PORTLAND, OREGON.

his present connection with the federal ncil he is also a member of the faculty of the University of Chicago. Bishops W. T. Sumner and W. O. Shepard of Portland describe Dr. Willett as one of the most eloquent men on the American platform today. Owing to the special character of the meeting the public generally will be welcome.

Dr. Willett will occupy the pulpit of the First Christian church Sunday morn- and March. ing and the First Methodist church Sunday night.

Will Discuss Strike Right

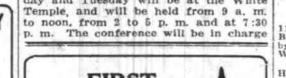

The Sunday night forum in room A of the Central library, held under the au-spices of the Portland Federation of Churches, will be addressed this week by Richard W. Montague. His subject will be "The Kansas Industrial Court." Montague will discuss the right of the law to require labor to continue at work instead of striking, and also the right of the law to force business interests to provide regular employment for their employes.
