Friday Evening

ONE of the largest social events immediately following Lent will be the college prom, to be held Friday evening, in the ballrooms of the Multnomah hotel. All arrangements have been made and collegiate circles are looking forward with much interest to the event forward with much interest to the event. The committee consists of the following Margaret Cundy, Marjorle Kruse, Mil dred Lauderdale, Dorothy McGuire Helen Kirschner, Margaret Densmore Mildred Seufert, Dorothy Mitchell, Louise Hatfield, Dorothy Donlon, Ber-nice- Hunt, Elsie Clodius, Raymond Douglas, Arthur Base, Curtis Phillips, Harlan Gram, Lee Jones, Harry Coford, Al Dugan, Pete Sweeney, Earl Clarke, Conrad Roth, Edward Burness and Bert Haynes. The patrons and patronesses are Mr. and Mrs. Leland Seufert, Mr. and Mrs. Pinkerton Day.

Announcement was made Friday evening of the engagement of Miss Maurite J. Collier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Collier, to Dr. Urling C. Coe of this city. The news was told at an informal dinner given at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Edward Allen Pierce, at which covers were placed for 10 close friends. Miss Collier came to Portland a short time ago from Kalispell, Mont, and makes her home with her parents in Portland. Dr. Coe, who is a gradu-ate of the University of Missouri, is secretary of the state board of medical examiners of Oregon. No definite an-nouncement has been made of the wedding date, but the marriage will doubtless take place early in April. Among the guests at the announcement dinner Mrs. Laura P. Coe, mother of Dr. Coe, who has recently arrived in Port-land from her home in New York and will make her home in the city.

Mr. E. C. Latourette was host at delightful dinner party given Saturday evening at the Hotel Portland. Covers were laid for 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Mauro were hosts for a delightful party at their home March 19. Card tables were placed for the company, and the evening was a delightful one Guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Harold Read, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Symmonds, Mr. and Mrs. William F Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. John P.
