BIG MOONSHINE STILL IS FOUND IN OSWEGO SECTION

A big moonshine still ceased to shine Wednesday and Thursday on or near Oswego lake, primarily as the result of the two evident prevalence of "hootch" in quantities among some youths of the district and the angry complaints of the parents. Immediate cause of sudden cessation of operations was a still hunt conducted by Constable Arthur McVey, who located it back of McLean's camps on the south shore.

Carrie Nation proceedings were conducted by McVey and Sheriff Wilson of Oregon City who had been summoned to the scene by McVey.

DEFEAT IS FEARED

Considerable disappointment is entertained by the people of the Oswego district over the possibility that the annexation measure joining the district to Multnomah county will fail to pass the legislature. The Oswego-Lake Grove section is practically unanimous in favor of breaking away from Clackamas county and if the measure fails in the legislature it is the intention of the district immediately to begin another effort headed by practically the same persons who have charge of the present movement and to have a strong community organization to back them. One of the main regrets in the present case was the delay in forming an organization and the other was in joining issues with the East Siders, who the West Siders generally believe were asking too much.

COMMUNITY NOTES

The dance given Saturday evening by the Oswego Community Club was most successful. There has been a series of dances given this winter and the funds raised are to be used to buy instruments and other equipment for the club.

The Ladies Aid of the M. E. church met at the home of Mrs. A. C. Good. The affair was a silver tea and a tidy sum was gathered for the benefit of church work.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gilmore were pleasantly surprised Monday evening when a number of their friends walked in on them unannounced. The eleventh wedding anniversary of the couple was the occasion. Everyone had a good time. The young people who belong to Mr. Edwards' Sunday school class of the Congregational church were most enjoyably entertained with a Valentine party at his home in Lake Grove Saturday evening.

Mrs. Ethel Simonton had several guests out from Portland for dinner at her home on Thursday.

Baby Ethel, five months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Emmett, who has been dangerously ill, is said by the attending physician to be out of danger.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lorens of Camas, Wash., and their children, Virginia June and Master Melville, have been visiting Mrs. Lorens' mother, Mrs. William Worthington.

Mr. and Mrs. Ike Austin became proud grandparents this week when the stark left a daughter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Austin of Camas, Wash.

Clarence Riley, who has been in St. Vincent's hospital for several weeks, returned to his home Thursday.

The Oswego Women's club will have a chicken dinner Thursday at the home of Mrs. G. Howard Pettinger for the benefit of the building fund of the Portland Women's club.

Mrs. William Boyd, Mrs. John Bickner, Mrs. William Shawker, Mrs. James Bruce and Miss Mary Bickner, members of the Rebekah lodge at Oswego, were visitors at the Rebekah convention in Portland last week.

A few friends of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis E. Smith made their eighteenth wedding anniversary last Thursday an occasion to call and spend the evening. An enjoyable round of cards and a Dutch luncheon was enjoyed.

$8000 ON HAND TO DO ROAD WORK ON WALUGA SECTION

The ever present road problem in the Waluga-Lake Grove section of Clackamas county was given a new angle this week when it was learned that approximately $8000 will be available for road purposes this year. Road work for several years has been neglected, with the result that this money has accumulated.

It is expected that former Road Master Kruse will be employed. Kruse's large farm interests have so employed his time that he has neglected his road duties for several years. He has announced that he will give up a large acreage which he has been cultivating so he can devote his time to placing the roads in this section in better condition.

The social event of the week was a Valentine dance given at the Community house at Lake Grove Saturday evening. The affair was in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kelt Kennedy and Mr. and Mrs. Frank McFarland. The hall was appropriately decorated with valentines. There were many original costumes. The Portland Chamber of Commerce drew the honors in the prize walk, as the award was given to George Miller of the membership department and his partner, Mrs. Josephine Fordney of its publicity department.

The meeting will be held Thursday evening, February 24, and it is expected that some vigorous action will be outlined. This club, it is planned, shall have a strong social basis.
