American Golfers Defeat English Cracks--McCredie Denies Receipt of Offer for Team

Beaver Team Owner Says No Bid Made

THREE Pacific Coast baseball games—Portland at Los Angeles, Seattle at San Francisco and Oakland at Sacramento—scheduled for Friday were postponed on account of rain.

Rain caused a postponement of the Portland-Los Angeles doubleheader to be played this afternoon at Los Angeles.

The San Francisco-Seattle postponed game will be played next Monday.

By George Bertz

WHILE buzzings of the sale of the Portland team to a group of Portland men have been heard, Judge McCredie Saturday announced that he had received no definite offer for the franchise.

Reports have been printed that a group of four men have offered $100,000 for the franchise, but the judge denied this statement.

CALIFORNIANS AFTER TEAM

The Portland club is for sale and has been for sale for the past couple of seasons, but the judge has an opinion that if the team is sold its purchasers will be Californians. Walter McCredie, manager of the team, has been offered a reasonable price for the franchise several times, but he, as well as the judge, would like to sell it to Portland interests.

Before any deal for the transfer of the Portland team is made, the McCredies must secure the sanction of the Pacific Coast league, which may prove a stumbling block to the disposal of the team to one Portland group, which, it is rumored, is going to make a bid for the club.

During the past several months, rumors have been spread that various offers have been made for the club, but as yet no definite offer has been and no one has ever dickered for a price. Judge McCredie claims that he has never set a price on the club.

Efforts of brokers to sell the club have proven a failure.

HALE TO REPORT AT S. L.

Sammy Hale, Tiger infielder, will report to the Portland club at Salt Lake Tuesday, according to reports from Manager McCredie. Hale's coming will result in Butler being benched temporarily, as "Pep" Young has been playing remarkable ball in the Los Angeles series.

Butler will be used as pinch hitter for the present.

MINOR BASEBALL

North Portland junior baseball team will cross bats with the Kenton juniors Sunday morning, starting at 11 o'clock on the Grove diamond, Twenty-fifth and Raleigh streets. Either Weldon or McCormick will start the twirling for "Chuck" Walker's North Portlanders, and it is between Benson and Millican to see which does the receiving.

A 22 to 0 shutout was scored by the Franklin high baseball team over the James John high aggregation on the Twenty-fourth and Vaughn street grounds Friday afternoon. The match had been billed for Multnomah field, but it was switched by mutual agreement in order to permit the grammar schools to hold their annual track and field meet.

North Pacific Dental college and the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club tossers will battle this afternoon, starting at 3:30 o'clock on Multnomah field. It will be the second meeting of the two squads and a close game is expected. Sergeant Harvey E. Davis of the United States marine corps will act as umpire.

Cove, Or., May 21.—The Cove-North Powder baseball game at North Powder last Sunday resulted in a 16 to 2 victory for the locals. At no stage of the contest was Cove in danger.

Manager Leo Hoffard wants a game for his Podunk Juniors for Sunday afternoon. He can be reached by calling Woodlawn 5896 after 6:15 o'clock tonight.

The Journal and the Telegram baseball teams will meet Monday night on Multnomah field, starting at 5:30 o'clock. The two squads have been scheduled to appear for more than 10 days, but poor weather has caused a postponement. Dr. Thomas Ross, president of the league, has instructed Dick Grant to umpire the match and to report to him what happens.

Olympia, Wash., May 21.—Today Olympia and Vancouver high school baseball teams battle for the baseball championship of Southern Washington on the local field. The capital city players have won 22 straight games, making an almost unprecedented record in scholastic baseball.

Pal Moore May Find Going Rough With Portlander

Pal Moore, who meets Billy Mascott in the feature event of the Elks drum corps benefit smoker in the Armory Friday night, May 27, may find the going pretty rough in view of the fact that he will have only two days to wear off his train legs after his transcontinental journey.

According to a wire received Saturday from his manager, Tom Walsh, from Terre Haute, Ind., where Moore won a slashing 10 round victory over Solly Epstein, the Memphis battler will depart for Portland Sunday night. He will arrive late Wednesday night or Thursday morning, which will give him but little time to condition himself for the bout.

The card for the smoker was completed Friday afternoon, the bouts arranged being Johnny Boscovich versus Jack Edmundson, six rounds; Muff Bronson versus Leo Bell, eight rounds, and "Racehorse" Roberts versus Eddie Hughes, six rounds.

Kerns Takes Grand Prize In Field Meet

By Earl R. Goodwin

FOR the second consecutive time, Kerns school athletes won the grand championship of the annual Portland Grammar school track and field meet. The 1921 affair, staged on Multnomah field Friday afternoon, found an entry list of more than 1200 on hand, making it the largest gathering of its kind in the country, according to Robert Krohn, director of physical education of the Portland public schools, who acted as director and starter of yesterday's session.

To begin with, around 35,000 pupils were in training for the events and all but about 4000 were eliminated for the sectional tryouts. Then when the tryouts were staged the field was "limited" to about 1200 boys and girls to seek the championship honors.

Kerns boys and girls registered 17 points, while the Woodlawn girls annexed 15; Sunnyside captured third, with 14; Creston was fourth, with 13 while Highland and Sellwood tied for fifth place, each with an even dozen markers, all in the grand prize competition. Woodlawn school won the trophy for the girls by scoring 15 points, while Creston and Sunnyside tied for first boys' team honors with 13 each. The Woodlawn boys failed to score a point during the meet and the little girls' efforts brought them second honors in the grand team title. The closest race of the day came in the final number on the program, when the Creston and Kerns boys' relay teams ran as tie a race as could be recorded.

The program started promptly at 1:30 o'clock, but because of the large number of heats required to dispose of the dashes and the many contestants in the other events, it was shortly after 6:30 o'clock before Professor Krohn, with a weary, yet happy, smile, called the remaining athletes and spectators together following the final event and told them that the medals, cups and ribbons would be awarded the winners at the various schools during assemblies Monday morning.

It was a very successful affair and more than 5000 spectators were on hand to witness the performances. Motion pictures were taken by G. K. Hartung and W. H. Chatten and will be shown at the various schools.

Following is the summary:

Corbett Makes Carpentier Visit Dempsey Mauls His Partners

By James J. Corbett
Former World's Heavyweight Champion.
(Copyright, 1921, by International News Service)

MANHASSET, L. I., May 21.—(I. N. S.)—Georges Carpentier is a real athlete.

He is intelligent, too, and very scientific about everything that he does.

I can make these positive statements after visiting him at his training camp here, and I want to say, whether he wins from Jack Dempsey or not, he is a mighty likely looking chap.

He showed me through his quarters here, explained everything and seemed to be very contented. He has ideal quarters. I like them very much—much better than Dempsey's, in fact, because they are away from the big crowds.

The indoor and outdoor rings are well set up, though smaller than the one in which Georges will meet Dempsey at Jersey City. He explained that he always works in a small ring, because when he gets into a real fight it gives him a feeling that he has more room.

Some have gained the impression that Georges is nervous. I don't think so. He strikes me as perfectly natural, and he hasn't changed since his last visit, so far as I can see. Why should he be nervous? He has had many fights in his time and one more or less could make no difference to him.

BEGINS BOXING MONDAY

He told me that he weighs 175 pounds and expects to go into the ring weighing not more than 170. That weight is plenty for him, and I can say that he will be big enough to face any man. Why, when I fought Peter Jackson, years ago, I weighed only 168 pounds and he weighed 204, yet we fought 61 rounds and were at it four hours.

Carpentier planned to spend today, tomorrow and perhaps Monday resting. He will begin light boxing and increase his roadwork beginning Tuesday, according to plans. Like Dempsey, he is going to start with light work and whoop it up as the time grows shorter.

BOXING

(By Universal Service)

LONDON, May 21.—Casual wagers of 3 to 2 on Dempsey are the only recorded business done by London gamblers on the Dempsey-Carpentier fight. All are waiting for the training reports.

Numerous small American syndicates are planning to tour France and Belgium and accept all money offered on Carpentier, regardless of the odds. The operations have not yet begun, however.

Bend, May 21.—Matchmaker E. C. Brick announces a boxing card of four bouts for July 4. Sammy Gordon and Kid Taylor of Bend will go 10 rounds in the main event. Duffy Knorr of Redmond and Billy Ryan of Portland will box eight rounds. Speck Woods of Bend and "Roughhouse" Burns of Portland will put on a six-round bout. Local boys will provide the preliminary event. This will be Bend's first smoker since November.

Newark, N. J., May 21.—Erminie Spalla, heavyweight champion of Italy, making his first appearance in an American ring, knocked out Bagney of Australia in the first round of a scheduled 10-round bout here Thursday night.

New York, May 21.—(I. N. S.)—Mike Gibbons of St. Paul easily defeated Paddy Flynn in 15 rounds Friday night.

Casper, Wyo., May 21.—(I. N. S.)—California Joe Gans, who is scheduled to fight Panama Joe Gans in a preliminary to the Dempsey-Carpentier championship fight, knocked out Kid Hambone of New Mexico in the second of a scheduled 10 round bout here last night.

Pittsburg, May 21.—"Kid" Williams, former bantamweight champion, defeated Patsy Scanlon, local boy, in a 10 round bout Friday night.

Toronto, Ont., May 21.—(U. P.)—Carl Tremain won a technical knockout from Roy Moore of St. Paul last night. Moore's seconds threw the towel into the ring when the bell rang for the commencement of the eighth round. Moore claimed he had injured his side and after an examination by two physicians it was announced that he had sustained a torn ligament on his ribs and it was practically impossible for him to continue.

Idaho Wins 11-Inning Game From Whitman

Whitman College, Walla Walla, Wash., May 21.—The University of Idaho baseball team defeated Whitman, 9 to 4, Friday, by scoring five runs in the eleventh inning. Eight Whitman errors helped the visitors at critical points.

Score—				R.	H.	E.
Idaho	400	000	000	05	9	11
Whitman	012	100	000	00	4	9

Batteries — Marineau and R. Fox; Garver and Walther.

Walla Walla, Wash., May 21.—Whitman college girls won Friday's doubles match of the dual tennis tourney, 6-2, 7-5.

WHO'LL WIN?

New York, May 21.—(U. P.)—Jack Gleason, former promoter and manager:

"Dempsey ought to win from Carpentier in about four rounds. The Frenchman is a fast man and a good boxer, but I don't believe he is strong enough to keep the aggressive American away from him.

"Dempsey is the harder puncher and has a style of fighting that is hard for a boxer to cope with."

Drawings in Spring Handicap Net Play At Multnomah Made

Although no schedule was adopted for the first round in the annual spring handicap tennis tournament for the Alma D. Katz trophy at the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club, the committee in charge requests that the players get in touch with their opponents immediately and dispose of the first matches within the next day or two. Thirty-two entries were received and Chairman Walter A. Goss and his assistants made the handicaps.

Quite a number of the old timers are listed and Catlin Wolfard, last year's winner, is out for another leg on the trophy. It is a three-time affair and Wolfard's biggest rival is Goss, who has won the honor two years. One more victory and the Katz trophy is Goss'. Players in the tournament are requested to call Chairman Goss at Marshall 307 for further particulars.
