WILLIAMS LINE STEAMER MAKES FIRST PORT CALL

First of the Williams line steamships in the coast-to-coast service to enter at the Port of Portland was the steamship Willfarao, 3347 net tons, A. C. Callan is acting as local agent and to the Standifer Shipbuilding corporation of Vancouver, Wash., is a consignment of six Scotch marine boilers.

For Portland there is a quantity of flat steel and fittings. The Willfarao will load part cargo out from Portland for the Atlantic side.

Customs business was heavy today with the manifests of the motorship Siam, steamship Lehigh and Walter A. Luckenbach. The Siam came in from Vancouver, B. C., and had on a part cargo of grain for Kerr, Gifford & Co. At Portland she will take on an additional 2000 tons and will clear for the United Kingdom for orders.

In the service of the North Atlantic & Western Steamship company, Pacific Steamship company coast agents, the steamship Lehigh came in with 280 tons of general cargo. The Lehigh came from Philadelphia and way and will clear out for the Atlantic side.

The Walter A. Luckenbach of the Luckenbach line and General Steamship company got away for New York with 400,000 feet of ties and a few hundred tons of general cargo. In the general cargo is a shipment of 480 cases of cassia bark transshipped from the Orient.

The steamship Steelmaker of the Isthmian line, in the intercoastal service, is in the river and will deliver and take on general cargo.

Washington's birthday will be generally observed on the waterfront, and both foreign and American vessels will observe the day.

New Tanker Departs

Vancouver, Wash., Feb. 21.—The oil tanker Livingstone Roe, built by the G. M. Standifer Construction corporation for the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, left Saturday evening for San Francisco to take on the first cargo of oil. It is expected that the boat will go to Baton Rouge, La., on her first trip.

ALL ALONG THE WATERFRONT

Captain Harry Porter, formerly master of the old Indrapura out of Portland to the Orient, in the Portland and Asiatic service, entered the steamship Willfaro this morning. Captain Porter was master steamer on the Ainsworth dock after the Germans took over the run. This is his first visit to Portland for more than five years.

The steamship Curacao of the coasting service of the Admiral line is due to arrive up this afternoon from San Francisco via Eureka and Coos Bay.

The steamship West Haven of the Atlantic, Gulf & Pacific line is due to arrive at Portland the first week in March. She will bring 2000 tons of sulphur from Gulfport in addition to general cargo from the Atlantic side. She will discharge at terminal No. 4.

The steamer Georgiana, one of the Harkins fleet will be ready for service by March 1 and will be placed in commission within a short time thereafter. She will run on the same schedule as last year, daily round trips.
