Orange Blossom
Bridal Wreath

and Other Engraved Designs in

Wedding
Rings

Generations of Portland people have worn wedding rings from Meier & Frank's—most of them the time-honored plain gold bands which were universally accepted as the symbol of marriage. But in the past few years, the plain band has given way to Orange Blossom and Bridal Wreath designs.

We have these new rings in green, yellow and white gold and in hard platinum of lasting quality. Exquisite conceptions—some set with diamonds.
Plain Tiffany rings in yellow and green gold.

All at the new lower prices.

We Modernize
Rings

In our own workrooms—adroitly change the older style wedding ring into the newer design of today without changing the original inscription or material. We remodel, engrave and put platinum overlay on old gold bands—all at most moderate prices.
—Meier & Frank's: Main Floor.

"Bluebird"

Special Demonstration of

"Boyshform" Brassieres

In order to better acquaint our patrons with the advantages of the Boyshform brassieres we have arranged with the factory to hold a special two weeks' demonstration of

The Boyshform Brassiere is a seamless, one-piece garment, no bones, no stays, no steels—nothing to press into the flesh. It is particularly favored by both stout and thin women because it gives that boylike, youthful flat appearance and yet holds the bust intact at all times.

Boyshform brassieres are made of finest materials with edging of lace and silk ribbon straps. Sizes range from 32 to 46. Prices begin at 95c.

Come in tomorrow and see the special Boyshform demonstration.
