

INTIMATE VIEWS OF THE NEW PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES AND HIS HOUSEHOLD

These photographs tell their story of the sort of man President Harding is, what his family is like and how he looks in the various roles he has played as a part of his daily life.

This is perhaps the homeliest picture ever taken of the Hardings—homely in the pleasant sense—showing the president receiving his decoration with masculine embarrassment and revealing his proverbially baggy trousers.

breakfast table notable. At the right is Frank Blackstone, the family chauffeur, who henceforth will pilot White House cars.

Above are two characteristic poses of the new president and at the right is his father, Dr. Harding, driving the old buggy in which he still makes his calls on patients in Marion.

TEXT OF HARDING'S ADDRESS GIVEN AT HIS INAUGURATION

Today, better than ever before, we know the aspirations of mankind, and share them. We have come to the realization of our place in the world, and a new appraisal of our nation by the world.

as he gives. We have not strengthened our resources or our genius, notably on our own continent, where a galaxy of republics reflect the stars of new world democracy.

Clark's Death Is Like Pall Over Inaugural Plans

Washington, March 4.—(I. N. S.)—Hanging like a pall over the jollity and merrymaking of the inaugural visitors today was the death of Champ Clark, the great Democratic leader, who almost was president.

cern for the common good our tasks will be solved. No altered hymn will work a miracle. A wild experiment will only add to the confusion.

carry. Opportunity is calling not alone for the restoration, but for a new era in production, transportation and trade. We shall answer it best by meeting the demand of a surpassing home market.

HARDING TAKES OFFICE FEELING PHYSICALLY FIT

Washington, March 4.—(U. P.)—President Harding goes into the White House today in fine physical trim for the trying years ahead.

Harding Is 29th President, Says Best Authority

There is some difference of opinion as to whether Warren G. Harding is the 28th, 29th or 30th president of the United States.

"Wilson Aged 25 Years in Office," Declares Swem

Chicago, March 4.—President Wilson will probably rest for at least six months before attempting work of any description.

RESTS ON POPULAR WILL The success of our popular government rests wholly upon the correct interpretation of the deliberate, intelligent, dependable popular will of America.

Amid it all we have riveted the gaze of all civilization to the unselfishness and the righteousness of representative democracy, where our freedom never has made offensive.

tive democracy when one portion of our citizenship turns its activities to private gain amid defensive war while another is fighting, sacrificing or dying for national preservation.

FROM DESTRUCTION TO PRODUCTION The forward course of the business cycle is unmistakable. Peoples are turning from destruction to production.

AN AMERICA OF HOMES We would not have an America living within and for herself alone, independent and ever nobler, stronger and richer.

The untimely collapse of his predecessor in the White House has served as a warning to Harding, who has taken every precaution to safeguard his health.

Harding, engage them in conversation and, maybe, take the whole family for a tour of the headquarters building.

League of Nations Council Adjourns Paris, March 4.—(U. P.)—The League of Nations council, meeting here for the last two weeks, adjourned today to assemble May 15 at Geneva, league headquarters.

OUR SUPREME TASK Our supreme task is the resumption of our onward normal way. Reconstruction, readjustment, restoration—all these must follow.

REFLECTION OF REACTION The business world reflects the disturbance of war's reaction. Herein flows the life blood of material existence.

OUT OF SUCH UNIVERSAL SERVICE will come a new unity of spirit and purpose, a new confidence and consecration, which would make our defense impregnable, our triumph assured.

I speak for administrative efficiency, for lightened tax burdens, for sound commercial practices, for adequate credit facilities, for sympathetic concern for all agricultural problems.

There is no short cut to the making of these ideals into glad realities. The world has witnessed, again and again, the futility and the mischief of ill-considered remedies for social and economic disorders.

He comes back from six weeks in Florida in perfect health. He worked off much excess flesh. He took on a heavy tan and the lines which appeared on his face during the "best mind" conference in Marion.

Corn may be king, but POST TOASTIES is president, and every day is inauguration day at our house

TRADE TIES BIND CLOSELY We must understand that ties of trade bind nations in closest intimacy and none may receive except

PRAYER FOR INDUSTRIAL PEACE I wish for an America, no less alert in guarding against dangers from within than it is watchful against enemies from without.

WOMANHOOD INTO POLITICS With the nation-wide induction of womanhood into our political life, we may count upon her intuitions, her refinements, her intelligence and her influence to exalt the social order.

Service is the supreme commitment of life. I would rejoice to acclaim the era of the golden rule and crown it with the autocracy of service.

WOMAN OF ABILITY Mrs. Harding probably will go down in White House history as one of the most interesting women who ever presided over the executive mansion's household.

Here's a Tip

For young men, as well as older men, whose tastes lag behind their years. We have a large and excellent assortment of patterns to select your new spring suit from.

McDougal Music Company advertisement listing various musical instruments and supplies, including Conn Band Instruments, Vega Banjos, and records.

PROTECTION OF INDUSTRIES It has been proved again and again that we cannot, while throwing our markets open to the world, maintain American standards of living.

REVISIONISM, REFORMATIONS and evolutions reflect a deliberate judgment and an orderly progress, and we mean to cure our ills, but never destroy or permit destruction by force.

One cannot stand in this presence and be unimpressed by the tremendous responsibility. The world upheaval has added heavily to our tasks.

Without affectation She cares little for precedent and no one has ever been able to find a trace of affectation about her.

Soldier Memorial 'Last Bill Signed'

Washington, March 4.—(I. N. S.)—The last bill signed by President Wilson was one providing for the erection of memorials at Arlington memorial cemetery in memory of the soldier dead of the World War.