FINAL REHEARSALS FOR PAGEANT HELD

tures of the pageant and after the parade of Main, march down Main street to NEW RUGS

An added feature of the pageant will trayed by the academy pupils The first opening of the school in a little gray house in 1856 will be shown. A larger building was then erected and the old building formed a part of the old St. James mission. A second mini-1870, in which were enrolled about 100 pupils. A third building will show Providence academy as it is today, with an enrollment of 417 pupils.

being planned by pupils from the high school. The students themselves will arrange this feature of the parade and it is said stunts are being planned in tribute to the work being done in the interest of the selection of Hayden island as the site for the fair by Clement Scott, W. S. Short and Mayor John P.

Schoolhouse Fire Is Extinguished by Pupils' Assistance

Ridgefield, Wash., May 25 .- Fire broke out on the belfry of the Pioneer schoolday afternoon, but was put out before much damage resulted. Sparks from the chimney caused the fire, it is said. The prompt and efficient work of the school children and farmers close by saved the building.

Ridgefield high school will be held Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the high clude an invocation by the Rev. George McClure of the Community church here, and the annual address by Ben Scovell of Portland. Henry Tetz will be salutatorian and Winnifred Eatch. valedictorian, Dr. Ralph S. Stryker, chairman of the Ridgefield school board, will present diplomas. The class com prises Audrey Stevenson, Winnifred Eatch, Dorothy Weber, Clifford Shobert, George Edmonds, Harold Brown, Alden Potter, Arthur Buker and Henry Tetz.

Wells Armstrong post, American Legion of Ridgefield, will have charge of the Memorial day observance. A speaker will be secured from Vancouver. ----

New Oil Tanker Is Delivered to Owner

Vancouver, Wash., May 15 .- The Alberiolite, 12,000-ton oil tanker constructed by the G. M. Standifer corporation for the Imperial Oil company of Toronto, was delivered to her owners today. The yessel was taken on a successful trial vessel was taken on a successful trial trip Saturday.
