MARKET SCENE OF NEAR ROT OVER BERRIES

Buyers Protest as Hubbard Growers Are Prevented Selling at 95 Cents a Crate Because of Failure to Meet Conditions.

Market Master Eastman will not soon forget the "strawberry riot" which clogged traffic at Fifth and Yamhill streets with a throng of excited men and women shoppers between 6:30 and 9 a. m. today.

Fred Wright, sales manager of the Hubbard Berry Growers' association, stated that he had arranged for stalls on the south side of Yamhill street, between Fourth and Fifth, for the sale of the berries.

Others sell at $1.85. Wright stated that the berries were grown on his own place and that he had a right to a stall on the market.

Eastman stated that a special statement had been prepared for Wright to sign, showing that the strawberries offered for sale were being sold by individual growers and not by an association.

Chamberlain Thankful to His Friends

Washington, June 9.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL).—Following his unanimous confirmation as a member of the shipping board by the senate, former Senator George E. Chamberlain of Oregon today expressed his appreciation of the confidence of the president, the support given by Oregon people and the gracious act of Senator James of Washington in moving his confirmation in advance of the other appointees.

"I appreciate the appointment very much indeed, coming from the president unsolicited by me, but with the strong indorsement of the people of Oregon, who have known me so many years," said Chamberlain.

"I have very fixed opinions about the shipping board and its purposes as expressed in the act creating it, but in view of the fact that other members of the board have not been confirmed, it is hardly proper for me to undertake to outline policies or to state my views. It will be my purpose as a member of the board, which to me seems one of the most important ever established by congress, to make its work successful both as applying to our national and international commerce."

"The questions involved are not local, but national, in fact, they affect the commerce of the world, for good or ill, and I am sure the American people will realize the difficulties which confront the new board and the purpose of the board to adjust them properly. I will do my best."

All Nominations Confirmed. Washington, June 9.—(I. N. S.).—The senate this afternoon confirmed the nomination of A. D. Lasker of Chicago, to be chairman of the United States Shipping board. Other members of the board, nominated yesterday by President Harding, also were confirmed.

Chamber Sends Congratulations. Congratulations were voiced George E. Chamberlain today by H. B. Van Duser, president of the Chamber of Commerce, in recognition of his appointment as a member of the United States shipping board. Full support to the new board is pledged by the chamber.

McArthur to Press Fair Invitations to All Foreign Nations. Washington, June 9.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL).—Senator McNary's resolution authorizing invitations to participate in Portland's 1925 Fair, after its passage by the senate, has reached the foreign affairs committee in the house.

McArthur says he anticipates considerable difficulty in securing action, as he expects to meet with those who will say that this practically commits the government to an ultimate appropriation for exposition purposes. This argument, he feels, will create opposition through the economy battalions in the house.

ROSE PARADE CHARMING WITH LOVELINESS

Queen Dorothy, Monarch of All Rosaria, and Her Carnival of Flowers, Bring Joy to Multitudes With Climax of Beauty.

Thousands on thousands of Portland citizens and their guests were entranced this afternoon when the Parade of a Million Roses, high event in the fourteenth annual Rose Festival, wound its lengthy way through the city's streets.

The parade, made up of hundreds of gorgeously trimmed floats and automobiles laden with every sort of flower, was acclaimed one of the most brilliant held in the years of Portland's premier in the floral realm.

The day began with a cool morning, sky being partially overcast at times, and developed into an ideal occasion for the parade. Morning trains had brought in thousands expressly to behold this crowning spectacle. The participants gathered early at the starting point and the side streets adjacent on which assembly was scheduled and it was not long after the starting hour of 2 o'clock that the great floral event was under way.

The parade was a botanical history of Oregon, but in addition, it was a glimpse of human life in all its phases as it is lived in Portland and the Northwest. In the midst of this floral panoply rode Her Majesty, Queen Dorothy, monarch of Rosaria for the three days of the festival, and her courtiers, who rode on a huge float contributed by the Chamber of Commerce.

The parade was reviewed by the officials of the festival board, the guests.

WILD MAN SLAYS TWO POLICEMEN. Toledo, Ohio, June 9.—(U. P.).—Machine guns, rifles, pistols and sulphur candles were used by the police here today in getting James E. Kelly, a waiter, who had killed Patrolman Harry Dowell and Harold Motimer, officers of the house, barricaded in the attic of the house in which he lived, held off almost the entire police department for hours.

After the machine guns had been brought into play, the house at 611 Walnut street, near the business district, was rushed and Kelly with his gun loaded was found lying across a cot dead. He had been hit twice.

Kelly flourished a revolver and announced that no policeman would take him alive, when Mrs. Nellie Kay tried to collect $75 which the man owed her for room rent.

Coroner Hensler, after a post mortem examination of Kelly's body this afternoon, said Kelly's death was from suicide. The fatal bullet was fired from a .38 calibre revolver into Kelly's breast. Powder burns were on his shirt. Other wounds about his body were inflicted by machine gun fire. One chamber in Kelly's revolver was empty.

SIMS REFUSES TO 'RETRACT'

Rear Admiral Stands Pat on Fling He Took in Speech Denouncing Sinn Fein Sympathizers.

London, June 9.—(I. N. S.).—Rear Admiral William S. Sims, U. S. N., who has been asked by Secretary of the Navy Denby at Washington to report by cable immediately whether he was correctly quoted in his sensational "jackass speech" Tuesday when he made caustic remarks about the Sinn Fein and Irish-Americans, "will neither retract nor repudiate" according to an interview with the American naval officer, printed in the Westminster Gazette today.

"I shall stand by every word I said," declared Admiral Sims in the interview. "I shall not repudiate a word of it. I see nothing un-American in what I said, even if Senator Medill McCormick does. Up to the present time I have not received the cablegram which Secretary of the Navy Denby was reported to have sent to me. If I receive it, I shall reply to it in the above words."

According to Washington advices, the cablegram from Secretary Denby demanding an explanation of the speech was sent Wednesday.

This was the second time that Admiral Sims had been questioned regarding the speech.

Violent Drop Is Taken by Stocks. New York, June 9.—(I. N. S.).—A violent drop of over 6 cents in sterling, the suspension of dividend payments on preferred issue of Inter-Agricultural, the unfavorable steel trade situation; the increase in the export tax on oil by the Mexican government and the catching of stop-loss orders were factors in another sharp break in the stock market today.

The list fell from 1 to over 7 points and many stocks sold at new low levels for the year.

U. S. Steel, Baldwin, Crucible, Republic, Pan-American Petroleum, American International, U. S. Rubber, International Agricultural preferred and American Agricultural dropped from 1 to 7 points to new lows for the year. Mexican Petroleum sold off 7 1/2 points to 123 1/2.

Oregon Man Brings West First Honors

Washington, June 9.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL).—Ralph E. Williams' election as vice chairman of the Republican national committee brings high honors of the Mississippi river for the first time since the party was organized in 1856.

Williams is especially gratified that he received the unanimous indorsement of the women's executive committee of the national committee, which was forcibly presented by Mrs. W. H. Upham of Illinois.

"I deem the honor not as a tribute to myself," said Williams today, "but as recognition of the far West, a notable event in the party's history."

Williams is the oldest member of the committee in point of service, having been a member since 1908.

He was nominated for vice chairman by Congressman Pat Sullivan of Wyoming, seconded by Kelly of Washington, Rummel of Arkansas, Highland of West Virginia, Keeling of Indiana, Kinley of Vermont and Mrs. Upham. His election was unanimous.

Williams will leave for home Friday, arriving in Portland Tuesday.

Wilson's Postmaster Tests Are Followed. Washington, June 9.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL).—New regulations approved by President Harding for civil service tests for postmaster, made public today, show no change at all from Wilson rules for examinations covering first and second class offices. The only change for the third class is a reduction of points allowed for letter writing, so that the subject will score 10 instead of 25, and business experience will score 50 instead of 35.

U. S. ACCUSES LUMBERMEN

Trade Commission Says Dealers Maintain Monopoly and Arbitrarily Fix Prices.

Washington, June 9.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL).—The federal trade commission officially charged today that the lumber resources of the nation are held in the grip of monopoly by the interlocking of powerful interests which have fixed and maintained arbitrarily the excessively high prices of the last few years.

The charge was contained in a voluminous report transmitted to congress on the activities of the Lumber & Log Producers' Association of the Northwest in what is known as the Douglas fir region.

MONOPOLY CHARGED. The report on the lumber situation in the Northwest is similar to that made by the commission on the Southern Pine association last February, on which the department of justice filed a bill in equity to enjoin "concerted control of production and prices."

The Western organizations, which maintain a monopoly on production and prices, are named by the commission as being the West Coast Lumbermen's association and the Western Pine Manufacturers' association.

Through "understandings" and "concerted action" the members of these organizations fix the prices which the nation must pay for its lumber, according to the report of the commissioner, which is based on an exhaustive investigation.

LETTERS AS EVIDENCE. The commission backed up its charge with a large number of letters and telegrams which were secured from the files of members of the two organizations. These messages spoke frankly of meetings and conferences at which decisions were reached to raise prices and maintain them.

The grave importance of these conditions to the nation at large was emphasized by the commission in pointing out that more than half of the total national lumber supply is located in the five states of Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana and California, and that more than 60 per cent of this amount is in the first two states. Eighty-nine per cent of the timber of

Farmers to Fight Grain Speculators

Chicago, June 9.—(I. N. S.).—Plans for floating the $100,000,000 stock issue of the new United States Graingrowers, Inc., a farmers' cooperative organization, were made here today by the executive board.

The board denied that Bernard Baruch of New York had been made an officer in the organization.

The board, through President C. H. Gustafson, declared it would wage war against heavy grain speculators, naming George A. Roberts, the Omaha "corn king," as an example. Roberts, it was said, cleaned up $500,000 in May wheat last week and profited $3,000,000 during the war in grain speculation.

WOMAN JUROR BILL IN DOUBT. The earlier majority recorded in favor of the women jurors bill is reduced by the receipt of more complete returns from upstate counties to the slender figure of 315 votes.

Although Multnomah county returned a majority of 1869 in favor of the bill the accumulated vote from the other counties has materially reduced this lead.

BONUS-BIG WINNER. The majority in favor of the bonus on the face of returns to date is $5,450. The 60-day legislative session now has a negative majority of 24,857 and the marriage examination bill has an adverse majority of 7640. The emergency clause veto has an affirmative majority of 15,836. Approximately 35 per cent of the

CROWDS BREAK ALL RECORDS

Traffic Officials Surprised at Number of People Coming to See Rose Festival.

Portland is entertaining a record crowd of visitors today. Never in the history of Rose Festivals have more out-of-town people gathered to the festival call, except during the extraordinary occasion last year when the city's normal guests were increased by the events of Shrine week.

CROWDS POURING IN. The size of the crowd which poured into the city Wednesday afternoon and evening and continued to flow at a rapidly increasing rate this morning has been a surprise not alone to the individual Portlanders, who may have had a pessimistic outlook this year, but to the rail traffic official, who usually has the best knowledge of the movement of a crowd.

At Portland the river reached a height of 23.8 feet. This was the same height reached by the river in the floods of 1916 and 1917. The weather bureau predicts that the flood will reach a height of 24.3 feet Saturday, and this will be 1/4 of a foot higher than any flood since that of 1894.

At Wenatchee this morning the river rose 6 of a foot and at Lewiston the Snake river rose 5 of a foot. Already a stage of 41.4 feet has been recorded at The Dalles, and the steady rises up stream will send the gauge up rapidly Friday.
