High pressure prevails on the Oregon and Washington coast, in the central Plains states, and south of the Ohio river. Elsewhere the pressure is low, the principal depression being apparently central in northern Alberta. Precipitation has occurred on the north Pacific slope, and at a few stations in Oklahoma, Missouri, Illinois, Iowa and New York. Warmer weather prevails over most of the Rocky mountain and Plateau states. At Phoenix, Ariz., the maximum temperature resterday was 108 degrees and the minimum temperature last night was 86 degrees. Somewhat cooler weather prevails in the northern Plains states, the upper Lake region and New England.

Relative humidity at Portland—Noon yesterday, 66 per cent; 5 p. m. yesterday, 75 per cent; 5 a. m. today, 86 per cent.

Precipitation since January 1.—Total, 22.88 inches; normal, 23.48 inches; deficiency, 0.60 inch.

Oswego Lake is overlooking no opportunity to boost its advantages as a site for the 1925 fair, and was creditably represented in the floral parade by an "Oswego 1925" float. The float typified the lake and the woodland surrounding it and was manned by a sextet of lusty school boys who with their "yell" boosted for their home town.

The L. C. Newland's home was the scene of a happy gathering Tuesday afternoon, when the Campfire Girls entertained in honor of all the little tads who helped make their play, "The Princess of Poppyland," a success. Games, dancing and music were enjoyed, after which refreshments were served. Oswegoans turned out in force election day to do their "bit" in putting the bonus bill "over the top" and are much elated over the success of the measure Oswego was represented by nearly 100 men in the World war and felt that the bonus was a small mark of appreciation for the sacrifices the Oswego lads made along with millions of other heroes. In the confusion following the drowning of Ernest Paulsen June 4, the fact that Ernest Schaubel, an Oswego boy, recovered the body, as at first reported was subsequently misstated and another was credited with the rescue. The truth is that young Schaubel hurried a considerable distance to the scene of the accident and locating the body in 30 in 20 minutes from the time Paulsen sank.

The Heating Problem

OU'VE read what some well-known people say about the cost of heating with gas.

Mr. J. L. Karnopp, well-known real estate dealer has a different story to tell and in all fairness we will publish it Monday.
