One Report Says Former Russian Flight; Revolution Is Growing.

London, March 10 .- (U. P.) -Official reports in Riga state that Petrograd has fallen to the anti-Bol- hospital, where she became the mother sheviks, according to the correspondent of the Times.

Soviet leaders were said to have escaped in automobiles. Red forces were declared to have been defeated at Catchina and Krasnoe Selo.

London, March 10 .- (I. N. S.)-An Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Helsingfors this evening reported that the Reds had thrown a ring of troops around Petrograd and were allowing no one to pass. The same dispatch reported that an anti-Red rebellion had broken out in the Tver district.

Helsingfors, March 10.-Repuised after determined attempts to recapture the fortress of Kronstadt, Bolshevik forces have withdrawn, leaving hundreds of bodies lying on the ice, according to advices received here today. The following Helsingfors dispatch was received by the Daily Express this "Red troops attempted an attack against Kronstadt across the ice from Oranienbaum, but were repulsed with heavy artillery fire. REDS SUCCESSFUL "Refugees arriving here report whole sale executions of captured insurgents at Petrograd. Many persons suspected of sympathy with the counter-revolution put to death. The Petrograd streets are all under military guard." Soviet troops commanded personally by Trotsky have recaptured Krasnaja Gorka," said a Central News dispatch from Helsingfors. (Note-Trotzky had previously been reported at Krasnaja Gorka directing operations against the rebels in the sector of Kronstadt.) A second Central News dispatch from

"Mostey admits that in the fighting at Kronstadt on March 8 (Tuesday) the Bolshevik casualties were 700.

Several thousand collars have been pleaged to an advertising fund by property-owners, lumber manufacturers, building material dealers and real estate brokers, and a portion of this will be spent in calling attention of people ir the Eastern states to the advantages of Portland as an industrial center and residence city.

The principal feature of the campaign will be a "build-your-home" exposition at The Auditorium during the week beginning May 9. Floor space in The Auditorium will be allotted to manufacturers of building materials and household goods. Plans for homes will be exhibited and every assistance offered homebuilders. Plans for the advertising campaign and exposition will be outlined at a meeting of business men and officials of the realty board in the green room of the Chamber of Commerce at 4 p. m.

Sister-in-Law of Gov. Hart Is Found Dead In Gas-Filled Room

Los Angeles, Cal., March 10.—(U. P.)
—Worrying over the prospect of under-going another operation was assigned today as the probable motive for the apparent suicide late yesterday of Mrs. Mary E. Hart, sister-in-law of Governor Hart of Washington, Alaska pioneer and writer and lecturer of national reputation. She was found dead in a gas-filled room here.

Mellon Optimistic Of Business Fut

Mrs. Hart came here three months ago after having undergone an operation in San Francisco. She had brooded principally over the fact that her sight was falling, it is said. Mrs. Hart was 65. She was president of the Alaska Cruise club and had the distinction of being one of the two women who braved the perils of the Alaska gold rush in 1900.

Washington, March 10.—(I. N. S.)—Although the country is "fundamentally sound" it is too early to venture an opinion of the early revival of business conditions, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon said.

"There is every ground to feel optimistic however," the secretary added Mrs. Hart came here three months

To Reunion Of Man, Son

The Dalles, March 10.—Conviction on a charge of manufacturing intoxicating liquor brought to Norman Hogan, a resident of this city, reunion with his father whom he had not seen in more than 25 years.

Hogan's father, Russell Hogan, re sides on a ranch in the Five Mile section, and seeing in a newspaper that Norman Hogan, for whom he had been searching Capital Captured by Anti-Reds: for so many years, had been convicted of a prohibition law violation, went to Soviet Leaders Said to Be in the county jail to visit him in the faint hope that the prisoner might be his son. The father recognized his son as soon as he saw him. Norman Hogan is serving a sentence of six months, and was fined $500. His wife is in The Dalles

of a son a few days ago. By a strange coincidence Mrs. Russell Hogan, in the same ward just two weeks us, gave birth to a son. Two weeks' difference in the ages of babes, who are respectively uncle and nephew, is no more remarkable than the fact that each mother is also the parent of older boys, who are likewise uncle and nephew, and who are of al-most identically the same age.

Deal Nearly Complete for Transfer From Max Houser to Alexander Pantages for $500,000; More Stories Are to Be Added.

Negotiations will be completed before the end of the week for the transfer of the Hippodrome theatre property on the northwest corner of Broadway and Yamhill street from Max Houser of Portland to Alexander Pantages of Los Angeles, Cal. for a consideration of $500,000, according to reports today.

All details of the transaction are complete except the matter of the initial payment that will consummate a bargain for complete payment within 90 days, it is said. Pantages, vaudeville magnate is in receipt of information of the final details of the sale and will wire from Chicago before the end of the week $100,-000 to bind the bargain.

For several months the purchase o the Hippodrome property from Houser by Pantages has been rumored and several times the deal was nearly closed. It is said that nothing will now stop the successful transfer of the theatre build-Houser's end of the transfer is being handled by the Northwestern Nationa bank, the agency through which Houser acquired the property several years ago. The theatre is held by the Marcus Loew-Ackerman-Harris syndicate under a ease that has nearly five years to run and until the lease has expired it is probable Pantages will not be able to ecupy the building.

In the meantime, however, he will, i said, carry the structure up to a height of 10 or 12 stories and make of it a general office building in addition to the theatre proper. A nest of ele-vators will be installed and general improvements made. The present building occupies

War Led My Boy Astray, Says Mother. M

Hugh C. Van Amburgh, former Portland boy who was twice decorated for bravery while serving as dispatch rider for the marines in France, has confessed to the kidsaping of Arthur Rust, son of the millionaire Tacoma smelter man, and is in jail at Tacoma awaiting the report of the grand jury.

This advice has been received by his mother, Mrs. Roxie Thurmond, 3876 Lance street, Errol Heights. Mrs. Thurnond blames the deed of her son on two aftermaths of the war, love of excitement, which he gained under fire, and an appetite for liquor, which he says he developed overseas.

Van Amburgh confessed that ne kid naped Rust and held him for a $25,000 ransom. In his confession he blamed his act on his having picked the wrong kind of associates in Portland during his younger days.

Van Amburgh was personally decorated with the distinguished service cross by General Pershing for extraordinary bravery under fire during the capture of Vierzy by the Second division of marines. For a similar act he was also decorated with the croix de guerre with palm and star. The grand jury at Tacoma is expected to return a true bill charging Van Amburgh with kidnaping. The minimum penalty for this offense in the state of Washington is 10 years' imprisonment. The Veterans of Foreign Wars, of which the kidnaper is a member, is using every effort to protect Van Amburgh's inter-
