Midget Smith, local bantam, scored a technical knockout over George Lee, Chinese flyweight champion, when the referee stopped the bout in the ninth round. Roy Moore beat Benny Coster. Willie Spencer was awarded the judges' decision over Bud Dempsey at the end of 10 fast rounds, and Frankie Jones of California got the decision over Andy Boyle of the Bronx in the six round opener.

San Antonio, Texas, Feb. 23.—(U. P.) S.—Oto Wallace, Milwaukee and "Fred" Hill of Fort Worth fought 12 fast rounds to a draw here last night. Both are lightweights.

New York, Feb. 23.—(U. P.)—Roy Green, matchmaker of the Fenway A. A. of Boston, today wired an offer of $30,000 to the Chicago Cubs for Jack Dempsey to meet Paul Sampson, New York heavyweight, who recently beat Gene Tunney. Sampson has agreed to meet the champion for $7500.

New York, Feb. 23.—(U. P.)—Joe Lynch will give Moore the title in Madison Square Garden March 2, if Tex Rickard puts through a card he is now planning. Moore is now in Mexico signing the papers, and Eddie Meade, the champion's manager, says he is willing. Terms have not been agreed upon.

Des Moines, Iowa, Feb. 23.—(U. P.)—Frankie Mason of Fort Wayne, Ind., American flyweight, king, outpointed "Dandy" Dillon of Minneapolis, claimant of the Canadian championship, in 10 rounds here last night. Roscoe Hall of Des Moines whipped Joe Mandot of Rock Island, Ill., in a 10-round semi-windup.

New York, Feb. 23.—(U. P.)—Hope that legal obstacles would be removed this week and that Tex Rickard would acquire sole rights to the Dempsey-Carpenter fight was expressed here today by Jack Kearns, manager of the champion.

We are still waiting for William A. Brady to return from western trip," Kearns said. "He is due back this week. We'll get together when he comes and find out what's what about this thing."

Los Angeles, Feb. 23.—(U. P.)—Travis Davis of Seattle decisively beat "Iron Man" Steve Dalton last night in the four-round main event of the Vernon fights.

Davis started Vernon regulars when he jumped in at the opening gong and pounded the veteran Dalton almost into grogginess. He maintained his speed throughout the tussle, beating Dalton to almost every punch. Dalton was a boxing lesson in the semi-windup. Cline was much too fast for the Oaklander.

Sallor Kramer and Ernie Gooman fought a draw, as did Henry Gastine and Young Papke. George Lavigne out-pointed Johnny Webber of San Francisco.

With a victory over Willamette and one over the Oregon Aggies to their credit, the Multnomah basketball players arrived in Portland this morning, prepared to meet the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club quintet in the Winged "M" gymnasium tonight.

Raymond Toomey will start Gus Clerin and Captain Bob Morton at forwards; X. Law Clerin, center, Clarence Twining and Ned Fowler at guards, but the sorrel-topped manager will don a uniform so as to be ready to jump into the ring when he sees his aggregation weakened.

Butta, former Stanford university athlete, worked out with the clubmen Monday night, but it is not likely that he will be able to get in tonight's contest due to lack of condition. He hopes to be in shape to appear with the Winged "M" hoopers before the 1920-21 season is completed. Next Saturday night, Vilcent Borleske and his Whitman college representatives will be entertained in the club gymnasium.

Huggins Has His Eyes on Ball Title

By Jack Velock
NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—(U. P.)—The big spring drive of the ambitious New York Yankees starts Friday. The Yanks will set the pace for rival clubs in the way of starting a squad of pretensions toward Dixie when a dozen or more players leave for Shreveport, La., headed by Scout Joe Kelly. Active work in the Yanks' new camp is scheduled to start next Monday morning.

Manager Miller Huggins, who will go south from his Cincinnati home, believes his 1921 Yanks will capture the pennant and his hopes will be greatly bolstered by Babe Ruth's return to the team. With Babe Ruth, Bobbie Roth and Baker in the batting order, not to mention hitters like Willie Pipp and Roger Peckinpaugh to back them up, Huggins' team will have a batting array surcharged with "TNT." But Huggins is counting almost as strongly on his pitchers.

When all of the Yankee hurlers get into camp at Shreveport the midget manager will have 13 slabs to watch. He gave evidence of his optimism regarding the Yank pitchers when he said: "I expect wonderful things from that pitching staff of mine this year. Shawkey, the league's leading pitcher; Mays, who should improve over 1920; Quinn, veteran spitballer, and Collins, Hoyt and Harper, not to mention a host of young fellows, look mighty good to me. I look for Rip Collins to have an exceptionally good year, and if the others can only do what they should do, well, one-and-a-half of the world's series ought to come to New York next fall."

Babe Ruth and the veteran members of the Yankee battery staff are at Hot Springs, Ark., where they will remain for a week or 10 days before reporting at Shreveport.

Chicago Cubs BATTERMEN START FOR COAST FRIDAY
Chicago, Feb. 23.—(U. P.)—The Chicago Cubs pitchers and catchers, headed by Manager Johnny Evers, leave tomorrow for Santa Catalina island, Cal., for a week's workout before the opening of the regular training at Pasadena, March 7.

The remainder of the players will leave March 3. Before returning home to play St. Louis in the opening championship game April 13 the Cubs will play 23 games on the west coast.

When Manager Evers gathers his players around him for the spring training, he will have a large number of promising recruits on his roster who expected to make the veterans hustle to retain their positions.

Evers favors injection of young blood into the fight. With four veterans missing from his ranks—Fred Merkle, Claude Hendrix, Charles Herzog and Dode Paskert—who were released during the winter, Evers will have to develop his youngsters rapidly.

Oregon Shooter Is Third High Gun in Olympic Club Shoot

San Francisco, Feb. 23.—Sam Sherman, one of the champion trap shots of Utah, was crowned king of the second annual Olympic shoot at Lakeside traps. Sherman was in remarkable form and broke a total of 149 targets out of a possible 150.

That high class shots participated in the event is evidenced by the fact that W. Warren of Yerrington, Nev., Dr. Priestley of Stockton; I. Bungay, Los Angeles, and R. G. Lacey of Dallas, Ore., tied for second place with a total of 148 breaks out of 150, or only 1 point behind the champion, Sherman.

The tie necessitated a shootoff and here some remarkable shooting was seen. Dr. Priestley and Warren were eliminated in the first 25 shots, while Lacey and Bungay netted clean breaks of 25 each. The next 25 shots found the men again even and the next found them with one miss each. This tie continued in the next 25 which brought the score up to 99 for each man out of the hundred.

The next 25 found the big crowd at fever heat of excitement and when Lacey missed his twentieth bird Bungay had as good as won. The man from Los Angeles went right out, winning the shoot-off with 124 to 123 by Lacey.

For the three days Bungay was tied gun with a total of 438, which was high by Warren, while Lacey was the third high amateur with 433.

Heydler Denies Ball Charges Landis May Quit the Bench

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—(U. N.)—Judge K. M. Landis, supreme court of baseball, is not required to neglect the least item of his official duties to perform his office as head of the national game, but just the same, President John Heydler of the National league, predicts the judge probably will resign from the bench of the United States district court and devote himself exclusively to the wrangles and tangles of the big leagues.

Heydler issued a statement here denying the bulk of the charges made before the house of representatives by Congressman B. T. Welby against Landis.

"I would regret, if in seeking to strengthen the national game we should deprive the country of Judge Landis' services as a jurist," Heydler stated, "but I feel that in due time he will devote all his time and energy exclusively to baseball, regardless of whether he says so."

"The statements of a representative in congress regarding a national institution should go no longer unchallenged. When a public man makes a statement that baseball is paying a big salary to Judge Landis in the nature of a bribe that man is wilfully misrepresenting the whole situation or is woefully ignorant of the facts."

"Today there are only two cases before the courts in which baseball is concerned. 'Landis has nothing to do with either. Great stress is laid on one of these by Welby, being the 1916 finding of the lower court in Washington that baseball was a combination in violation of the Sherman act.'

Heydler claimed, however, that this dictum had been reversed by the court of appeals of the District of Columbia, which held, he stated, that baseball was not an industry and on that premise upset the entire course of action. Heydler pointedly called attention to the fact that Welby had failed to mention this reversal when citing the lower courts' decision.

Court Gets Attention
Baseball interests did not ask Judge Landis to remain on the bench. Heydler said, in disavowal of any hope that the baseball interests might benefit by his position. The judge himself made this decision and since accepting his baseball job has not devoted an hour's time to baseball at the expense of the court, Heydler claimed. The only time Judge Landis attended a New York baseball meeting, he left Chicago after adjournment of court on Friday and was back in court on Monday.

Heydler gave the first definite news as to what baseball will do about the cases of the indicted White Sox players in case they should be acquitted. They will then be tried before Judge Landis under the laws of organized baseball, and Heydler said this contingency was one of the matters baseball chiefs had in mind in selecting a man of Landis' judicial temperament. However, he set forth that there would be no impropriety about Landis' interest in baseball, insofar as the court trials of the men are concerned, because the players will come before the Cook county courts, which have no relation to the federal court.

Five Bouts On Tonight's Card at M.B.C.

PADDED mitts will swing tonight for the first time in a fortnight at the Milwaukee boxing commission arena.

Frank Kendall, the commission match-maker, has lined up a pretty fair card that should be full of action, and the reduction of the prices should bring out one of the biggest crowds of the season.

The top line event will be a 10 round attraction between Bud Ridley, Seattle featherweight, and "Babe" Herman, Californian, who is stepping outside of his class to tangle with the Puget Sound battler. This will be Herman's last bout on the coast for this season, as he departs Friday for St. Paul to join Jack Reddy's stable of mixers.

The semi-windup attraction will be an eight round event between Stanley Willis and Neal Allison. This should be one of the best bouts on the card. Willis is regarded as the cleverest boxer, while Allison borders on the slugging type of a mixer. Allison is said to possess a wicked right.

Charlie Dawson and Boy McCasslin will tangle in six rounds. McCasslin hails from Seattle, and is said to be quite a mixer.

Johnny Fisk will tackle Joe Dunn in a four round event, and in the curtain raiser Harry Eagles and Johnny Trambitas will meet. Trambitas is the youngest member of the fighting family.

The first bout will start at 8:30 o'clock. Tom Lottitt will referee.

Why automobile manufacturers say "clean your crankcase regularly!"
Engine operation causes steady accumulation of road dust, carbon, fine metal particles, and other impurities in your crankcase oil. This contaminated oil circulates through your engine, impairs its performance and ultimately leads to rapid depreciation and repairs.
Your Instruction Book says, "flush out the crankcase regularly and fill with fresh oil." But these important instructions are often disregarded; cleaning the crankcase is a job generally disliked.
To meet this need, Modern Crankcase Cleaning Service has been established by first-class garages and other dealers, co-operating with the Standard Oil Company. These garages and dealers use Calol Flushing Oil, — the scientific agent that cleans out old oil, dirt, grit and other impurities, and does not impair the lubricating efficiency of fresh oil used. The cleaned crankcase is refilled with the proper grade of Zerolene.
Look for the garage or dealer displaying the sign shown below, — it means "Better operation and longer engine life," a service promptly given at a nominal cost.
