CHILDREN FROM CHRISTIE HOME ARE GIVEN PARTY

Oswegoans were mystified Thursday by a long procession of touring cars all going south and all empty except for the drivers.

An hour or so later some 20 machine loads of youngsters from the Christie home passed Portlandward and still later in the day it became known the machines had been sent out by Liberty theatre to bring the children to the birthday party of Von Claud Jensen, the two-year-old son of one of the owners of the Liberty. The youngsters thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

The eleventh birthday anniversary of Eva Battersby was celebrated at her home. April 24. A number of her little friends came to make the event an enjoyable affair. Many gifts were re-ceived by the young hostess, among being a pansy shower by Mr. and Mrs. Hess. Delicious refreshments were served. Those who enjoyed the afternoon with her were: Albert Priebe, Evelyn Fox, Bernice Schanbel, Warren Scott, Ava Bickner, Dorothy Brandt. Bill Priebe, Maurice and Alice Bat-
