ONDAY is Memorial day. Thou-VI sands of comrades of the American Legion still sleep on foreign soil, in com-pliance with the desire of relatives that they rest forever on the battlefields can Legion, through its posts, will perform this holy service.

Committees have been formed in France and Great Britain, composed largely of legion men. Posts in England, France, Belgium and Germany, cooperating with these committees, will see that every overseas grave of an American soldier is as fittingly decorated the next regular luncheon Thursday of the homeland. In all cities in Oregon, where there are legion posts, proper and fitting ceremonies will be held. Memorial day programs, outline of parades, dedication of cemeteries, speakers, decoration of graves, programs have been pouring into the state office from many of the 101 posts of the legion in Oregon. The day has by custom been co crated to the country's heroic dead. It rades in arms and who shared with the well remembered dead the experiences, the hardships, the perils and the glory of war; it is celebrated by the people of he country generally, who take it as an annual occasion to renew their loyalty to their country, and to draw fresh inspiration for the task of peace from the nemory of the sacrifices which were nade so freely in times of war.

"THOSE WHOM WE MOURN" More than 127,000 American soldiers sailors and marines gave up their lives during the war, or after it, as the result of wounds suffered or disease contracted in the service. Total battle deaths in the American Expeditionary Forces (killed in action and died of wounds), were 50,-329, including casualties in the Siberian force. Deaths from disease, including the A. E. F. and men in the home canonments, were 58,837.

Discussion of serious questions by Tames Stephens and A. L. Wishard, representing the local labor council, and J. H. Carnahan, commander of the Klamath Falls post, American Legion, interspersed with songs and stunts, contributed to an instructive and enjoyable evening under the auspices of the American Legion post in Klamath Falls. Lighter features of the evening were boxing, wrestling and musical selections.

At a recent meeting of the Lane county post No. 3 of Eugene the post held a combined meeting and banquet at which a membership drive was put around the activities of the third annual convention of the legion and the benefit of the delegates and visitors. someone to touch the match to the Fourth of July celebration which that city is planning for this year, accord-
