

50 DELIVERY BOYS ARE ARRESTED FOR TRAFFIC VIOLATION

The busy lads who transport the groceries, laundry and the like to Portland families paused in their mad rush for the crossings Monday as they "yessir'd" to the motorcycle police, who spent a day gathering them into the municipal fold at police headquarters.

Lieutenant Frank Ervin and his "flying squadron" arrested 50 of the boys who drive the delivery cars. The drivers were stopped as they ducked around corners and as they sped through crowded traffic. Some were stopped twice, only to reiterate that they had already been "got." One youngster was followed for nearly a half hour by a motorcycle cop and during that period is reported to have violated the city traffic ordinance a score of times.

VIOLATIONS MANY AND VARIED
The lads were arrested for speeding, driving with open gut-outs, failure to give right of way, failure to signal properly for stopping or turning, failure to slow down at street intersections, parking their machines in prohibited districts, leaving the motor running in a vacant machine, jockeying on the bridges, driving on the wrong side of the street, driving without a driver's license and driving with dirty or improper license tags.

The crusade by the police was in the nature of a delivery driver clean-up, with orders from Mayor Baker to put a stop to the carelessness of drivers who are frequently involved in accidents and whose driving endangers pedestrians and drivers of automobiles who respect the law. The crusade will continue, according to Lieutenant Ervin, until the delivery drivers learn that they must respect the city's traffic rules in spite of their plea that they have to hurry.

MOST OFFENDERS YOUNG
Most of the drivers arrested were boys under 18 years of age. The boys have been accustomed, it is said, to disobeying the traffic rules and taking advantage of many opportunities to "slip one over" on the police. Monday the entire speed cop force was mobilized to halt the drivers, who declared in amazement that they had been driving like that for years and had never been stopped before.

"That's just the trouble. Because our men have been busy on regular beats you have been able to get away with it. But from now on you drive right or you don't drive," was the way Ervin put it.

Hops Must Wait for Permanent Tariff, Declares Penrose

Washington, April 18.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL).—"Hops and sunflower seed can come in on the permanent tariff bill," says Senator Boies Penrose, discussing the plans to enact the Fordney emergency tariff bill early in the extra session of congress. "He said it will be impossible to extend the emergency bill beyond the inclusion of anti-dumping and American valuation provisions."

The hop growers of Oregon and California have been especially persistent in urging their case upon the senators of these states, asserting that they should by all means be included in any emergency measure that is intended to protect the Western agricultural interests.

By linking hops with sunflower seed Mr. Penrose probably intended a little joke, but the movement for a tariff on sunflower seed is nevertheless serious. Senator Capper of Kansas offered an amendment to protect sunflower seed when the bill was before the senate at the regular session, but it was voted down.

Mr. Penrose indicated that the revenue law, if his views prevail, will abolish the excess profits tax and will reduce the tax on incomes "all along the line," but that treasury and committee experts will have great weight in the decision as to where the point of collection shall be fixed, so the taxpayer "will not be robbed of all initiative and incentive," as Mr. Penrose puts it.

No Advantage in Moving Depot Here, Says Quartermaster

Washington, April 18.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL).—"There would be no economic advantage in closing the quartermaster depot at Seattle and moving it to Portland," says H. H. Rogers, quartermaster general of the army, writing to Senator McNary with reference to a proposal recently advanced.

General Rogers says the army has closed its depot at Los Angeles, leaving three on the west coast, at San Francisco, Portland and Seattle, and these, he adds, will be maintained. The depot locations give no particular advantages to a locality's business interests, he says, as the purpose of the department is to encourage competition by advertising for supplies f. o. b. at point of production, and the army records show that Portland merchants have competed successfully with those of Seattle, San Francisco, Los Angeles, El Paso and San Antonio for troop supplies throughout the Pacific and Mexican border regions.

Syndicalists Off for Prison

Complete Skeleton of Mastodon, With 9-Foot Tusk, Found

Arlington, Or., April 18.—William Marshall, a shepherd employed by Smythe Brothers, discovered the complete skeleton of a mastodon in Butcher Knife canyon, about four miles east of Arlington, in Gilliam county, near the mouth of Willow creek, Sunday. Marshall had often predicted that some day he would find a complete specimen, but was astonished when he discovered that a "stake" protruding several inches above the sandy soil in sagebrush was the point of a large mastodon tusk.

Smythe Brothers shearing plant and sheep camps, brought one of the tusks to Arlington, which measures nine feet in length and is 12 inches in diameter at the base. Arlington citizens plan to have the find exhumed and brought here to be mounted and placed on exhibition for automobile tourists.

Boston, Mass., April 19.—(U. P.).—Miss Marie Scott, a pretty girl, who says she is an art student, was held as

She told immigration officials that she was studying art and music in Italy and that a short time ago her funds gave out.
