Consisting of 760 acres of and, 11 miles from railroad and only one mile from store and postoffice. 700 acres of this place is under cultivation at the present time, and on the place are $8000 worth of stock and equipment, 70,000 feet of lumber and a complets sawmill and planer. The price is $46 per acre and ten to fifteen thousand dollars will handle.

I say without fear of contradiction that here is one of the best propositions in the state to double or troble your money in the next few years. There are other conditions that would make the purchase of this farm very valuable to a party or corporation who has money enough and a little surplus to go, into this neighborhood. No better proposition for colonization anywhere in this part of the country. See Mr. Meissner, with
