

ASPARAGUS DOWN IN PRICE LOCALLY

By Hyman H. Cohen
Asparagus season is now in full swing and prices are now just as low as during normal times. In many of the markets they are offering the bunch stock at 25c for two bunches. It develops that most of the bunches weigh three quarters pound instead of one pound.

the custom, but even at that asparagus is rather cheap. And it is of very good quality.
Green peas from California have been so high and so scarce that values have been far above the average consumer. Now there is quite a liberal stock offering here and prices are dropping fast. Some of the down-town markets will make a specialty of them Saturday at 15c a pound.
Cabbage is very scarce and higher priced, but values will soon be lower. Rhubarb is rather scarce again and this has resulted in the retail price being moved generally to 10c a pound.
A rise of 20c per 100 pounds is shown in the price of cane sugar, but best stock is advanced only 10c.

Better Jelly than can be made at home.

We make the following varieties: Strawberry, Raspberry, Loganberry, Grape, Blackberry, Currant, Crabapple, Apple, Quince and Damson Plum.

LOW PRICES ON HIGH QUALITY STANDARD GOODS

Have you hesitated to try out these money saving markets because of the thought that low prices mean inferior quality? If so, look over the list this week and you will find almost everything is of well known, standard brand and all of as fine quality as you can get. The reason for our low prices is the enormous volume of our business and our cash selling policy, and the best way to take advantage of them is to buy in large quantities when the price is lowest. Mail or phone a trial order this week or come in and buy over the counter. Prices advertised are good until Monday or by mail in quantities of $10 or over until Wednesday.
