(*) P. M. report of preceding day. Mail Carrier Pleads Not Guilty-Walter Schan, substitute mail carrier on Portland rural route A, was arraigned before Federal Judge Bean Tuesday afternoon and pleaded not guilty to misappropriating postal funds. According to Assistant United States Attorney Veatch the defendant took money from persons along the route with which he was supposed to buy postoffice money orders, and then neglected to purchase the orders. Schan claimed poverty when arraigned, so the court appointed Tom Garland to represent him.

Like 12 Free Car-fares

That's the way you'll feel - just like we'd handed you 12 fares for nothing; when you bring in and carry away a suit for cleaning and pressing and find that we save an average of 75c on each suit by eliminating the expensive delivery system and hand on the 75c to you. And you'll be surprised at the slight trouble involved for you in bringing in your suit and changing here, if desired, or carrying it away.
