WASHINGTON, May 26.—(I. N. S.)—The deficiency appropriation bill, carrying approximately $100,000,000 for government deficiency for the present fiscal year, ending June 30, passed the house this afternoon. The bill carries an appropriation of $200,000 needed in the prohibition enforcement work.

LEGISLATIVE DODD'T INTEND BONUS VOTE
Records at Salem Show That Section Providing Soldiers' Bill Go to People Was Stricken Out; Included Through Mistake.

Salem, May 26.—The state legislature never intended that house bill 203—the bonus bill—should be referred to a vote of the people. The records of the senate and house clearly so indicate and section 26 is only in the act as published in the 1921 session laws through a slip of the house enrolling committee.

In Again, Out Again, Cellar Full Again
Efficacy of four-inch or any other inch centrifugal pumps to keep a basement clear of water during the present high conditions in the Willamette are nil, according to the head of the house of Freeman & Son, implement men on the east side.

Water backed into the basement of Freeman & Son. Freeman would keep it clear by the use of a four inch pump, which, according to laws made and provided, should reduce the water in his basement to a foot or less an hour.

LABORERS AS VIRTUAL SLAVES TO M. D. OLDS
Storekeepers Fined for Running Employment Office Without Permit; Prices Charged Mexicans Made Them Slaves, Claim

Illiterate Mexican laborers on the Southern Pacific railway system in Oregon are kept in virtual slavery by an employment system which almost forces them to buy their supplies from the L. H. Manning company of Portland, Deputy District Attorney Stockman charged in District Judge Delch's court this morning.

Smoot Sees Higher Not Lower Taxes
Washington, May 26.—(I. N. S.)—The American people face a strong possibility of higher instead of lower taxes, Senator Reed Smoot, (R. Utah), indicated today when the senate finance committee, of which he is a member, resumed its investigation of the country's tax situation.

TRUNK LID OF MAHONEY BARE MYSTERY
Articles Indicating to Police That Wealthy Widow, 72, May Be at Bottom of Seattle Lake, Are Found Floating on Surface

Seattle, Wash., May 26.—Strengthening the theory of the police that a trunk on the bottom of Lake Union may contain the body of Mrs. Kate Mahoney, wealthy 72-year-old bride, who mysteriously disappeared, followed by the arrest of her husband, 37, on a forgery charge, the lid of a trunk and a bunch of hair were found yesterday floating on the water, by Mrs. C. A. Green, who resides in a houseboat harbor.

STEALTHY BACKWATER IN WILLAMETTE RIVER CONTINUES TO CREEP TOWARD THE LEVEL OF FRONT STREET TODAY, SO IMPERCEPTIBLY, IN FACT, THAT FEW CITIZENS REALIZED THAT THE CREST OF FLOOD NOW STANDS ONLY TWO AND ONE HALF FEET BELOW THE STREET SURFACE.

Cooler weather in the Columbia watershed of British Columbia is believed to have checked the continued rise of the river, at least temporarily, weather bureau advised indicated.

The crest climbed 3 of a foot higher with the result that a height of 22 feet was attained at 8 o'clock this morning. The weather bureau predicted continued climb of 3 of a foot a day until Sunday, when the river will stand at 23.8 feet.

STATE HIGHWAY BIDS ARE OPENED
The state highway commission met today for a two-days' session which may extend over Saturday. The program includes opening of bids for the improvement of about 100 miles of road in various parts of the state and a large number of bridges and viaducts.

Proposals will also be received for an issue of bonds to the amount of $1,000,000. These bonds are to be short term bonds authorized by a recent act of the legislature, the interest on which shall not exceed 8 per cent.

SECTION STRICKEN OUT
This section, the legislative records show, was included with other amendments to the house bill in the report of the senate committee on military affairs, which report was adopted February 16. Later on this same day, according to the records, Senator Joseph, chairman of the military affairs committee, asked unanimous consent to strike out section 26, which request was granted.

Section 26 was duly stricken out so far as the senate is concerned is further shown by a perusal of the house journal in which is found the senate amendments minus section 26 sent over to the house for concurrence.

ALBERS' REHEARING IS STILL UNCERTAIN
WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL.—The filing Wednesday with the supreme court by Senator McNary of a petition for a rehearing in the case of Henry Albers, Portland miller convicted of violation of the espionage act, by no means indicates that the Oregon Bar association is going to have easy sailing in its efforts to reopen the case.

PORTLAND CONTINUES DRIVE TO GET NINTH CORPS AREA RESERVES
Washington, May 26.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL.)—Secretary of War Weeks writes Senator McNary that plans for organization of the Ninth corps area reserves will be taken up after receipt of recommendations from the commanding general, due June 1. Responding to suggestion of Major Lyman Griswold, president of the Officers' Reserve Corps association, and the Oregon National Headquarters be placed at Portland, Secretary Weeks says Griswold should communicate with the commanding general, as his location will be determined by the war department upon that officer's recommendation. The location and designation of reserve units, however, will be determined by local boards appointed by corps commanders.
