"Did the 'Movie Trust' Deliberately Lie when it Claimed that the 'Blue Laws' were a 'Public Nuisance'?" This is the question Dr. W. T. McElveen will answer at the question and answer service at the Third Baptist church, the ordinance of which will be administered at this service and part of the Clay Street Evangelical church. There will be enough boys to fill both choir lofts. There will be special features sufficient to permit H. E. Whitney to direct all of the chorus numbers in each church. Several of the soloists will appear in both churches. The program has been arranged so that each audience will receive practically the same numbers. Each service begins at 7:30 o'clock.

Three Scandinavian Churches to Unite In Sunday Services

Three Scandinavian Methodist churches in Portland will combine their evening services Sunday for the first meeting in a week's revival campaign at the Vancouver Avenue Norwegian-Danish Methodist church. The sermon will be by Bishop William O. Shepard. Sunday morning at the same church the Rev. W. T. McElveen, district superintendent, will preach and administer holy communion. The two churches uniting with the Vancouver avenue church in the meetings are the First Norwegian-Danish Methodist church and Swedish Methodist church. Sunday evening services in the last two churches will be discontinued this week.

B. Y. P. U. Founding Will Be Celebrated

The thirty-third anniversary of the founding of the B. Y. P. U. at the Swedish Baptist church will be celebrated with special services all day Sunday. The congregation agreed to give over the entire day to the young people. The Rev. Emil Friberg of the church will deliver the sermons at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. A special service at 3:30 p. m. will be under the direction of Dr. S. J. Reid, Baptist state evangelist. Dinner will be served at the church at 1:30 p. m., following the Bible school session, and a light lunch will be served between the afternoon and evening sessions. Special music will be furnished by the choir and male chorus. A feature of the afternoon will be talks by a charter member, Mrs. Ellen Johnson, and by former presidents of the B. Y. P. U. and pastors of the church. Alfred Johnson, president, will preside. Tonight the young folks will gather in the church for a special prayer meeting, which will be part of the celebration.

"Apostle of Pop" Coming

Evangelist Bruce Evans, known as the "Apostle of Pop," will begin a three weeks' campaign Sunday at the Arleta Baptist church. According to the Rev. O. T. Day, pastor of the church, the evangelist is possessed of a fine personality, and has the ability to mix fun and facts. The large chorus choir will sing every night. Young people are invited to join the chorus. The series had previously been announced to start March 6, but it was learned Friday that the evangelist could come a week earlier.
