

Civic Pageant Featured by Floral Parade Is Acclaimed by Thousands of Delighted Folk

ABOVE, left to right—Portland Hunt club, colorful feature of floral parade; Governor and Mrs. Ben W. Olcott, interested festival visitors; section of floral parade proceeding south on Sixth before passing the reviewing stand. Center left to right—Festival center in south park blocks showing stand equipped with telephonic amplifier; General U. G. McAlexander, "the Rock of the Marne," speaker at festival center; Washington high school's prize winning entry in floral parade. Below, left to right—Men and ships of the Pacific fleet add to festival's pleasure; cruiser Frederick and six destroyers anchored in Portland harbor; jacksies from the visiting ships on parade.

