

VAUDEVILLE IS TO PROVIDE AID FOR MAIMED VETERANS

Of the 1400 Portland men who were disabled in the World war, many are needy and it is to provide a fund to meet this emergency that a professional vaudeville entertainment will be given Tuesday evening, June 14, at The Auditorium, followed by dancing in the wings, the affair being arranged by the Disabled Veterans Auxiliary.

Trizie Frigana, the vaudeville star, will be in town that week and Mayor Baker has written asking that she contribute her act to the program. Another act will also be given from the Orpheum; an act from the Hippodrome and one from Fantages have also been promised. Ben Scovell will give dramatic impersonations and the Mignon chorus of 35 voices with Mrs. Ella Hoberg, director, will sing.

A general admission fee of 50 cents will be charged for both the entertainment and the dance. Every cent thus contributed will go to assist the disabled men.

Of the 1400 Portland men who are eligible to vocational training, which means that they were incapacitated insofar as pursuing their pre-war occupations is concerned, 800 are in training, a large number at the Benson Polytechnic, others in business colleges and similar places. Mrs. E. Sheldon, secretary of the Benson school, is responsible for the statement that only a small percentage of the men who are in training there are able to do a full day's work, and that many of them can put in only an hour or two a day.

There are 39 men in Pierce's sanitarium and 150 in St. Vincent's hospital. Many men are going out of the state for hospital care, on account of the crowded condition in the local hospitals. The number of disabled men is increasing rather than decreasing, as many men who were gassed, but suffered no immediate serious effects, are now developing tuberculosis and other diseases.

There are 250 men in good standing in the Disabled Veterans' association, of which H. O. Haines is president; of these, 200 are drawing $100 a month from the vocational board; however, at the conclusion of their training, their compensation will go back to the old figures or less, that is, $8, $12 or $15 a month.

Photographers Hold Banquet to Discuss Convention in B. C.

Members of the executive board of the Photographers' Association of the Northwest held a banquet Monday evening at the Hazelwood, followed by a business meeting at the Markham studio, to formulate plans for creating interest among photographers in the convention to be held at Vancouver, B. C., August 2, 3, 4 and 5. Out-of-town members of the executive board in attendance included the president, Thomas Gannon of Tacoma; vice president, W. M. Ball of Corvallis, and A. T. Bridgman of Vancouver, B. C. D. Perry Evans introduced these men, who gave informal talks.

The next meeting of the board of directors will be held next Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the studio of C. Elmore Grove, Morgan building.

Examinations Being Held to Fill 3000 Vacancies in Army

Preliminary examinations of men desirous of receiving appointments with the rank of lieutenant in the regular army are being held throughout the country. Colonel G. W. S. Stevens, Victory medal officer with headquarters at the American Legion club rooms, 311 Pine street, Portland, has announced that Oregon men can obtain information and blanks from his office or from Vancouver barracks, Fort George Wright, Spokane, or from regular army officers in charge of reserve officers' training corps at the University of Oregon and at the Oregon Agricultural college. Applicants must apply to the army post or to the army officers, nearest their homes. Colonel Stevens has announced. Final examinations will be held August 12. Men between the ages of 21 and 30 years are eligible. More than 3000 vacancies exist.

A table for invalids has been invented which can be clamped to the head of a bed and swung into position for use or out of the way without taking up any floor space.
