At Mann Cottage

PORTLAND friends of Reed college will be welcomed in the Anna Mann cottage May 18 and May 25, according to invitations being sent out by Dean Bertha K. Young of the Reed college faculty. The two Wednesday afternoon at-homes will be the first general receptions held since the completion of the Anna Mann cottage, which has been pro-near need one of the most attractive social centers among western colleges.

Dean Young will be assisted by women Wednesdays, and May 18 by the women of the junior class, headed by Elizabeth Gore, vice-president. May 25 will be a reception at which seniors assist, Julia Harrison, vice-president of the graduating class, being in charge of arrange-ments with Dean Young.

An invitation is extended to friends of the college for the hours between 3 and

The recital of Marie Loughney, mezzo soprano of New York and J. Erwin Mutch, well known Portland baritone, which will take place at 8:30 o'clock in Pythian hall, formerly Masonic temple, Yamhill street, will be one of the musical society events of the season. The following women will act as patronesses for

Mesdames William D. Wheelwright, Henry Ladd Corbett, George T. Gerlin-ger, Donald Spencer, Charles E. Sears, John F. Logan, Lee Hoffman, Fletcher Linn, John Knox, Ralph Fenton, Ralph Walker, A. S. Kerry, John Pipes, David Campbell, J. R. Ellison, Blaine R. Smith, Frank M. Taylor, Solomon Hirsch, A. P. Watson, William C. Alvord, Charles C. Smith, Clarence Olmstead, W. A. Bush-ong, T. H. Williams, George Rebec, Robert Stanfield, A. A. Morrison, Robert Strong, Folger Johnson, Harry Beal Tor-rey, Oliver O. Young, Edwin Seeley Par-sons, Percy Smith, Madame Lucie Valair, Miss Aileen Brong, Miss Gwladys Bowen.

One of the affairs of interest which took place in Eugene during the visit of the Portland folk who went down for the opening and dedication of the Woman's Memorial hall at the University of Ore-gon was a dinner for which President and Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Colvin V. Dyment and Dean Elizabeth Fox were hosts at the Hotel Osburn when they entertained in honor of Dr. Aurelia H. Reinheardt, president of Mills college. Additional guests were Dr. Graham Taylor of Chicago, Rt. Rev. and Mrs. Walter Taylor Sumner, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beal Torrey, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Gerlinger, Mrs. Thomas F. Sharp, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis F. Lawrence, Mrs. A. J. Lawrence, Miss Lawrence, and Dean and Mrs. John Straub.

Among the Portland visitors who were ruests at Susan Campbell hall at the University of Oregon over the last week were Mrs. W. B. Ayer, Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett, Mrs. Robert Strong, Madame Reed, Miss Mulheron, Mrs. Louis Ger-linger, Jr., Mrs. Ralph W. Wilbur, Mrs. M. Donald Spencer, Mrs. D. M. Watson, Mrs. Charles F. Schnabel, Mrs. B. E. Smith, Mrs. John Leader, Mrs. John Smith, Mrs. John Leader, Mrs. John Pearson, Mrs. C. F. Swigert, Mrs. George Rebec, Mrs. Lee Hoffman, Mrs. Susie A. (Mrs. Anthony Page Ferguson Christensen to Mr. Theodore Gulhaugen

Miss Marguerite P. Paulsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Paulsen of 560 the city today from Berkeley, Cal., where she has been attending the dramatic chool of the University of California. Miss Paulsen is a St. Helens hall girl and her many friends will welcome her back to Portlad. She recently took a prominent part in the class play at the university and received favorable comment for her work.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Van Wyck Peters (Marie Louise Winslow), whose marcisco, Cal., are being welcomed back to Portland. They spent their honeymoon in New York. At present they are house guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Squires through almost every state in the union. will entertain at a small dinner dance In two weeks she will begin a ten weeks'

Mrs. Walter Goss entertained infor-Mrs. Walter Goss entertained infor- honor at a luncheon for which Mrs. maily at luncheon for a few friends at Frank W. Warren, Sr., was hostess at her home in Irvington Monday.

Friends of Reed

MRS. WAYNE W. COE, who was Miss Catherine Rudbone of Charleston, S. C., and who recently returned with her husband to make her home in Portland. The wedding took place in Sacramento, Cal.

Miss Ferguson Clergyman Will To Be Presented Officiate When In Property of the Period o

During her New Zealand engagement she gave "Green Stocking," a delightful English comedy of the day, which by eason of the reader's personal charm and splendid art met with an immediate success. Miss Ferguson enjoyed the reader to visit the dominion. For several years Miss Ferguson was head of the dramatic department of the Woman's college of Alabama. Since ameron Squires in King street. Next then her lyceum work has taken her tour of Canada and will then go to New

Dr. Zamora Criswell

Cauffman

4 FREE LECTURES

FOR WOMEN ONLY

Twice Daily, $ P. M. and 8 P. M. TUESDAY and FRIDAY, MAY 19 and 20

Subjects

How the Span of Life Can Be Length-

Your Mind and Your Body. Your Mind Conscious and Sub-Con

Multnomah Hotel Take Elevator to 8th Floor

Private Interviews by Appointment Only

Personal Charm.

will entertain at a small dinner dance in their honor.

In two weeks she will begin a ten weeks to the first honor.

Mrs. Robert L. Benson and two little daughters left the city Monday for Ann Arbor, Mich., where they will join Dr. Benson, who is doing research work in the East. They will be absent throughout the summer months. During their absence Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Morrison will occupy their home in Davenport street.

Mr. Philip L. Jackson, who has been spending several weeks in New York for spending several weeks in New York for spending several weeks in New York city, sailed last week on the steamship Mauretania for Europe. He will be absent about a month, spending much of that time in London and Paris. He sailed in company with W. W. Hawkins, president of the United Press.

Miss Margaret Fleetwood of Tacoma, Wash, is a visitor at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Captain and Mrs. Agrian Orrill, at Vancouver bartacks.

Miss Adrian Orrill, at Vancouver bartacks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. O'Brien have returned from a brief trip east, during which they visited Mr. and Mrs. A. E. MacDowell, former Fortland residents, in St. Paul and spent some time in Chicago, Omaha and other cities en route home.

Mrs. W. O. H. Martin who has been will be fire as the mount of the pressure of a character party. All former Wisconsin residents are invited to attend.

Mrs. Advisor The Mrs. MacDowell, former Fortland residents, in St. Paul and spent some time in Chicago, Omaha and other cities en route home.

Mrs. W. O. H. Martin who has been will be in the mature of a character party. All former Wisconsin residents are invited to attend.

Mrs. W. O. H. Martin who has been will be fire as the first of a character party. All former Wisconsin residents are invited to attend.

Mrs. W. O. H. Martin who has been in the house of her son-in-law and other cities en route has returned to her home in the cast. Monday she was the guest of her home in the cast. Monday she was the guest of her son-in-law and other cities en route has rea some time has returned to her home in the east. Monday she was the guest of Announcement was made Thursday of the engagement of Miss Margaret Gross to Mr. Frank E. Fowler of Pendleton. The news was told at an informal tea for which Miss Gross was hostess entertaining in honor of Mrs. Lawrence Dutton (Nita Hunter). The bride-elect is a University of Oregon girl and a member of Gamma Phi Beta. MIND TRAINING Mr. Fowler is a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity and was a student at the University of Oregon school of medi-cine. The wedding is planned for Practical Psychology Lectures E SCIENCE OF RIGHT LIVING, RIGHT THINKING FOR HEALTH, PPINESS AND SUCCESS—A COMPLETE AND PRACTICAL COURSE IN MAN CULTURE, BY Parkland, Wash.

Among the list of patrons and pa-their support to the success of the benefit concert of Francis Richter, the eminent blind pianist who will appear in recital at the White Temple June 3, are:

Mrs. A. C. Stevens of 691 East Seventeenth street north has as her guest her sister, Miss Belle Saltzman of Philadelphia, who will be in the city until after the Rose Festival. During the week Mrs. Hattie Wood entertained for Miss Saltzman. Mrs. A. Aronson also entertained for the visitor before her departure recently.

Friends of Mrs. J. P. Howe will be pleased to hear that she has returned to her home at 352 East Forty-seventh street after an absence of over a year.
Mrs. Howe has suffered from a fractured knee cap and has been at the home of her sister, Miss N. Marquam

Seattle for the past 10 months. Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Brink entertained informally at a dancing party at their home in Irvington for their daughter, Miss Betty Brink, and her young friends. About 150 young folks enjoyed the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Gerlinger entertained informally at their home in Thurman street, Saturday, honoring Mrs. Louis Gerlinger Jr., who recently returned from California, where she spent the winter months.

Cinderella's Old Auxiliary Will Rule Is Invoked Give Dance for At Dance Party of the younger members of the social contingent. The affair was planned by Mrs. David Taylor Honeyman and Mrs. Those who have pro-Josephine S. Andrews, and each woman guest was instructed that she was not by appearing at the party with her own husband. Anyone else's husband, sweetheart or trusted swain would be acceptable, but to bring one's usual escort was to be guilty of crime. The Dancing will follow the program. music for the dancers was ready at 10 o'clock and supper, with a tempting menu following the usual lines of a breakfast party, was served at 2 o'clock. The affair was well attended and numerous parties were made up for the occasion. Among those who assembled small groups for supper and dinner par-ties to precede the dance were Mr. and Mrs. Antoine G. Labbe, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Chaney, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Wessinger, Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Hindman, Mrs. Grenville Vernon, Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Sharp and Dr. and Mrs. John N. Coglan and others,

Miss Anna Brobst and Mr. J. Frank Pearcy, both of Portland, were united in marriage at Evanston, Ill., recently. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Sophia Brobst, 233 East Forty-fourth street. Mr. Pearcy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Pearcy of 543 East Thirty-fifth street south. The bride was a graduate of Washington high school in 1913 and has studied music at Forest Grove Music conservatory and later at-tended Reed college. She also studied music at Chicago and Evanston III. Mr. and Mrs. Pearcy are making their home in Chicago. Mrs. Pearcy will continue her music work. Mr. Pearcy is com-pleting his course at Rush Medical college of the University of Chicago and is a member of the Phi Beta Pi medical

A cablegram has been received from Mr. and Mrs. Aronson, stating that they had arrived in Paris in the best of health after a wonderful ocean voyage. They were extensively entertained by their many friends in New York previous to their sailing on the White Star line steamer Cedric. They spent one week in London, and after visit-ing in Paris they will go to Switzer-land, Southern France, Italy and all other interesting points in Europe. While in Europe Mr. Aronson will investigate the diamond market and busi-

The regular Thursday evening card party at Laurelhurst club was held last week. Prizes in "500" were won by Mrs. W. W. Graves and Mr. A. L. Dupey.

SOCIAL event of interest is the presentation of Ruby Page Ferguson

A NNOUNCEMENT is made of the enbridal luncheon given last Wednesday by Mrs. William Wright, at her lovely christensen to Mr. Theodore Gulhaugen home in Rose City Park, in honor of her (Mrs. Anthony Euwer) Tuesday evening at the chapel of the Church of Our Father, Unitarian, in a dramatic interpretation of Israel Zangwill's play, "The Melting Pot," which will be proceeded Church of this city June 14, it being with ministures of the same serving as Melting Pot," which will be proceeded by an original version of Booth Tarkington's "Mister Antonio."

Miss Ferguson has just returned from a four months' tour of New Zealand under the Ellison-White management.

Will take place in Our Savior's Lutheran church of this city June 14, it being the marriage anniversary of the bride's parents. Miss Christensen has attended the St. Olaf college, Northfield, Minn., and is a graduate of the Pacific Lutheran church of this city June 14, it being the marriage anniversary of the bride's favors. The guests were the members of the St. Olaf college, Northfield, Minn., and is a graduate of the Pacific Lutheran church of this city June 14, it being the marriage anniversary of the bride's favors. The guests were the members of the Thetrane club. Mrs. Parks-Mordan den of Astoria, a former member of the can college. Tacoma, Wash. Mr. Guieran college, Tacoma, Wash. Mr. Gul-haugen is a theological candidate from

A luncheon was given Thursday in the blue room of the Hotel Portland in honor of J. R. Richards, football coach Luther seminary, St. Paul, Minn., and is to take charge of the Lutheran church in Yakima, Wash. The marriage follows a romance that began years ago were placed for 25 graduates of the success. Miss Ferguson enjoyed the when both the young people were university, who are now residents of A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. unique distinction of being the first play students at the Lutheran academy, Portland. O. Laurgaard was master of Harry Hanno Portland. Was Miss Jennie consin team to Oregon next season for named Harriet. ronesses who have been chosen to lend game with Oregon.

Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Naomi Levy to Dr. Horace Louis Rosenberg, which will be solemnized Sunday, June 12, at 5:30 o'clock, at the rose room of the Benson hotel. Immediately following the ceremony a wedding dinner will be served in the crystal James H. Hawley IV arived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Hawley Jr. at Boise, Idaho. Mrs. Hawley was Mary Dunn, formerly of Portland be-fore her marriage. Mr. Hawley is the son of ex-Governor Hawley of Idaho. Mrs. Horace S. Butterfield and daughter, Miss Genevieve, have returned from a sojourn of several weeks in the East. During their absence they visited Miss Elizabeth Boyd in Chicago and also visited relatives in Columbus, Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. P. Feldman left the city last Sunday for California, where they will spend some weeks. During their absence, Miss Elise Feldman will be the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Feldman. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Koshland (Delphine Rosenfeld), whose marriage was a recent event, arrived last Sunday from home at the Hotel Multnomah. Mrs. Carre Louise Dunning has re-turned to Portland after several months

Mrs. Dunning is living at the Portland

Seventh Annual Spring Festival One Hundred Pupils of MISS ALYS BROWN In a Program of Solo and

Group Dances OF UNUSUAL BEAUTY ASSISTED BY MRS, MISCHA PELZ, Soprano
MRS, ROBERT CLARK, Contralto
AND ORCHESTRA "Le Cygne"-"My Lady" "One Day in the Park"

AND OTHER POPULAR DANCE DRAMAS MUNICIPAL AUDITORIUM FRIDAY, MAY 20 8:15 P. M.

Seat Sale Opens at SHERMAN, CLAY & CO.'S MAY 18 PRICES $1.10 and 85c

FOLLOWING the oldtime program A BENEFIT program and dance will when Portland prided itself on a club of young women who called themselves the "Cinderellas" and who established an enviable reputation for givunusually interesting parties, a dance was given Friday evening at Waverley Country club, which assembled some 200 of the younger members of the social to break the letter of the prescribed law tribute to the entertainment are Mrs.

class for the evening of May 27, and afternoon of May 28. This entertainment will be given in connection with the junior assembly May 27 at 8 o'clock, and the children's party, in which several hundred children take part, May 28 at

Mrs. Guy R. Porter entertained informally at dinner at Forest Hall, on Columbia River highway, Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. Edward S. Ferry of Everett, Wash, who is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Cobbs. The party included six guests.

The Portland Ad club is planning an old fashioned "down-the-river Missis-sippi" style dance and Hi Jinks aboard the Blue Bird Wednesday evening, May 25. The entertainment committee promises a delightful entertainment.

Dr. and Mrs. Gustave E. Bruere were hosts for a dinner of eight covers at their home in north Twenty-fourth street Saturday evening in honor of Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Mackay who expect to leave the city next Saturday for an extended sojourn in the East. Miss Dorothy Carpenter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. U. Carpenter, entertained her class mates who are members of the senior class at St. Helens hall at a luncheon at Waverley Country club Saturday afternoon. Covers were placed for the 12 members of the class and Mrs. Carpenter.

Miss Blanche Burke entertained at bridge and tea at Waverley Country club Thursday afternoon. Guests to make up three tables of bridge were invited for the occasion, which honored Mrs. James A. Dougherty. Miss Bernice Nee was honored on the occasion of her sixteenth birthday anniversary last week with a surprise party. Music and games and dancing furnished diversion for the evening.

Thirty guests were entertained. Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Thompson have removed from the Mallory hotel and are domiciled at the Wickersham apartments in North Eighteenth street for the summer months.

The Daughters of Scotia will hold a "gingham dance" Friday evening. The women will wear gingham aprons or dresses and the men will come in their shirt sleeves and old clothes.

visiting in San Francisco during winter months, is in Portland and is the house guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Hirsch. Mrs. Margaret Burrell Biddle and Miss Margaret Biddle have returned from a sojourn at the beach and are occupying their own home. Mrs. Charles Bliss Preston of Irvington left the city Saturday evening for Marshfield, where she will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Cohan for ceremonies. There was an informal dis-cussion of plans for bringing the Wis-Langford. The new arrival has been

DID YOU SEE THE Reed Furniture

"BUILD A HOME EXPOSITION"

REED FURNITURE made to order, re-

REED SPECIALTY SHOP 319 WILLIAMS AVE.

Tailored Girls Wanted Blouses

Wanted, girls 18 to 25 years, to learn Comptometer. Firms are calling for finished operators again. Course costs you $40. For a short time only you can pay $10 upon entering and $5 per week until you have paid $40. See Miss Collins, $13 Morgan building. This is the only Comptometer School in the State of Oregon.

Wm. A. Bacon, Soliciting Agent

Portland Post

The Foley & Burke carnival has been secured by Portland post to show on Eleventh street, adjoining the Armory, from June 7 to 18. This carnival is the best that has ever visited the city of Portland, and will be one of the downtown attractions during the Rose Festival.

Plans for the pro-bonus campaign were formulated on Wednesday, May 12, when the various committees in charge met at post headquarters. Portland post has undertaken the responsibility of carrying Multnomah county in the passage of the bonus measure, and a live campaign will be launched in the future.

Portland post of the American Legion will conduct dances throughout the summer months at the Cotillion hall on Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday nights. The first dance of this series was held on last Friday night and was well attended.

The music is furnished by the post's rage. The music is furnished by the post's rag-

Members and friends of the Legion time jazz hounds.

Arrangements have been completed by Howard C. Gildea, commander of McMinnville, post No. 21 and a member of the Oregon state executive committee, this week under the direction of the for a joint meeting of the five Legion posts in Yamhill county, comprising the cities of McMinnville, Newberg, Sheri-Colonel Stevens of the Victory medal dan, Yamhill and Amity, to be held in distribution bureau, now located at the the city of McMinnville on Monday, American Legion office, at Sixth and May 16, at which time the county coun-oil of the Legion posts in that cou is expected and large crowds of leg naires from the surrounding towns were present, while state officials of Legion from Portland will also be attendance. A real high jinks has be arranged under the auspices of Comander Gildea, who has appointed committee. Part of the entertainment in the committee of the committee.

The support of Bonus Bill of B

APPLIQUE HEMSTITCHING

PLEATING

K. STEPHAN

For Your Convenience A Charge Account With Us

Here Is Supreme Value-Giving! Fine

The greatest value this season in wraps of superior style and quality

-Distinctive for their superb styling, lovely fabrics and perfect workmanship.

-Following the luxuriously wrappy lines-they are elaborated with embroidery, fringe and tassels -each garment bears the mark of "Quality"as well as the plainer styles.

Fine Tricotines Duvet de Laines

Camel's Hair

Poiret Twills Veldynes Polo Cloth

Re-Priced! A Wonderful Assortment

Silk Frocks At reductions that average a third!

$29.50

Taffetas Canton Crepes Heavy Crepe de Chine -That "extra silk frock" may be added to your wardrobe at a fraction of its original price! -For here are the newest summery frocks — cleverly styled and beautifully tailored. -A remarkable group that the discriminating shopper will be quick to appreciate.

Four Groups $3.95

$13.95

In Our Conveniently

New

Of Crisp Organdie

and Batiste

$2.50-$3.75-$4.95

-Sheer summery blouses

-designed to accompany the sports suit-their turnback cuffs and collars are frilled and in some instances gaily striped in bright contrasting shades.

Arranged Blouse Shop

tremendous adjustment! -Pattern Hats

> -Crepe Hats -Horsehair Hats

Positively not one reserved! Newest Shades! Smartest Styles! Priced formerly up to $25.00

