Hoping for Caster Sunday Enrollment

A very hopeful spirit is reported among the Presbyterian pastors of Portland and surrounding territory by the Rev Walter M. Irwin, New Era secretary for Oregon, Washington and Idaho, who has just returned from a trip over the area. All are looking forward to a great ingathering on Easter Sunday. The pastors will emphasize steward-made to secure many enrollments in "Fellowship of Stewardship." Plans are also being made for shown Sunday night at Atkinson Memorial Congregational church.

The Sunday night service at Laurelwood Congregational church will be given to a report of the delegates who attended the state Christian Endeavor convention at Corvallis.

Once a month Rev. Edward Constant is giving a talk on famous church hymns and their authors at Highland Congregational church. This Sunday night he will discuss "Lead, Kindiy Light." Steps are being taken for the formation of a Boy Scout troop.

The boys and girls of the First Congregational church are discussing the support of a student at the denomination's seminary on the island of Mindanao, which is the island in the Philippine group assigned to Congregationalists.

The cost will be $250 per annum. to $22,000 to be used in helping churches tributary to Portland
