took are coming. Brollers of suitable size in good demand at the prices mentioned in regular report.

Those desiring special information regarding market should write the Market Editor, Dregon Journal, inclosing stamp for reply.

EGG TRADE SHOWS A GOOD TONE Market for eggs showed a good tone for the elosing day of the week, with prices held prac-tically unchanged. Bidding for supplies was keener, but there was a disposition to discrimi-nate against hot weather stock.

BUTTER SITUATION IS STEADY Closing prices for butter this week were steady for the local market, both prints and cubes being unchanged. However, there was less desire on the part of outsiders to purchase.

CHEESE TRADE NOW STATIONARY While there continues a differential of 5c a ound in the price of cheese here between vari-us districts, with Tillamook still the leader, sere is a noticeable increase in steadiness in the trade. Former cutters of prices have erithere is a the trade.

dently reached their low point.

POTATO MOVEMENT IS ENDING With only one shipper regularly operating in carload business at this time, the season for old stock is ending fast. Furchases of round stock are shown from 75 to 85c, with best Burbanks at $1 per cental common rate stations.

BETTER DEMAND HERE FOR HOGS A better demand w noticeable for country, killed hogs along the street, with limited offer-ings. This demand along the street is shown in face of the badly depressed tone in the livestock trade. Vanks standar too trade. Veals steadier, too.

BRIEF NOTES OF PRODUCE TRADE Willamette valley strawberries $5.00 @ 5.50. Ciarks, $6.00 @ 6.50 crate. California strawberries, $3.85 @ 4.00 for 20s. Local asparagus at $1.75 dozen bunches; Co-lumbia river, $2.

Lemona are showing a further advance of 50c a case here. Fresh salmon coming mostly from Puget Sound: price higher.

Rains Benefit Crops

North Powder. Or., May 28.--Rains for the pust week were very beneficial to this section of the country and the feed on the range was never batter and the crops are all just could be asked for and everybody expects a bumper yield in both grain and hay.

New York Poultry Market New York, May 28.-(L N. S.)-Live poul-try: Market, weak. Fowls, 26 @ 30c; turkeys, 25c; roosters, 14c; ducks, 14 @ 29c.

MARKET

were unchanged. Poor California stock was available at lower prices but after fie the "rots" were eliminated the cost of 1714 higher priced locals.

Home grown cabbage is being offered in small supply in the retail shops at 10c pool at a fair price.

Further depression was shown in the market for poulitry during the closing day of the week and prices were correspondingly lower. The big buyers were ont with a lower bid for all poultry and most of them already have sufficient stock on hand to fill their immediate requirements. Thereiptes of chickens continue to gain and cleanurs are not shown at night. Local head lettuce quality is far superior to the California stock and retails been going of the season in very heavy supply, the general depression in the market is carrying all poultry prices down ward. Small springs—those weighing less than 1% pounds, are still depressed, but fewer of this stock are coming. Broilers of suitable size are no more favorable to consumers.
