

CHARGES MADE BY WOMEN RESULT IN ARREST OF 5 MEN

Hoquiam, Wash., March 11.—(U. P.)—Serious charges were being prepared today against five men held in jail here for an alleged brutal kidnapping and attack on Mrs. Julia Maxon, 23, and Miss Jane Clark, 19. The men arrested were Adam and Mike Winkle, Dave Sandgren, Elmer Davis and Buzz Wise of Hoquiam and Aberdeen. The Winkles are said to be married. The men range in age from 25 to 35.

The two young women, according to their story, were standing on a street corner Wednesday night waiting for a streetcar or trolley to take them to Aberdeen, where Mrs. Maxon, a widow, lives with her two young children. Miss Clark lives in Elma and was visiting Mrs. Maxon.

While they were waiting five men drove up in a machine, it is said, and stopped. Thinking the car was a jitney, Mrs. Maxon and Miss Clark got in. Instead of stopping in Aberdeen, the men drove straight through town and three miles out on a lonely road into the woods, the young women said.

Here the car stopped and the two girls ordered to get out. They did so, followed by the men, they said, and a battle ensued, all the men fighting to subdue the girls at the same time, quarreling among themselves. The men finally forced them back into the car, they claim, and drove back toward Aberdeen. When they reached the outskirts of town the younger girl is said to have jumped from the running automobile. The car was stopped and a man leaped out and tried to overtake her, but she outdistanced him. She hurried to a house, roused the family and telephoned the police.

Mrs. Maxon is said to have been found in a street unconscious later. She said she had been thrown out of the car a short distance from where Miss Clark had jumped.
