FOR EVERYBODY—THIS

Easter Style Show

A Panorama of the New Fashions at New Low Prices

A COMPLETE revue of spring and Easter 1921 fashions—a brilliant display of all that is newest and best in apparel and accessories of dress, gathered from authoritative and distinguished sources. The whole week for which these opening displays are scheduled will scarcely suffice to exploit them properly—the presentation is on such a lavish scale. The new suits, frocks, wraps, millinery in particular are style shows unto themselves. Come and view them all, try them on if you will—they are for you not merely to look at, but to examine closely and buy if you please.

LITTLE MORE need be said. Men know that suits of Meier & Frank standard are worth coming a long way to get at twenty-five dollars. The fact that we can offer such suits at the price is strong evidence of our buying power and value-giving supremacy. The result will be hundreds of men happy in the possession of suits for Easter and later wear secured at a price which leaves something over for other needs.

Silk Mixed Worsteds

Blue Serges

Unfinished Worsteds

Herringbones, chalk and hairline stripes, plain browns, etc. Men's and young men's single and double breasted models, mostly the good conservative sorts of suits in the staple dark colors preferred by men who want real service out of their clothes.
