

Don't You Pity Them? Don't you pity the poor people who live out in Portland's suburbs? Just take a look at the Saturday Journal's suburban news on Saturday, and then admit that perhaps you city folks are the ones to be pitied.

Oregon Journal

It's All Here and It's All True THE WEATHER—Tonight and Tuesday, fair; westerly winds. Maximum temperature, 54. Portland, 54. New Orleans, 64. Boise, 66. New York, 54. Los Angeles, 64. St. Paul, 50.

PIGEONS AND PIPES DART OFF IN RACE

Gov. Olcott Accompanies Major in De Havilland; Five of Six Birds Take Wing; One Sticks Around for More of Climate.

At 8:05 this morning Governor Ben W. Olcott released Miss U. S. S. Oregon at Bloomfield aviation field, and the other five pigeons followed within five minutes. Ten minutes after Miss Oregon took the air Major H. H. Arnold took off in the big De Havilland plane and the spectacular pigeon-airplane race was on.

That rapid time was being made was indicated in a telegram received by The Journal this afternoon from Governor Olcott. Filed at Medford, where the plane stopped for gas and oil. The distance of 245 miles between Portland and Medford was covered in 2 hours and 25 minutes, with a light southwest wind. No trace had been seen of the pigeons.

GOVERNOR ENJOYS TRIP The governor's message continues: "Major Arnold took his course through the valley, passing east of Salem and between Silverton and Scotts Mills. Passed Salem in 25 minutes and Eugene in one hour."

Gov. Olcott, an aviation enthusiast, announced he would accompany the major all the way to San Francisco. He will return as soon as they land, stopping off at Medford to attend the Crater Lake meeting.

Early this morning a crowd of mechanics and the participants in the race gathered at the field. The big Liberty motor was turned over and warmed up by a string of onlookers, the governor himself taking a hand at the cranking.

NEW ORDERS UP TO PORT OF COOS BAY Marshfield, April 11.—Promise of big lumber shipping business from Coos Bay was made today when Philip Buehner of Portland, head of the Buehner Lumber company of North Bend, appeared before the commissioners of the Port of Coos Bay and petitioned that the port furnish a tug, tug and pilot.

PIGEONS PITTED AGAINST ARMY PLANE

START of army-navy-marine corps race between DeHaviland airplane and carrier pigeons, under joint auspices of The Journal and San Francisco Bulletin. First birds were released from Bloomfield aviation field at 8:05 this morning, Major H. H. Arnold taking off with Governor Olcott as passenger 10 minutes later.

Gov. Olcott, an aviation enthusiast, announced he would accompany the major all the way to San Francisco. He will return as soon as they land, stopping off at Medford to attend the Crater Lake meeting.

AUTOS HIT; YOUNG WOMAN IS HURT

Miss Alpha Buttz, 19, was taken to St. Vincent's hospital this morning in an unconscious condition as a result of a collision between an automobile driven by her father, J. W. Buttz, of Linnton, and another automobile driven by W. Wechmer, 630 East Seventy-sixth street north, at Flinders and Eighteenth streets at 7:45.

Hospital authorities report that Miss Buttz has a bad cut on her head and concussion of the brain. Neither automobile was going fast at the time of the crash, according to a report made by Motorcycle Patrolman Sig Tully. Both automobiles were turned completely around. Miss Buttz, who was being driven to work by her father, an employe at municipal dock No. 2, was thrown into the windshield by the jar.

Big Chicago Soap Company Gives High Prices Hard Wallop

Chicago, April 11.—(U. P.)—A clear neck coats less today. The James S. Kirk company put into effect soap price reductions ranging from 7 to 15 per cent. Other soap manufacturers are expected to follow suit. The bar of soap which normally sells for 9 cents sold today for 6 1/2 cents. Prices of other varieties will be cut proportionately.

Frederick V. Holman Is Not Doing So Well

Reports from Good Samaritan hospital today indicated that Frederick V. Holman, who underwent an operation for appendicitis two weeks ago, was not so well. His ultimate recovery is anticipated, although convalescence is slower than his physicians expected.

EX-EMPEROR OF GERMANY AWES BRITAIN

Augusta Victoria Dies Peacefully in Castle at Doorn, After Long Illness; ex-Kaiser Wilhelm Takes His Great Loss Stoically

Doorn, April 11.—(U. P.)—The former empress of Germany, Augusta Victoria, died here today at 6 a. m. Wars of the long illness of the kaiserin, most members of her family were at Doorn when death occurred.

EX-KAISER MAY ATTEND The funeral will be held at Potsdam, where the ex-empress reigned for 30 years. The body will be taken there Wednesday after preliminary services here tomorrow. Only members of the family will attend the ceremonies in the chapel here.

BORN IN EXILE Wilhelm, after leaving the death chamber, was reported to have accepted his loss stoically. The castle, always carefully guarded, has been opened to the public in expectation that large crowds would gather to watch the arrival of relatives and sympathizers.

LIKED HOME LIFE Wilhelm II succeeded to the throne March 9, 1888. During the time the emperor was building up the empire, preparing for the great campaign to extend its territories, the kaiserin devoted herself to the home. Her chief claim to fame was her ability as a housewife.

Continued as Hausfrau During the war she was thrown into the background by her resplendent husband. She was said to arrive gingerly over the suffering caused by the war and did a great deal to comfort those to the German Red Cross and did some hospital work.

When the final great disaster came, she immediately followed the kaiser into exile, continuing her role as the faithful hausfrau. Her troubles had wrecked her health, however, and she spent much time in attempting to reconcile their many differences.

SEVERE BLOW Their troubles had wrecked her health, however, and she spent much time in attempting to reconcile their many differences. Her death was a severe blow to the kaiser, who was said to have been very ill since the death of his wife.

MAYOR OF CORK MUST LEAVE U. S.

Washington, April 11.—(U. S.)—Secretary of Labor Davis today ruled that Donal O'Callaghan, lord mayor of Cork, is an alien seaman and must reshif from this country.

Tillamook Family, Reported as Lost at Cannon Beach, Found

Seaside, Or., April 11.—Mrs. Al Grafton, her four children, ranging from 5 to 15 years of age, and Fred Tunnicliff, 14 years old, who have been missing since Sunday noon, were found, none the worse for their experience, by Grafton, this morning.

Horse Throws Moro Girl; Skull Fractured

Moro, Or., April 11.—The oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Johnson of Moro was thrown from a horse Saturday and suffered three broken ribs and a fractured skull. She is about a year old and was not used to horseback riding. Her father is manager of the Tumb-A-Lum Lumber company of Moro.

Dam Breaks Near Madras; City Flooded

Madras, Or., April 11.—A dam a mile south of Madras broke this morning at 9 o'clock. A large body of water stored for private irrigation by D. M. Clark, flooded Madras, taking out all bridges on Willow creek inside of the town limits. Streets and cellars were flooded and some damage done in the residential district near the creek. The total loss is estimated at about $50,000.

$542,533 RAISED IN CHEST DRIVE

The reorganization of the campaign for the whirlwind finish has been completed and the various heads are as follows: Division 1, Lieutenant General Charles F. Berg; division 2, Lieutenant General H. R. Van Duzer; flying squadron, D. A. Pastillo and W. M. Ladd; industrial and merchants' employes, E. N. Strong and John E. Grakke; foreign corporations, H. R. Linnell; Portland Service League, Charles H. Belf and H. W. Kent; schools, J. J. Handsaker; reeducation, Horace Mecklem.

A complete list of subscribers and those who have refused to contribute is to be compiled and active work after Saturday night will consist of a close follow-up of this list on the part of special solicitors working from Chest headquarters under instructions from the board of directors.

OREGON MEASURES TO BE INTRODUCED

Washington, April 11.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL)—Bills prepared for introduction by members of the Oregon delegation upon the opening of the new session of congress include the following:

Western lands by appropriation of a two hundred and fifty million dollar revolving fund to be created from proceeds of district irrigation bonds, based on statistics certified by the government. This bill is to have the solid support of Western members; resolution to invite participation of foreign governments in the Portland exposition in 1925; bill to donate the old postoffice site as a park memorial to the city of Portland and to purchase a nest for the federal courthouse, costing not over $250,000.

Shot Fired at Rat Wounds School Boy

Winlock, Wash., April 11.—A bullet, fired at rat by Alvin Ruff, was deflected and struck the 12-year-old son of P. E. Veness of Winlock in the side of the head, causing a serious wound.

COMMUNITY CHEST THERMOMETER
$ 850,000
800,000
750,000
700,000
650,000
600,000
550,000
500,000
450,000
400,000
350,000
300,000
250,000
200,000
150,000
100,000
50,000

Sunken Dredger Is Raised; Craft Not Seriously Damaged

Preliminary examination of the Port of Portland dredger Williamsite, which was sunk in the water last week, from its resting place in the river at the foot of Ross Island, disclosed today that no serious damage has been incurred. The vessel was raised by dredges and is being towed to the drydock for repairs.