from the East. Detroit will retain Hale and send "Jockey" Huber to the minors. Huber was offered to Manager Mc-Credle during the spring training camp season, but McCredie did not think he would help the Beavers, as he was only rated as a fair player in the South Atantic league last season.

RAIN STOPS GAME Jupe Pluyius halted a pitching duel in Wednesday's contest on Lake Vaughn between Sam Ross of the Beavers and Earl Kunz of Sacramento. With the count 1-all, a heavy shower, which started in the fourth, resulted in Umpire Casey temporarily halting the play. After a wait of 30 minutes, the were issued to the handful of fans who wandered out to the park.

Kunz, while not as steady as Ross, succeeded in keeping the Beavers from coring until the fourth frame, when Gus Fisher, who had replaced Del Baker, ambled across the plate on Ross' fly to impton. Fisher drew a walk and advanced on Butler's sacrifice and moved up a sack on Young's hit—his second of the game. Genin followed with a bingie, but Krug fanned, ending the inning.

Sacramento was retired in one two.
