

SENATE IS MADE TO DO OBEISANCE TO OVER HOUSE

By Robert J. Bender
United Press Staff Correspondent
Washington, May 28.—Time honored prerogatives, vesting in the United States senate the practice of leadership in legislation pertaining to foreign affairs, are undergoing rude handling by the house of congress.

PROPOSAL BROADENED

The second development is formed in a decision by house leaders to correct and broaden the senate's proposal for a disarmament conference.

SENATE MUST ACCEPT

The house committee will meet to report on its resolution next Thursday, and prompt action is promised.

CONFERENCE FAR AWAY

It will require some time for the house to formulate the general disarmament resolution it has in mind.

direction. That day, however, is not yet here. World conditions are not favorable for it now. For example, may well be realized what difficulty there would be in attempting to persuade France to reduce her present armaments to those of 1914.
