WEATHER FORECAST Portland and Vicinity-Tonight and Tuesday fair; continued cold; heavy frost Tuesday morn-Oregon and Washington—Tonight and Tuesday fair; continued cold; killing frost Tuesday morning; moderate northwesterly winds.

WEATHER CONDITIONS

A low pressure area of more than ordinary depth is central in Southern Utah, overlying the entire West except the Middle and North Pacific slope. Centers of high pressure are apparent off the North Atlantic and North Pacific coasts. Precipitation has occurred over a large part of the Pacific slope, and at a few stations in the extreme Northern Rocky mountain region. Snow is failing in Montana, Utah, Nevada, Idaho and Alberta. The temperature is generally below normal on the Pacific slope and above normal in other sections.

Western Oregon Not Considered—East-encoded over a large part of the Pacific slope, and at a few stations in the extreme Northern Rocky mountain region.

Church Mortgage Burned-A large congregation attended the Sunday morning service at St. James English Lutheran church, when the Rev. William E. Brinkman burned the mortgage for $12,500, which had been held since the present building was erected in 1907. Members of the church council who assisted in the special service were: Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wickline, I. M. Bohnsen, Mrs. Peter Blankholm, George M. Bracher, E. Hohlberger, B. E. Frazer, V. Crumbley, C. M. Bequette and H. Werner. The first four named are charter members of the church. Money to liquidate the debt was raised under the direction of L. V. Lundberg, financial secretary.

Dr. Hinson's Fifth Venr-Dr W B Hinson celebrated the beginning of his fifth year as pastor of the East Side Baptist church Sunday morning. Thirty-nine new members were received at the morning communion service. Since Dr. Hinson has been pastor, the church has moved from a frame structure at Twentieth and Ankeny streets into a modern stone building at East Twentieth and Salmon. The membership has also been doubled each year over the total number of the year previous.

Special Church Program-Mrs. Elsie B. McLaughlin, superintendent of the social service department of the Women's Missionary society of the First Methodist church, South, has arranged a special social service program for 8 o'clock Tuesday night in the church at Union avenue and Multnomah street.

Facing the | Future

We are settling the question with every passing "pay day" of just what kind of a future we are facing.

Perhaps success seems sure and the future looks bright. On the other hand, the best laid plans may go wrong and the "still, small voice" warns insistently that we should provide NOW against their failure.
