. Morrison, who is the second son of Dr. Morrison, rector of Trinity Episcopal church, and Mrs. Morrison, was who liked good winter weather." was a student at the University of Ore- I don't like bad winter weather. graquated from Lincoln high school and service in France with the 46th field ing!" cried Mrs. Grouse. artillery. No definite aurouncement has Prickly Porky. Leen made of the wedding date.

ement is made of the engagement of Miss Anna Rosenbaum of San Francisco to Edwin Guiver, a young business man of this city. The bride has attained success as a reader and during the war period was active in work with the war camp community service. The wedding will take place service. The wed New Year's day.

The Iowa society will meet in regular session Wednesday evening, January 5, at the Turn Verein hall, Thirteenth and Main streets. Business meeting will be at 8:15, followed by cards and dancing: Surprise refreshments featuring Oregon made goods will be served, All lownns and their friends are invited.

Miss Barbara Stanfield, daughter of Senator-elect and Mrs. Robert N. Stanfield, will receive her friends informally at their home on Westover Terrace New oring Miss Dorothy Elliott, who is her which will include several interesting

Members of the class of 1919 held a reunion at St. Marys academy this afternoon which assembled a large number of the former students of the school.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. O'Reilly will receive informally for the young friends of their daughters, Jane and Anne O'Reilly,

The women's auxiliary of the American Legion will give a benefit 500 party Wednesday afternoon at the Portland

The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Davis Jr. will be open for an informal New Year's day reception Saturday.

Gayety on Tap for Series of Midnight Show Shop Programs

Great gobs of gayety, assembled into the form of midnight matinees, are promised by Portland theatres as delights to attend the advent of the new year. The Liberty theatre has, among others, arranged an extensive program of fun and entertainment that will open with the appearance of the Portland Ladies' Symphony orchestra.

Other Liberty vaudeville features will be Gaymon & Gaymon, steel guitar specialists; George Abbott; Billy Carr, the cowboy violinist; Dorothy Lyons, danseuse, and the Liberty's special offering, "A Persian Harem Up-to-Date," presenting the Manhattan trio, eight dance girls and the Nubian slave jazz The premier showing of Mack Sennett's "Love, Honor and Behave" will be another feature mingling with 15 or more amateur vaudeville acts.

The Hippodrome, Pantages, Baker and Lyric theatres as well as the Majestic and Rivoli, also have interesting programs revolving about the regular entertainment in those houses. The Ma-jestic has made some novel departures and, with, the other houses, will offer the spirit of a New Year carnival. At the Hippodrome the customary evening performance will be extended until 12:30 o'clock and patrons of the last regular show will be welcome if they remain for he New Year's affair.

The Theatrical Mechanics' association has arranged a big program for its mat-ince at the Hellig theatre tonight.

Bordens EAGLE BRAND

Prickly Porky Becomes Uneasy won't be anything to eat there. If you'll

By Thornton W. Burgess

THE very morning that Peter Rabbit clumsily climb down the tree. I crept into a certain hollow log in the Green Forest for a nap Mrs. Grouse happened along near the tree in which Prickly Porky the Porcupine had been bright Mr. Sun disappeared and she finding life so very pleasing and wholly sume the proportions of general open to his liking. Mrs. Grouse passed that house New Year's day when 'the way nearly every day, so she knew that musicians on the sixth floor of the Prickly Porky was there. Each time she passed she looked up to see how to 7 o'clock. Those who will act as many more branches Prickly Porky had nosts for the occasion are Mrs. Clifford stripped of lives, twigs and bark.

This morning she heard Prickly Porky before she was where she could see him. He was whining and grunting fretfully. The very sound of his voice was proof that he was feeling very much out of bother him and I know he doesn't mind the cold so long as he has plenty to eat, and he hasn't half stripped that tree yet. Perhaps he has the stomach-ache. Of wide interest to Portland friends is It makes mine ache just to think of liv-

A. A. Morrison of this city, which was Prickly Porky. He was up in the big made known at a tea for which Mrs. Dunbar, mother of the bride-elect, was back against the trunk and scolding

"The weather," grunted Prickly Porky

"I do," grunted Prickly Porky. "But "But this isn't bad! It is a fine morn-

"It is going to change," grunted "How do you know?" demanded Mrs. "I don't see any signs of a

"How should I know how I know?" retorted Prickly Porky fretfully. "I do know. It is pleasant enough now, but it won"t be long. A storm is coming and it is going to be a bad one. I can always tell when a storm is coming by my feelings. That means I've got to leave this fine tree and go stay in a hollow log for goodness knows how long. bother, a nuisance and there Briars." It is

Dancing School

Will Stage

Party

The regular luncheon of the Women's feature dances.

Porky seemed more fretful and uneasy than ever. He actually seemed to be take my advice, Mrs. Grouse you'll find a safe warm place without any delay."

Prickly Porky began to slowly and "I really believe he believes himself."

thought Mrs. Grouse, and looked up at the sky. Even as she looked jolly, noticed an extra chill in the air. Prickly retorted Prickly Porky fretfully.

rying to hurry. "It is clouding up a little, but it often does that without storming. How can he know it is going to storm? I've always wondered where Prickly Porky spends his time in bad weather and now I'll have a chance to find out. I'll just sit here and watch Prickly Porky reached the foot of the tree and, still fretting, shuffled along until he came to a certain white mound. It was a great hollow log buried in snow. At one end was a hole freshly dug. Prickly Porky looked surprised and grunted still more fretfully. The hole wasn't big enough for him so he went to work to make it bigger. Presently he disappeared. And as he did so the first snowflakes came hissing down through the trees. "I guess he knew what he was talking about," said Mrs. Grouse as she prepared to seek shelter. (Copyright, 1920, by T. W. Burgess.)

The next story: "Peter Dreams of Linney, Bess Colwell, Mrs. Strandborg, Mrs. Harris and Miss Mattingly have been asked to give short talks, on what they would like to see the club accomplish in 1921. The president will ap-point the nominating committee to select candidates for the coming election. Proposed changes in the constitution will also be read.

More Fame for Milwaukee Miss Katherine Burnside was hos'ess for an informal tea this afternoon honbers of the Christensen dancing school, suburb, is "seeing" things. Monday a ers of the Milwaukee, Wis., Dec. 31.-(U. P.)deer was reported; Tuesday, a wolf; Wednesday, a bear, and yesterday, an elephant, Prohibition agents were paged > Advertising club will be held Friday at The Women of Mooseheart legion will hold a social session Friday night for the Benson hotel. Members are urged to give a dance Friday night at Moose members of the order and their friends be present, as plans and suggestions for temple, Fourth near Taylor street, and at M. W. A. hall, 8 Eleventh street. the coming year will be discussed. Hazel expect a large attendance.

RS. J. O. WILSON, who will be a patroness for the W. O. W. dance New Year's eve at East Side temple.

PANTAGES—Broadway at Alder. High class vaudeville and photoplay features. Afternoon and evening. Program changes Monday aft-letters she carries. ernoon.

LOEW'S HIPPODROME — Broadway at Yam-hill Direction Ackerman & Harris. Vaude-ville, Afternoon and night.

STOCK BAKER—Morrison at Eleventh, Baker Stock company in "Way Down East.|" Matinee Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday, 2:30; evenings, 8:20.

LYRIC—Broadway and Morrison, Lyric Musical "Popular", Trouble." Travesty company, in "Dooley's Trouble. Matinee daily, 2:20; evenings, 8:20.

PHOTOPLAYS

COLUMBIA—Sirth at Stark. Lionel Barrymore in "The Master Mind." 11 a. m. to 11 p. m. LIBER'SY—Broadway at Stark. "Fatty" Arbuckle in "The Round Up." 11 a. m. to 11 p. m.

RIVOLI—Washington at Park. Bebe Daniels in "You Never Can Tell." 11 a.m. to 11 p.m.

MAJESTIC—Washington at Park. Barker's "Godless Men." 11 a.m. to 11 p. m.

PEOPLES—West Park at Alder. Ethel Clayton in "The Sins of Rosanne." 11 a. m. to 11 p. m.

Samaritan lodge, I. O. O. F. Wednesday night held a social evening without any program. L. E. Carter was reelected trustee for three years. This will make his fifth three year term. The I. O. O. F. building committee has perfected articles of incorporation and has received $90,000 subscribed by the three lodges, Hassalo, Samaritan and Minerva. The corporation commissionize the soliciting of subscriptions to stock to the extent of $500,000.

Mt. Hood tent of the Maccabees will

Is Not a Bit Serious

By E. C. B.

DERHAPS by virtue of the fact that it offered nothing to tax the imagination nor quicken the pulse, yet was presented to the accompaniment of tuneful ditties, clever dance steps, tasteful costuming and amid simple settings, "Listen Lester" proved an interesting, light diversion to Heilig theatre audiences

Unless it be the catchy air of "Waiting," that was impressive ,there isn't the lingering hint of a tune left today, nor can one tell why Fred Heider's nonsense proved so welcome. Fred's athletic entertainment has novelty and the flavor of originality to recommend it, and there is enough variety of talent in the company to carry on where Heider leaves

The only singing voices in the "Lister Lester" company are those of the Four Entertainers, a splendid quartet comosed of Lloyd Balliet, John Shannon, John Bowe and William Renaud. The beauty of the company is confined to the artistry of the costumer—the physical beauty allotted the company apparently nad to cover so much territory that its effect is lost. The women of the cast are chiefly in the chorus, of course, but aside from that group, there is June Roberts, the youthful dancing girl, and Betty Kirkbride, who plays the important role of "Arbutus Quilty."

The thread of a theme marks "Listen Lester" and brings in Delano Dell as Lester Lite, porter at a Palm Beach hotel. Lester is a card-his face is his fortune, surely. The story has to do with the loves of Colonel Rufus Dodge HEILIG—Broadway at Trylor. Fred Heider, in "Listen Lester." 8:20. Matinee Saturday.

VAUDEVILLE

with the loves of Colonel Rufus Dodge and his endeavors to escape their results. One of the chief results is the stiff and stilled Arbutus Quilty, bent upon denting stilted Arbutus Quilty, bent upon denting Afternoon the colonel's fortune through the love

"Listen Lester" is presented in two very active part.

in "Listen Lester," but as an athletic comedian he seems to be secure in stardom, while the presentation of the role of Arbutus Quilty by Miss Kirkbride is a happy bit of exaggerated character. New Year's day, with a special matinee on that day.

Centralia, Wash., Dec. 31. - Centralia lodge, I. O. O. F., will stage a homecomlodge is closing one of the most prosper-

Is Hostess To Club

MEMBERS of the current literature department of the Portland Woman's club assembled Thursday at the home of Mrs. Henry Waldo Coe, in Laurelhurst, for their regular meeting. Assisting hostesses were: Mrs. F. A. Kribs, Mrs. E. E. Larimore, Mrs. J. C. Bryant, Mrs. F. C. Whitten, Mrs. H. T. Donivan, Mrs. J. C. Boyer, Mrs. E. R.

Pittlekau and Mrs. L. Z. Hendrick. More than 90 women were served the delicious luncheon. Mrs. Larimore and Mrs. Boyer presided at the table, which was decorated in violets and rosebuds. Mrs. Victor Brandt, chairman from the club for the European relief drive, made a plea for workers and secured a number of volunteers. Contributions for this worthy cause were also solicited and $40 was received. Delightful vocal numbers were given by Mrs. Petronella Connell Peets. The book, "Lightnin'," by Frank Bacon, was interestingly reviewed by Mrs. Frank M. Taylor.

Members of the Bay View Study club ere delightfully entertained with a bridge tea Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Brodie. Four tables were used for the game.

The dancing class and assembly will be resumed at Glencoe school, Fiftieth and Belmont streets, on Saturday evening, January 1, 1921, at the customary hour. As a tribute to the holiday season punch will be served at intermission.

FRATERNAL

Thursday evening the Improved Order of Red Men and the Ladies of Pocahontas united with Santa Claus to entertain a hundred or more little folks. The beautiful tree in the W. O. W. scenes, one a hotel lobby and the other Multnomah hall at 112 East Sixth street, a hotel porch. Neither is elaborate was aglow with electric lights and trimenough to detract from the interest that mings. Great Prophet L. B. Smith precenters about the singing and dancing, sided. The Hoch orchestra started up in which Francis X. Donegan takes a an Indian march and the costymed ery active part.

Heider only offers a hint of his talent of Oneonta tribe, and the Daughters of Pocahontas, led by Mrs. F. H. Meyers, escorted the little folks twice around the hall before Santa Claus C. Carsenten appeared and with rapid motions passed out to the children the weighty fruits of "Listen Lester" will remain through the glittering tree. There was a musical and literary program, mostly with the little artists in evidence, and dancing. Orphia temple, Pythian Sisters, held a largely attended meeting Thursday evening at the Pythian building and received a class of 19 new members. The degree work was given in full. Mrs. Chorus Girls' Contesty Store Every Tuesday Night CHORUS GIRLS' CONTEST FRIDAY NIGHT

"Listen Lester" Mrs. H. W. Coe Thad Graves presided as most excellent chief. Two of the candidates were Captain T. C. Freiberg and wife. Captain Freiberg is one of the traffic officers of the police department, com mander of the brigand patrol of the D. O. K. K., ex-first sergeant in the United States army and until quite lately considered a hopeless batch.

Members of the Elks and their ladies enjoyed a social session Thursday right immediately following a short bus

AMUSEMENTS

America's Greatest Recital Baritone

CECIL FANNING Assisted by H. B. TURPIN At Auditorium Monday, Jan. 3

In Joint Concert With the Portland Oratorio Society Chorus of 135 Voices-JOSEPH A. FINLEY, Conductor

AT 8:30 P. M.

IN THEIR ANNUAL PRESENTATION OF THE

GOLDIE PETERSON - - Soprame MITYLENE STITES - - Contralto JOHN C. MONTEITH - Beritane J. MacMILLAN MUIR - - - Tenor E. E. COURSEN - - - - Organist DANAE LIVESAY - - - - Pianist PRICES-$1.50, $1.00, 75c and 50c-NO WAR TAX

SHERMAN-CLAY'S Management LAURENCE A. LAMBERT, 287 Washington St.

TICKETS NOW ON SALE AT

'Dooley's Troubles"

AMUSEMENTS

TONIGHT, 8:15

TOMORROW MAT. and EVE. HEILIG Broadway at Taylor
Phone Main 1.
TONIGHT, 8:15 TOMORROW
NIGHT
SPECIAL PRICE MAT. TOMORROW, 2:15

JOHN, CORT PRESENTS

BRILLIANT MUSICAL COMED

GREATEST DANCING CHORUS "LISTEN" ! PATRONS! SECURE TICKETS EARLY
EVES—Floor, $2.50. Balcony, $2. $1.50, $1. Gallery res, 75c, adm, 50c. SAT MAT.
Floor, $2. Balcony, $1.50, $1. Gallery 50c.

> -EXTRA-Ticket Sale Now Open

HEILIG Broadway at Taylor TONIGHT ANNUAL-

Midnight Matinee

ANY SEAT, LOWER FLOOR $1 ALL SEATS HURRY TICKETS NOW SELLING

DANCE

NEW YEAR'S EVE COME JOIN IN THE FUN

Cotillion Hall and Broadway Hall PORTLAND'S FINEST

Dancing Until I A. M.

A TIP RESERVE THEM TODAY

'Way Down East' Most Popular Play Ever Written EXTRA-MIDNIGHT MATINEE New Year's Eve Starting 11:30 P. M.

PANTAGES MATINEE BIG HOLIDAY SHUW RIGOLETTO BROTHERS WITH JAN RUBINI SWANSON SISTERS
TED SHAWN MARJORIE PETERSON

AND. COMPANY OF DANCERS THE SERIAL BRIDE 13
SUPREME BRIDE 13
See first Serial and You Will View Them All.
THREE SHOWS DAILY-NIGHT CURTAIN 7 AND 9

guaranteed in 8 three-hour lemons. Ladies $3, gentlemen $5. Delioney's beautiful amdemy, 23d and Washington Beginners' class starts Monday and Thursday evenings. Advanced class Treesday evenings 8 to 11:30. Plenty of designable partners—no embarrassment. You can never learn descing in private lessons from inserior teachers—you must have practices. If 2 k N.

able partners—no temperature lessons from inferior teachers—you must have practice. LEARN IN A REAL SCHOOL. Classes are large and select—the social feature alone is worth double the price—the enly teacher in Portland capable of appearing before the public in stage and exhibition dancing. We beach more people to dance than all other schools combined. One lesson from us is worth six in the average school. Phone Main 7656. Private lessons all hour

"The Mollycoddle" SPECIAL Added Attraction

The following are sample names which, for various reasons, cannot be used: "Bo Peep," "Columbia," "Minerva," "Good Shepherd." "Oregon."

Scores of names have been suggested, but we're not sure the right one has been made yet. IT MAY BE THE NAME YOU'RE THINK-ING OF RIGHT NOW. Sit down and write out your suggestions now-send them in at once. We're looking for the right name for the first pure worsted knitting yarn spun west of the Atlantic Coast-it is made right here in Portland. Until we find a better name, we're calling it

Oregon Worsted Yarn

But we want a descriptive name—one that will distinguish this yarn from every other brand of yarn being sold! Perhaps you can suggest the right name—if you do-you'll win $250 cash! The leading dealers of Oregon are selling this yarn for 50c a ball. Ask to see it. Remember it is made from pure, virgin wool. Finger it. Think about it. NAME IT!

Rules of Contest

The contest is open to everyone. Submit as many names as you like. Use the contest blank or your own stationery. Impartial judges will select the winning name. Only one name can be chosen. If the winning name is suggested by more than one person, the first suggestion received will be awarded the prize. Contest closes January 10. Announcement of winner will be made January 15, 1921. Address all suggestions to Oregon Worsted Company, Contest Depart ment, Portland, Oregon.

Oregon Worsted Co.

ROY T. BISHOP, Vice-President and Manager Portland, Oregon