

IN SOCIETY

Delta Gamma Is Planning Dance In Near Future

AN INTERESTING function planned for the second day of April is the dance to be given by the active and alumnae members of Delta Gamma sorority at Waverley Country club. The affair will be given for the entertainment of a number of prospective students of the University of Oregon.

The committee in charge of arrangements includes Miss Clementine Cameron, Miss Lucia Watson, Miss Ruth Slauson and Miss Carlotta Reed. It is expected that the occasion will assemble about 125 of the alumnae and active members of the sorority and their friends.

A delightful occasion and reunion of old friends was the dinner for which Mrs. E. E. Everts was hostess at her home at 1254 Wilbur avenue Thursday evening when her special guests were Mrs. S. L. M. Farmer and daughter, Miss Anne Shannon Monroe, the novelist, Mrs. H. M. Gorin, mother of the hostess, was also a guest and as Mrs. Farmer and Mrs. Gorin were friends and neighbors 30 years ago in Memphis, Mo., the evening was delightfully spent in reminiscence. During the evening little Pearl Everts read a number of original stories which she has written about the pictures in her home and which entertained the guests of the evening.

The girls and boys of Community Service will hold a St. Patrick's day dance at The Auditorium on Thursday night. Every one is requested to wear a bit of green. An eight piece orchestra will furnish the music. Patronesses for the occasion will include Dr. and Mrs. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Woodward, Mrs. J. F. Kelly.

MISS ELIZABETH EPPING of Hood River recently announced her engagement to Berkeley Snow of Portland. Mrs. Albert O. Rosentreter, a young Oswego matron, who was surprised by her friends on her birthday anniversary last Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Albert Rosentreter
PHOTO MOTT

Laurelhurst Club to Give Dance Friday

THE younger members of Laurelhurst club are anticipating a dance to be given at the clubhouse Friday evening, April 1. Special arrangements have been made for the music for the evening.

Patrons and patronesses will include: Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hayhurst, Mr. and Mrs. John Saari, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson R. Jacobsen, and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Holmes. The committee in charge of arrangements is composed of: Miss Gertrude Druck Glutich, Miss Elaine Bennett, Miss Susan Davis, Miss Josephine Ulrich, Miss Mildred Johnson, Messrs. Lloyd Davies, Richard English, Warren Ulrich and Chester Rich.

Dancing parties given under the auspices of the O-W. R. & N. Employees club are gaining in popularity. The attendance at the February party was unusually large and members of the railroad family and their guests spent a delightful evening. The next affair is planned for Friday evening at Christensen's hall. Assisting Mr. George F. Koch, president of the club, will be:

Marion Buckler, Mrs. Theresa C. Deane, Angeline Gentry, Mildred Hebert, Madeline Hays, Anna Herman, May Hinchman, Myrtle Holm, Mrs. N. W. Kinard, Catherine Muschall, Dorothy Smith, Julia Smith, Amy Klum, Messrs. William Brown, J. C. Gray, George E. Knudsen, Frank Laikat, C. F. Lincoln, Clarence Potter, Joseph T. Ray, E. Robinson, Laurence Williams, Kenneth W. Murree, Joe Murnane.

Ivory satin with ornamentation of lace and from a coronet of orange blossoms a tulle veil fell in misty folds. She carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and freesias. The matron of honor, Mrs. E. W. Burlingame (Elhel Tail) of Astoria, wore a smart gown of jade green satin and tulle and carried pink roses and sweet peas. Mr. Adrian C. Mann was the best man. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Following the ceremony dinner was served in the blue room of the Hotel Portland. Covers were placed for 12, including the bridal party and members of the two families. The table was attractive in sprigging flowers and fern. After a short wedding trip Dr. and Mrs. Baldwin will reside at Lucetta Court. Dr. Baldwin was educated in California and later graduated from the North Pacific Dental college. Mrs. Baldwin attended the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Hirsch are spending a few weeks in Southern California.

Miss Guthrie Is Honor Guest at Many Affairs

MISS LELLA GUTHRIE, whose marriage to Sidney Hemenway Ellis Jr. of Los Angeles will take place March 30, is being extensively entertained. The wedding which is planned for high noon will be celebrated at the home of the bride's parents witnessed only by immediate relatives of the bride couple. Miss Vona Guthrie, sister of the bride, will be her only attendant. During this week a number of affairs are planned for Miss Guthrie, among them a luncheon for which Mrs. John Raymond Holman will be hostess Tuesday, a tea Wednesday for which Mrs. Ansel Trumbull Brown will entertain. Mrs. Coe A. McKenna will entertain for Miss Guthrie later in the week and Mrs. LeRoy R. Fields will be a luncheon hostess in her honor Saturday.

A delightful party was given by Miss Martha E. Nilsson at her home last Saturday afternoon, announcing the engagement of Miss Lola J. Creighton and Mr. Herman H. Trapp. About 32 maids and matrons attended. The rooms were beautifully decorated with daisies. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. David Creighton, a pioneer of Oregon, and is popular among her hosts of friends. Mr. Trapp is a young business man of Fort William, Ontario, Canada, where he is interested in the flour milling industry. The wedding is to be an event of the summer.

Community Service dramatic class, under the leadership of Mrs. Adah Losh Rose, will give the three act play, "The Scrap of Paper," by Sardou, at the Community house, Portland Woolen mills, St. Johns, Wednesday night. This is the first of a series of plays to be given in different communities by the dramatic department of Community Service. These classes are held every Wednesday night, room G, library, and are open to all young men and women. Mrs. Rose is the director.

The Jolly Rambler set held its regular meeting Thursday evening at the home of Miss C. Spiechenger, 1315 East Yamhill street. The officers elected for the coming year were: Alma Cornelius, president; Esther Burlingame, vice president; Christina Spiechenger, treasurer; Louise Niemeyer, secretary. The club was organized several weeks ago. Hiking is the principal diversion. It is still open to new members.

Mrs. Arthur Murray Sherwood was hostess for an informal luncheon Wednesday, honoring Mrs. Konrad Delbruech, at her home in Kearney street. Mrs. Delbruech expects to sail in a short time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Koehler, for Germany.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Guy Strohm are among the Portland folk who expect to leave soon for a trip abroad. Mrs. Strohm expects to leave for Chicago in a short time to visit relatives and will join Dr. Strohm in May for the trip to Europe.

Mrs. F. J. Knepper returned to Portland Wednesday after spending the winter months in Los Angeles. Mrs. Knepper is making her home at 472 Park street.

Mrs. Edwin M. Park of Chicago, who is the house guest of Mrs. Wallace B. Caulfield (Kathleen Seely) of Oregon City, was honored Wednesday at a tea for which Mrs. Caulfield was hostess.

Mr. W. T. O'Brien and his daughter, Miss Frances O'Brien, who have been spending a few weeks in the South, have returned. Miss Vera O'Brien is still in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Sig Cohen, who make their home at the Hartford apartments, have just returned from California where they have been motoring for the last six weeks.

Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett left the city Tuesday to join Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Pratt in New York. She expects to sail with them for a tour of Spain, later going to France to spend several months.

Mrs. George C. W. Low entertained a party of children, the friends of her little son, George Cabot Ward Low Jr., on the occasion of his birthday anniversary Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Mark Kirk Given Surprise Birthday Party

SURROUNDED by 30 friends, Mrs. Mark Kirk celebrated her eighty-second birthday anniversary Thursday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. E. Burrows, in South avenue. Mrs. Burrows, for the occasion, was assisted by Mrs. C. H. Padke, another daughter of the guest of honor. The affair was planned as a surprise by the Ladies' Aid society of the Westmoreland Methodist Episcopal church, of which Mrs. Kirk is a member. Members of the society were present for the afternoon and brought with them two handsome gifts for Mrs. Kirk from the society, in addition to numerous remembrances from individuals in the company. The birthday cake, which was adorned with 82 pink candles, was the gift of Mrs. Fred S. Winslow. After music and a few hours of informal entertainment the afternoon ended with a charming ceremony in which the friends of Mrs. Kirk gathered in a circle about their venerable guest of honor and sang a favorite song together.

One of the social features of the end of the week at Portmouth was the community party, held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Garr, 1725 Exeter street. The evening was spent in dancing and playing of 500. Music for the evening was furnished by Miss Alice Polett and Mr. Eliza Uhles. Refreshments were served. The company included:

Mr. and Mrs. H. Aasen, Mr. and Mrs. J. Green, Miss Green, Mr. and Mrs. Vain, Mr. and Mrs. Linley, Mr. and Mrs. Uhles, Mr. E. Uhles, Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell, Mrs. Rine, Dr. Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. R. Somme, Miss A. Colman, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Garr, Miss V. Garr, Mr. and Mrs. J. Somme, Mr. J. R. Porter, Mr. H. Somme, Miss A. Polett, Mr. H. Somme, Mr. and Mrs. J. Johnson, Mr. J. Johnson, Mr. R. Somme, Mr. and Mrs. J. La Porte, Mrs. M. Markham, Mr. and Mrs. M. Johnson, Mrs. Jester, Mr. and Mrs. R. Hinchman, Mrs. Lawrence, Mr. R. L. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Polett, Mrs. J. R. Porter, Miss D. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Porter.

Mrs. C. L. Winters entertained at her home, 53 Madison street, Wednesday afternoon. The rooms for the occasion were beautifully decorated with ferns and lilies. At 1:30 o'clock luncheon was served and music followed during the afternoon. As guests Mrs. Winters entertained the members of the P. A. club, including:

Messrs. William Galleghy, L. A. Eaton, H. E. Penock, H. F. Mallon, B. L. Brasfield, R. A. Bloom, J. W. E. Fugate, J. L. Henderson, J. Martin, A. C. Phillips, O. W. Peterson, E. N. Hodescamp and H. F. Falkenstein. Mrs. William Galleghy will entertain the club Wednesday, March 23.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall N. Dana will entertain the immediate relatives of their family informally Monday at their home in Alameda Park on the occasion of the first birthday anniversary of their daughter, Mary Lois.

Miss Helen Fountain of Lewiston, Idaho, and Mr. Albert Schneider of this city will be the bride and groom at the wedding of the bride's family in Oakland, Cal., February 24. Mr. and Mrs. Schneider will make their home in Portland.

Mrs. E. A. Morris, who has been the house guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Robinson for a short time, has left for California where she will visit before returning to her home in Detroit.

Mrs. Robert Denton, who has been spending the winter months here with her sister, Mrs. W. J. Greer, left for her home in Elizabethtown, N. Y., last Thursday.

Mrs. A. A. Lincoln was a luncheon hostess Saturday when she entertained eight friends at the Hotel Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Price left the city recently for the East and will spend several weeks in New York and Washington, D. C.

Judge Bramwell Green of Louisville, Ky., a lecturer for the Christian Science church, is a guest at the Hotel Portland.

Mrs. Charles Thornton Ladd returned to the city Thursday evening from California where she has been spending several weeks.

Mrs. William L. Wheeler entertained informally at bridge and tea Friday afternoon. Mrs. Spencer Eddle presided at the tea urn.

The marriage of Mrs. Ellen V. O'Donnell and Mr. Alex Craib was solemnized early in the past week at Vancouver,

MISS MARY LONG, who recently was hostess for a dancing party at her home on Portland Heights. The affair was given in honor of Dr. and Mrs. John Wallace McCollum (Helen Foster) before their marriage.

Miss Mary Long
Photo Grove

Feminist Dance One of Enjoyable Events of Season

SATURDAY'S "feminist" dance at Reed college proved to be one of the most successful parties of the year, in spite of the absence of the masculine element. Over 150 girls and faculty women assembled in the new Anna Mann cottage early in the afternoon and after several dances witnessed a program of beauty and humor. Miss Anna Nilson, instructor in physical education for women at Reed, presented an aesthetic dancing number which won general applause.

The headliner of the program proved to be a burlesque on a recent stunt put on by House P. A. men's organization. Six girls dressed in overalls and the variety jerseys, wearing Crown flour caps and negro makeup, put on a performance with "razzoo" which backed the original stunt off the proverbial map. The performance was encored repeatedly, due to the ability of the blackface cast. Margaret MacGowan, Lucile Murtion, Dorothea Buck, Alice Lathrop, Edith Matthews and Muriel Nichols.

Success of the party has been attributed to the thoroughgoing arrangements and clever ideas of Edith Turner, president of the Amanda Reed association, and Gertrude Opp, chairman of the party committee.

The regular card party of the women of the Laurelhurst club was held Tuesday afternoon at the clubhouse with a large number in attendance. Prizes in bridge were won by Mrs. O. C. Maunthe and Mrs. John R. Kaseberg, in 500 by Mrs. W. W. Gram and Mrs. A. Glebsch, Mrs. A. G. Teepe and Mrs. J. A. Wichman were hostesses for the afternoon. Next Thursday evening the regular card party will be given with Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Rice as hosts for the affair. The members of the club are anticipating with interest the annual Easter ball which will take place at Cottillon hall, March 23.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ward were delightfully surprised at their home in Welder street Tuesday evening by about 75 of their friends from the White Temple, where Mrs. Ward, who was Miss Grace Stevenson until her recent marriage, was secretary. Guests for the evening included the corps of ushers, the deacons, and the daughters of the temple, who presented Mr. and Mrs. Ward with a set of silver. Mr. A. L. Veazie made an appropriate presentation speech.

The Rose City Park club will give a card party next Wednesday afternoon instead of next Thursday, Wednesday being reserved for the following card parties at the club. Mrs. George Carlson will be hostess for this week's affair. At the last affair bridge honors fell to Mrs. C. Christensen and Mrs. Arthur P. Jaldlaw, in 500 to Mrs. Murnell and Mrs. Havens.

The East Gate Social club of the Order of Eastern Star met at the home of Mrs. L. V. Dickson Tuesday evening for a short business session and social hour. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Edwards in East Stark street. The next dance and card party of the organization will be held at Grabel's hall at East Eighth and Stark streets next Saturday.

An important meeting of the Mills College club will be held in the card room of the University club Saturday at 3 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

H. LIEBES & CO.

The Store of Individual Shops

Broadway at Morrison

Furs! Correct for Spring

More new creations have just been completed in our own shop and placed on display. They truly reveal that smart, high-class appearance for which all Liebes Furs are noted.

Mole	Ideal for light spring wear, rich in appearance and dressy.	$37.50 to $285
Fisher	The luxurious fur for spring, animal chokers and small scarfs.	$75.00 to $285
Natural Squirrel	More springlike in color and weight than many other furs.	$19.50 to $215
Fox	For those desiring a larger piece, fox furs are very desirable.	$16.50 to $115

Sable, Stone Marten, Baum Marten and Other Fur Animal Scarfs at New 1921 Low Prices

Fur Restyling
Your own furs re-made into new style effects.

H. Liebes & Co.
ESTABLISHED 1864
BROADWAY AT MORRISON

Miss Sawtell Is Charming Bride Of Dr. Baldwin

MISS DORIS MAY SAWTELL, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sawtell, and Dr. Lytle A. Baldwin were united in marriage Saturday at 4 p. m. in the First Presbyterian church, the pastor, Dr. Harold Leonard Bowman, officiating in the presence of relatives and immediate friends. The wedding march was played by Mr. Edgar E. Courson and during the ceremony Mrs. Grant Thomas sang "At Dawning." The church was beautifully decorated in potted palms and Easter lilies.

The bride was lovely in a gown of ivory satin with ornamentation of lace and from a coronet of orange blossoms a tulle veil fell in misty folds. She carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and freesias. The matron of honor, Mrs. E. W. Burlingame (Elhel Tail) of Astoria, wore a smart gown of jade green satin and tulle and carried pink roses and sweet peas. Mr. Adrian C. Mann was the best man. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Following the ceremony dinner was served in the blue room of the Hotel Portland. Covers were placed for 12, including the bridal party and members of the two families. The table was attractive in sprigging flowers and fern. After a short wedding trip Dr. and Mrs. Baldwin will reside at Lucetta Court. Dr. Baldwin was educated in California and later graduated from the North Pacific Dental college. Mrs. Baldwin attended the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Hirsch are spending a few weeks in Southern California.

ALL HATS 1/3 OFF!

Being overstocked on account of the backward season and delayed shipments arriving daily from the East compels us to cut all hats 1-3 in order to unload.

EXTRA SPECIAL!
SAILORS

$2.50

EXTRA SPECIAL
SAILORS AT

$2.50

All the latest styles and colors. Exclusive because high rent stores would charge you double or more for the same.

Many thrifty women are waiting until after Easter for this sale, so here is your chance for a few days to buy your new Easter hat at a saving of 1-3. Come early, as we reserve the right to withdraw this sale at any time. Mrs. Nixon has just arrived from the East, so if you wish the newest, we have it.

NIXON'S
MILLINERY

428 Washington Street
Between Eleventh and Twelfth

St. Patrick's Day

MARCH 17

Many are giving St. Patrick's day parties this year. Are you?

They will be quite in vogue and many have already been completely arranged.

We have an unusually large and attractive stock this year of tally cards, party favors, place cards, prizes and general novelties, including some most unique crepe paper streamers and festoons.

Visit our second floor and make plans for a pleasant little party on Thursday evening.

The J. K. Gill Co.

Third and Alder Streets