Miss De Young Quietly Wed to Carl D. Rolph

THE wedding of Miss Alice De Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter De Young, and Carl D. Rolph was quietly celebrated at the home of the bride's parents in Williamette boulevard Tuesday evening. The bride couple was unattended, only immediate relatives and a few close friends witnessing the ceremony. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Charles Johnston. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was handsomely gowned in ivory satin, with which she wore a corsage of orchids and lilies of the valley. Following a brief wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Rolph will make their home in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Leiter have left the city for an extended Eastern trip during which they will visit New York, City and Baltimore and Washington, D. C.

The engagement of Miss Jean Mackenzie, daughter of Mrs. K. A. J. Mackenzie, to Mr. Erle Whitney, son of Mrs. John Dix Whitney of Mississippi, was announced at a small tea given Monday afternoon by Miss Mackenzie's sister, Mrs. Roderick Mackenzie. The tea was given in compliment to Mrs. Charles E. Miller and her house guest, Miss Jeanette Huntington. Miss Mackenzie is one of Portland's prominent society girls. Mr. Whitney is connected with the General Electric company.

Portland friends are interested in the announcement recently received here of the marriage of Miss Helen June Pierce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Pierce of La Grande, and Mr. James Raymond Wilson, now of New York, but formerly of Portland. Miss Pierce was graduated from Reed college with the class of 1920 and Mr. Wilson was graduated with the class of 1919. Miss Pierce is now connected with the Rockefeller Foundation in New York and Mr. Wilson, who received his master's degree at the California Institute of Technology last year, is connected with the General Electric company, New York. The marriage, which was solemnized Friday, follows a romance dating from Mr. Wilson's return from service.

A reception for the couple is planned by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leigh, former Reed faculty members, who now reside in New York.

The Minnomah Amateur Athletic club is making final arrangements for its next formal dance, to be given at the club Thursday evening. At the last formal the largest attendance of the season enjoyed the affair, and it is expected that the forthcoming St. Patrick's day party will draw even a larger number of members and friends of the club. Patrons and patronesses for the affair will include: Mr. and Mrs. Alfred T. Bonney, Dr. and Mrs. William B. Hare, Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Huelet, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Mielke, Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Green, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Pilkington, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Bruun, Mr. and Mrs. Stacy Hamilton. The entertainment committee includes Messrs. Joseph F. Riech, Taylor C. White, Floyd C. Lynch. A special dance orchestra has been engaged.
