

Triumph of Easter Day

THE TRIUMPH OF EASTER DAY

EVERY hundred new members will receive the hand of fellowship Easter Sunday in the Presbyterian churches of Portland, as a climax to the campaign which the churches have been waging for the past three months.

In the suburban churches the Easter communion service and reception to new members will be in the morning, but the list of new communicants is so long at First, Westminster and Calvary churches, that the pastors have provided a special vesper service at 4 o'clock to welcome new members and celebrate the Lord's supper.

The First Presbyterian church, Twelfth and Alder streets, will observe Easter Sunday with appropriate music and song at each service. The pastor, Rev. Harold Leonard Rowan, D. D., will preach in the morning from the subject, "The Resurrection of Christ," and in the afternoon from "The Resurrection of the Dead."

Westminster Presbyterian church expects to celebrate its greatest day of the year Sunday. Services will begin with a young people's hour at 9 a. m., led by Miss Margaret Skavan, on the topic of "Lessons from the First Easter."

Calvary church, at 10 o'clock, will observe Easter with a special program in the church auditorium. The choir will sing "The Resurrection of Christ," and the orchestra will play "The Resurrection of the Dead."
