DEAR MADAM:-

WOULD YOU TAKE sie if were offered you? The savin here means just that much to you

ERSEY SPORT SUITS, All Wool,

$14.95

LOSE OUT OF WINTER COATS and DRESSES way below cost $12.95

Katz Apparel Shop

BOS ALDER ST.

Opp. Woodard-Clarke, Next to Telephone Building.

March Sale

Used Pianos and

Players

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 2

Tunchen for Miss Lells Guthrie, given by Miss Gretchen Klos-CALENDAR lows society to meet at Turn Verein hall, at 8 o'clock.

Card party at the home of Mrs. G. C. Goodell in Alameda Park.

Stage .. Screen .. Society .. Clubs

CLUB CALENDAR

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 2

Mrs. Woolley to Be Welcomed By Friends

M ally known psychologist, will be extensively entertained when she arrives in Portland this week, according to Dean Bertha K. Young of Reed college, whose guest Mrs. Woolley will be. A reception for Mrs. Woolley is being planned, and Saturday she will be guest of honor at a oint meeting of the Civic league and the Portland branch of the American Col-rector of the vocation bureau of the Cin-cinnati public schools, was formerly as-Woolley's work in Cincinnati has re-sulted in the use of mental tests to discover individual fitness, and modificathe school curriculum to meet individual needs. She served on the national child welfare committee during the war, and is now a member of the Ohlo state board. She is speaking this week at the National Social Workers'

Mrs. Woolley will speak at Reed Thursday at 4 o'clock. She will speak will have a large class of candidates next Wednesday night at W. O. W. temple, 128 Eleventh street. There will be selected program following, and supper in the banquet hall will complete the evening. Last Wednesday Mrs. Grace Reiner was elected guardian neighbor.

FRATERNAL

Dwight E. Cone of Fall River, Mass., grand monarch of the world, Mystic Order Veiled Prophets of the Enchanted given at the Multnomah hotel Monday More than 200 prophets and their ladies did honor to the royal pair. George L. Baker welcomed them; W. L. Hay, monarch of Gul Reazee Grotto, presided and introduced Frank Grant as toastmaster. George L. omas spoke on "The Grotto and Our Schools," and Hamilton Johnstone ave a half serious and slyly humorous dissertation on . "The Law and the The musical and literary included the Hawaiian string rtette, dramatic reading by Mrs. Arnold Cohen, vocal solos by Carroll Day and Harry G. Wirtz, musical reading by Miss Hazel McConnell and violin solos by M. A. Dunham, The reception committee was A. A. Bailey, John H. MacGregor, Charles E. Minsinger, L. G. Halder, Over M. Smith, The commit Holden, Oscar M. Smith. The committee of arrangements was W. L. Hay, monarch; J. H. Butler, secretary; George L. Baker, George B. Thomas, William H. Galvani.

Seaside will have a celebration on May day when Kinnie Kinnie tent gives its clam chowder picnic. The leading business houses of Seaside, Astoria and Warrenton will provide appropriate prizes for the sports, baseball games, swimming contests and drills that will take place on the beach. A class of candidates will be initiated on April 30, composed of applicants from Portland. composed of applicants from Portland, Rainier, Mayger, Clatskanie, Birkenfeld, Westport, Wauna, Astoria, Hammond and nearby Washington points as well as 50 from Seaside and Gearhart. The Ladies of the Maccabees will take prominent part in the proceedings and a half dozen of the best drill teams of the ladies will be seen in action on the beach. The nittee is now actively at work outlining the various features of the big outing and every Maccabée organization within reach of Seaside will be invited to Elks February 21. Over 300, Elks and their ladies were at the tables when Dr. Frank Van Doren of Seaside called the assemblage to order and proceeded to act as toastmaster. Over half the Elks present were from Astoria, Judge R. G. Morrow of Portland, G. C. Ful-ton and Charles Robison of Astoria made the principal speeches. A musical program was followed by dancing.

The Artisans have launched a new degree. There will be one such degree in every state. The first is already being organized in Oregon under the name of "Al Azar." Several hundred charter members are already in sight and the first charter will soon be issued. The setting of the degree is Oriental, permitting costumes of gorgeous and varied hue. The first initiatory in Portland have combined to give a her, Dr. Harmon is called. His prescrip-big program at The Auditorium on tion is that mother and daughter be band and patrol to San Francisco in 1922, and not to send them this year to Des Moines, Iowa. Al Kader temple will have a large delegation at the ceremonial in Seattle April 30, and will put on part of the work.

be present to receive degrees Wednesy night at Moose temple, and "Cyone" Curtis, who is representing the greene director in Oregon, is still as isy as a bee in June hustling up more ad more good men and true, seeking is protecting circle of the order.

Harrisburg Artisans are planning a

Miss Hazel Black presents six charming and highly talented maidens in an act entitled "La Petite Musicale," which gives a double portion to the headline feature at the Hippodrome.

Victoria and Dupre have a line of unusual acrobatic stunts and balance themselves in various postures on diminutive supports.

Harrisburg Artisans are planning a new hall, as their present hall is too mall. Harrisburg recently increased rship with a class of 70 new hence the desire for a larger sight. They were so fat they toddled as they walked. Peter wanted to follow them. He was just burning up with curiosity to follow and see where they would go and what they would do. It he would do. Had Jimmy been alone I suspect that

Peter would have followed him. But Jimmy, wasn't alone. Mrs. Skunk and seven fully grown children were with him. Peter sighed. Each one of those Skunks had a powerful little scent gun. on "Vocations for Women," a subject It would be easy enough to keep out of upon which she is recognized as an authe way of one, but nine was altogether the way of one, but nine was altogether Royal Circle, Neighbors of Woodcraft, first wake up. It might be so with fill have a large class of candidates Jimmy Skunk and his family. Peter felt that he couldn't afford to run any such risk, He decided that he would stay where he was hidden in the old stone wall near their home and wait for them to return. But the longer he waited the nore nervous, he became. Suppose, just suppose, one of them should discover him there and lose his temper. The results might be very unpleasant, very unpleasant indeed. Finally Peter decided that the wisest thing for him to do would be to go home. So as soo Realm, was the guest of Gul Reazee as the Black Shadows came creeping Grotto of Portland, together with his along the old stone wall, Peter started royal consort, Mrs. Cone, at a supper for the dear Old Briar-patch. It was a week before Peter saw Jimm;

Skunk or any of his family again, although every night he visited the far corner of the Old Orchard where Jimmy's iome was. Then one evening quite unexpectedly he came face to face with "Hello, Peter," exclaimed Jimmy.

see you have managed to come through the winter safely. I was wondering what had become of you. What are you fore. He was spry in his movements staring at me so for? Don't you know Yes, sir, he actually was spry in his it isn't polite to stare at any ope?" The fact is you've changed so since I old friend. With food as scarce as last saw you that I hardly knew you. Is now, I can't stop to gossip or I won't Then you were so far it seemed as if you could hardly walk. Now—Jimmy, you and actually ran. He did for a fact. actually are thin!"

Jimmy sighed. "Thin is right, Peter. Thin is right," said he. "And I guess I'll be thinner before I'm fatter. Peter, I haven't had one square meal, not one, little fat makes. There certainly is a since I came out of my winter sleep a little over a week ago, and it is just the same with Mrs. Skunk and the children. You know, you can't keep fat on nothing." He looked so hungry that ny's Worries."

to sleep at the beginning of the winter n fully grown young Skunks out of I know, for I saw you. And I don't believe you had anything to cat all that

"True enough. True enough, Peter, replied Jimmy Skunk. "What I should was the first time he ever had been around when Jimmy Skunk came out after his long sleep and Peter did want to see just how he would act and what good square meal! I don't see why we had to wake up yet. If we could have Peter. "I didn't mean to be impo-beg your pardon," stammered by, Peter," he said abruptly. If you run "I didn't mean to be impolite. across any fat beetles just remember an

'Jimmy Skunk really hurrying!" he exmy Skunk hurry. What a difference a great change is the Skunk family."

Peter watched him and chuckled

Results in Wedding

Curwood's Film Back Stage Romance Pleases Fans Of Orpheum Players At Peoples

sergeant has been dispatched to capture, dead or alive. The development of this honorable love makes a film of much suspense and many thrills, yet logical and complete as to plot.

Alternational about the Shasta and will have a brief respite between their arrival and Burke's next appearance in public. Burke met Miss? Wilson when both were members of "The Passing Show."

Majestic Constance Talmadge, in whom Portland audiences find much of interest, is again proving her charm at the Majestic theatre, where she is appearing in "Mamma's Affair," the screen version of a popular stage play. Constance is writer received wireless messages at a Eve, the daughter of a woman whose speed of 100 words a minute. work of the new degree will be given at Astoria on July 2.

All the assemblies of United Artisans "Mamma's Affair," the screen version of a popular stage play. Constance is Eve, the daughter of a woman whose nerves are always on edge. To quiet April 9. Thousands of tickets are in the hands of committees and every effort will be mails to fill The Auditorium with members and friends. The fiance. Then Eve falls head over heels proceeds of the entertainment will so in love with the doctor and almost proto promote a good time at the Astoria conclave, July 2, 3 and 4. The Shriners of Al Kader temple Saturday night decided to send the famous the romance to its logical end. Meanwhald and patrol to San Francisco to while some delicious comedy has been

Not satisfied with the 100 or more new members added to Kirkpatrick council. Security Benefit association, in the membership campaign just closed, the six team captains have decided on another campaign to see whether it was luck or skill that determined the previous winner. This campaign is to be short and snappy, with 100 new members by April 1.

Portland lodge, Loyal Order of Moose, has over 100 candidates notified to be present to receive degrees Wedness-minutive supports.

Copes and Hutton sing comedy songs and talk nonsense to the delight of all hearers, and Elsie Harvey and George Stifter dance while they sing late num-

"The Greater Claim," starring Alice Lake, is a strong photoplay attraction at the Hippodrome this week,

And They Might Get It

Women

song and story and O history and romance made up an altogether delightful program at the meeting of the Portland Woman's Research club held Monday at the Hotel Benson, with Mrs. George E. Frost, three wars, with special reference to the world war. Rev. Mr. Gilbert has served as chaplain for the Oregon boys for the wonders of the great state of Oregon soon permeated the entire gathering and he was scarcely allowed to stop talking, so interested did the women become in learning that Oregon had once been in the torrid zone, according to discoveries of the fauna and flore of past ages, and characterizations. The patrons and pa-tronesses will be Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Burkhart, Mr. and Mrs. T. Wynkoop and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kinnear. All residents of the community and their B'nai B'rith hall, Thirteenth street near Market, the Council of Jewish Women will hold its important March meeting. All members are invited to attend. All members of the council are reminded to give to the nominating committee suggestions for directors to fill the vacancies on the board.

The State Woman's Press club will meet Wednesday evening at 7:30 in room F of Central library. Mrs. Marion D. Merry and Mrs. M. L. T. Hidden will free to all. The Professional Woman's league will honor Mrs. Helen B. Woolley at a dinner to be given at the University club of cooperation and generosity was shown in the managment of the dinner by the mothers and teachers of the district, and a well cooked, wholesome dinner was served. It was a community affair in every sense of the word, as the dinner was donated by the women of the community, and was well patronized by the families of the community. An orchestra provided music during the dinner hour.

The War Mothers will meet Wednesday at 2 p. m. in room 525 courthouse There will be installation of officers All war mothers are invited.

Clergymen Will See Columbia's Picture

To witness the showing of Winston Churchill's "The Inside of the Cup," a group of Portland ministers have bee invited to the Columbia theatre this sion of the novel that was branded, when published, as an expose of the hypocrisy of the church. Among those who have been asked to see the first showing are Rabbi Jonah B. Wise and the Revs. Raiph C. McAfee, W. T. McElveen, H. H. Griffis, M. G. Ever-ett, Joshua Stansfield, B. J. Clark, H. Bowman, Father Campbell, O. C. that it had also been in the frigid zone by the same rights. He pointed out that Missionary society of the Central Presties on the Stepped on a large nail while walking about an indoor stage in his Hollythe real grand canyon of this country by terfan church will be held in the Jr., E. H. Pence and W. B. Hinson.

WHERE?

and evening. Frogram changes Monday afternoon.

LOEW'S HIPPODROME — Broadway at Yamhill. Direction Ackerman & Harris. Vaudeville. Afternoon and night.

STOCK

BAKER—Morrison at Eleventh. Baker Stock company in "The Little Shepberd of Kingdom Come." Matinee Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday, 2:30; evenings, 8:20.

LYHIC — Broadway and Morrison. Lyric Musical Travesty company in "Miss Innocence."

Matinee daily, 2:30; evenings, 8:20.

PHOTOPLAYS

COLUMBIA—Sixth at Stark. "The Inside of the Cup." 11 a. m. to 11 p. m.

LIBERTY—Broadway at Stark. Charlle Chaplin in "The Kid." 11 a. m. to 11 p. m.

RIVOLI—Washington at Park, Justine Johnston, in "The Plaything of Broadway." 11 s.

m. to 11 p. m.

MAJESTIC—Washington at Park. Constance Talmadge in "Mamma's Affair." 11 a. m. to 11 p. m.

PEOPLES—West Park at Aider. "Inabel" or
"The End of the Trail." 11 a. m. to 11
p. m.

PEOPLES—West Park at Aider. "Inabel" or
"The End of the Trail." 11 a. m. to 11
p. m.

STAR—Washington at Park. Blanche Sweet in "That Girl Montana." 11 a. m. to 11 p. m.

CIRCLE — Fourth near Washington. "The Branding Iron." 9 a. m. to 10 clock the next morning.

Nail No Respecter Of Chaplin's Foot

Los Angeles, Cal., March 1.—(U. P.)

One of Charlie Chaplain's funny feet painfully injured late yesterday when

Broadway at Morrison

Reed-French Piano Co.

AMUSEMENTS

TICKET OFFICE SALE Now Open

HEILIG Broadway at Taylor
Phone Main' I
This | Thursday, NIGI'. S, MCH. 3, 4
Week | Fr., Lat. NIGI'. S, MCH. 3, 4
SPECIAL - JUE MAT. SAT. THE PAVOBITE COMEDIENNE

SPLENE D SUPPORTING CAST EVE'S-Floor, $2; Balcony, $1.50, $1 Gallery, 75c, 50c. $AT. MAT. Floor, $1.50; Balcony $1; G. ery, 75c, 50c.

Today-Six Fine Numbers. Tonight, Hazelle Black's

"PETITE MUSICALE"

NANCY BOYLE'S "MARY LOU" ALICE LAKE'S "GREATER CLAIM," AND OTHERS.

MOST NOVEL IN PRESENTATION

THE LITTLE SHEPHERD OF KINGDOM COME MOTION PICTURE AND STAGEGRAFT

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 2 DOLORES CASSINELLI, in "THE WEB OF DECEIT" COMEDY-"HIGH AND DRY"

PANTAGES MATINEE BAILY $150.

"THE PRIMROSE MINSTRELS" Wilh Lirs. Georg. Primrosa (herself) and America's Foremost Blackface Star.

7-OTHLE BIG ACTS-7 Shows Dally-Night Curtain 7 and 9.

of songs by Walter Jenkins. The first speaker was Judge M. C. George, who spoke entertainingly on Oregon's earliest west, and recited some of the Indian legends. His address was spiced with delightful humor. Rev. W. S. Gilbert of Astoria, commander of the American Legion in Oregon, told in his usual entertaining manner of Oregon's part in head of the department of history at

Lore of Oregon

Related to

Women

The Y. W. C. A. will conduct Bible head of the department of history at Oregon Agricultural college, whose infectious enthusiasm over the little known 6:30 to 7:30 o'clock. These classes are

H-LIEBES & CO-

The Store of Individual Shops

Old in the world of renown Yet new with H. Liebes & Co.

Phoenix Knit Silk Underwear

Another demonstration of this store's quality supremacy is noted in this presentation of invincible underthings. A true conception of where quality meets price. No matter how low the price may seem, you obtain commendable quality in every Phoenix garment.

Every requirement is met in the varied Phoenix assortments—sizes for women and misses-plain and fancy knit stitches-correct shoulder effects-neatly fitted bodices-and, most important of all, are the soft silk qualities.

Flesh

wearing quality.

ribbon straps.

top, ribbon straps.

Fibre Silk Vests $2.10

Pure Silk Vests $2.35

Pure Silk Vests $2.50

Orchid

Bodice top, ribbon straps, long length, fine

Beautiful soft silk quality, bodice top, narrow

Chraming rib stripe effect, long body, bodice

White

Fibre Silk Bloomers $2.65

Full size, reinforced, elastic waist and knee.

Helen Harding Blue

Pure Silk Bloomers $3.95 Full size, plain knit, reinforced, elastic waist

Pure Silk Bloomers $4.25

Lace rib stripe, reinforced, elastic waist and

Pure Silk Vests $3.15

Lace knit, heavy thread silk, bodice top, ribbon

Corsets Correctively Fitted, $5

First the corset then the spring costume, but it is important that the corset is of the correct model and correct in fit.—Corset Section, Second Floor,

H. Liebes 860 BROADWAY AT MORRISON

A surprise number at the Orpheum Monday afternoon, a romantic skit pre-sented with all possible realism, found INTERESTING because it is a picture the audience gone beyond recall and of the vast northland, done in the usual vigorous style of James Oliver torium to receive the echoes of the Curwood as to story, and enacted splen-didly by House Peters and Jane Novak in the leading roles, "Isobel," 'or "The Trail's Find," is dead, "Isobel," 'or "The Seaside—Elks gathered at the Hotel Seaside in large numbers to attend the banquet given by the social club of the control of the banquet given by the social club of the club

"exclusive" booking scheme, which means that it will not again be shown in a Portland motion picture theatre.

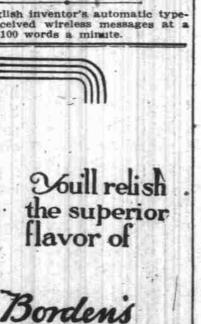

Curwood has made his hero a sergeant Miss Valeska Suratt, Orpheum headin the Northwest Mounted Police and liner, was the bridesmaid. John Colhas set his story amid wonderful scenic lins, a member of Miss Suratt's comsurroundings. The film pictures the romance between Sergeant McVeigh and the faithful wife of the renegade the California aboard the Shasta and will

> Films Shown by School Sherwood, Or., March 1.-The Sher-

Will relish the superior flavor of

> Bordens MILK

7 he protein content is the Malted Milk

MALTED