Oregon Champion Makes Remarkable Qualifying Score in Northwest Golf Championship.

By George Bertz

TURNING in probably the most remarkable score ever registered in a championship tournament in the United States and shattering all coast records, Rudolph Wilhelm, Oregon state champion, was medalist in the 1921 Pacific Northwest Golf association tournament, which began Monday over the Waverley Country club course.

Wilhelm's medal score for the 36 holes was 141, 4 strokes better than the card turned in by Dr. O. F. Willing. The Oregon champion turned in a 73 card for the morning round, 1 stroke behind H. Chandler Egan and Dr. O. F. Willing. In the afternoon play he had a 68, giving him a total of 161.

Considering the fairly heavy putting greens and the fact that he was in trouble on several holes, his score is very remarkable. He holed out a difficult putt for his sixty-eighth shot on the home green in the afternoon round, even making an effort to sink a long one for a 67.

WILLING RUNNERUP

Dr. O. F. Willing was runnerup in the qualifying round with 72-73—145, and Bob Stein of Seattle followed with 146. Stein finished with the second best card for 18 holes in the afternoon round.

Egan finished fourth with 147 and Clark Speirs of Seattle followed fith 148.

Following are cards of the four best qualifiers:

There was a range of 28 strokes between the low and high qualifiers, 169 being the highest qualifying score.

TWELVE CLUBS COMPETE

Twelve clubs will be represented in the elimination rounds which will begin Tuesday morning. The Waverley Country club leads in the number of players who qualified, 10 of its members being within the charmed circle.

The Portland Golf club and the Seattle club each had four representatives qualify. Three of Vancouver's four entrants, Robert Gelletly, H. T. Gardner and R. Bone, qualified. Victoria qualified two as did San Francisco and Jefferson park of Seattle.

In the draw the players who are figured to be in the running in the championship are pretty evenly divided in the upper and lower brackets. Wilhelm, Smith, Schmidt, Speirs, Von Elm and Stein are in the upper bracket, while Egan, Griswold, Watson, Macan, Neville and Willing are in the lower half of the draw.

TOPNOTCHERS TO MEET

The draw will bring some of the topnotchers together real early in the tourney, Dr. Willing being billed to battle Jack Neville in the first round Tuesday. Macan will play Pidgeon of San Francisco.

Barring unforeseen incidents, Rudy Wilhelm and Russell Smith will meet in the second round Wednesday.

Waverley was more or less unlucky in the draw, six of its players being drawn against each other in the lower bracket. Egan meets Bragg; Standifer plays straight and Watson will tee-off with Richard Wilder. Only three Waverley players are in the upper bracket, Smith, McCool and Tuttle.

109 PLAYERS START

One hundred and nine players started in the championship and all but two finished. Play started early Monday morning and it was a few minutes after 7 o'clock p. m. when the last putt was holed out.

WAVERLEY AND PORTLAND CLUBS WILL TEE OFF TODAY

Four-man teams representing the Waverley Country club and the Portland Golf club will tee-off Tuesday afternoon in the finals of the C. H. Davis Jr. team competition, emblematic of the Northwest championship.

This will be the second meeting between the representatives of the two clubs, Portland having defeated Waverley, which won the trophy the first season it was offered in competition, in the 1917 tourney.

Waverley players wond the qualifying round with an aggregate score of 613, four strokes better than the score turned in by the Portlanders.

The Vancouver Golf and Country club team finished third, with a total of 658 and Everett finished fourth with 667. The Aberdeen club dropped out of the match.

In the finals H. Chandler Egan and Dr. Willing of Waverley will be pitted against Rudolph Wilhelm and Ercel Kay, while Russell Smith and Guy Standifer of Waverley will tee-off against Clare Griswold and Doug Nicol.

The Waverley club is the present holder of the cup, having won the competition at Vancouver last year in a sensational match with the Jefferson Park team.

GOOD SCORES REGISTERED IN P. N. G. A. HANDICAP TOURNEY

William A. Pettygrove was medalist in the Pacific Northwest Golf association handicap event, which opened on the Portland Golf club course Monday with a net score of 142 for 36 holes. J. A. Moran and L. R. Hussa of the Portland club tied for second honors with net scores of 145.

There was a range of 13 strokes between the scores registered by the players who qualified for the regular handicap flight.

One hundred and ten players participated in the event. Play in the elimination rounds started this morning over 18 holes. The second elimination round will be played Wednesday, when all competition will be shifted to the Waverley Country club course.

New Program Is Outlined For Dempsey

By Sid Mercer
(Written for the International News Service)

ATLANTIC CITY, June 21.—(I. N. S.) Jack Dempsey has inaugurated a new system with his sparring partners. He has two sets of them, a light set and a heavy set. And he works them on alternate days.

Jack Renault, Larry Williams, Battling Ghee and Eddie O'Hare constitute the hefty sparring corps at present, with Joe Benjamin, Babe Herman and Patsy Cline playing the juvenile roles.

Today Dempsey was scheduled to work with his light set of sparring mates, and the afternoon's entertainment at Airport promises to be fast and free from brutality, for Jack doesnt's maul his little partners the way he does the bigger fellows.

Monday's workout gave Dempsey a good start on his week of hard training, which this week is scheduled to be. He boxed with O'Hare, Ghee, Williams and Renault in the order named, going two rounds with each of them. This is the most boxing the champion has done in one day in public since he started training.

Manhasset, N. Y., June 21.—(U. P.)—Georges Carpentier today showed no signs of cracking under the strain.

Sensitive to his finger tips, the Frenchman appeared in high spirits when he began his real week's training today. The approaching battle for the heavyweight crown might be a tea party, for all Georges appears to be worrying.

Montavilla Team Wins 2 on Sunday

Montavilla's baseball aggregation added to its rapidly growing string of victories when it easily captured two games Sunday. The Cancos went down to defeat, 10 to 0, Johnny Moore, Montavilla twirler, allowing only two hits and striking out 10. The Council Crest nine was beaten, 8 to 2. "Brick" Johnson, pitching for Montavilla, struck out 11. The over-the-hill team lost only one game this year—the first played—while Sunday's two give it a record of five straight victories. The team is looking around for more worlds to conquer.

Duffy Lewis And Parks to Join Macks?

DUFFY LEWIS, former Coast league star with Oakland, who has been unconditionally released by the Washington Americans, may join the Portland baseball club within the next fortnight.

The McCredies have been dickering with Lewis for several days in regard to terms and according to reports from the East Lewis is en route to the coast to discuss the matter with the Portland owners.

PARKS DUE SOON

Lewis' playing ability should strengthen and steady the Beaver outfield somewhat and at the same time give the Beavers a utility outfielder.

Vernon Parks, former University of Michigan star pitcher who hurled for the Beavers under the name of Harold Brooks last season, is expected to join Portland sometime this week. Brooks ought to strengthen the tottering staff of the Mackmen considerably.

VETS RELEASED

Working on the theory that the young twirlers signed can do just as well as the old veterans, who have been of little value to the club, Manager McCredie Monday released Pitchers Rudy Kallio and Harold Polson to the Salt Lake club via the waiver route.

Kallio and Polson have not been able to get going with the Beavers. These two releases are the fourth handed out by the McCredies in three days, Willis Butler, utility infielder, and "Spec" Harkness, pitcher, being released Saturday.

The McCredies are endeavoring to line up some other pitching talent.

MINOR BASEBALL

THE North Portland juniors suffered their first setback of the 1921 season last Sunday when the North Park tossers won out, 7 to 5. It was the second meeting of the two squads and each now has won and the deciding engagement will be staged within the next few weeks. Four of "Chuck" Walker's regulars failed to put in an appearance. Eddie Joseph starred for the winners.

Donald, Or., June 21.—Captain Rich of the Donald baseball team has formally challenged the Portland Beavers. After witnessing his Colts play against Butteville Sunday, Rich feels that McCredie's aggregation has nothing on his boys. Donald defeated Butteville, 12 to 11, after 15 innings of the most exciting game ever seen in the valley. Leon Rice and Bill Long, for the Donaldites, made five hits out of eight times up.

A meeting of the Interstate Baseball association is set for tonight in the council chambers of the city hall, starting at 7:45 o'clock. President William R. Smyth will preside.

Kennewick, Wash., June 21.—The Kennewick baseball team walloped the Grandview representatives 8 to 2 Sunday on the local diamond.

Banks, Or., June 21.—Two baseball games were played here Sunday, resulting in a 10 to 5 victory for the second team over the all-stars, while in the second battle the second team of Banks won from Manning, 7 to 2. The battery for Manning was Benefiel and Miller, while Dreezen and Caldwell formed the winning combination. The American Legion team of the Washington county circuit went to Cornelius Sunday and managed to win, 13 to 11.

Sherwood, Or., June 21.—The baseball fans of Sherwood and Hillsboro are still talking about the game between the two squads here Sunday. Not a run was scored until the ninth frame and Hillsboro then put across two. The final count remained just that way, 2 to 0. The largest crowd of the season was on hand.

Olds, Wortman & King was given a 9 to 0 forfeit Sunday because the Mail Carriers failed to show up for the scheduled contest.

Goldendale, Wash., June 20. — Three games of baseball for July 2, 3 and 4 have been scheduled by the Goldendale Athletic association baseball club to be played on the Goldendale diamond with the Arleta Athletic club team of Portland.

An Old Idea

Richie and Pinky Mitchell, lightweight boxers, will stage a bout demonstrating the Dempsey vs. Carpentier championship fight, blow for blow, at Milwaukee baseball grounds July 2 as a benefit for the Wisconsin State Association for the Blind.

It is said the New York National league players will receive $200 each if they win 10 out of the 16 games scheduled on the present western trip.

P.N.G.A. TOURNEY NOTES

FRED WILSON of the Spokane Country club arrived in Portland Monday from San Francisco to witness the playing in the tournament. Wilson was one of the leading lights of the 1919 tournament.

Bob Johnstone, the popular professional of the Seattle Golf club, is a tournament visitor for the week.

Jim Clarkson, professional of the Ambassador hotel of Los Angeles, arrived Sunday with D. S. (Scotty) Chisholm of Los Angeles.

A. V. Macan was given a loud cheer when he finished the afternoon round with a 72, after turning in an 81 card in the morning round. Macan is one of the most popular players on the course.

John Wall, a youthful Spokane entrant, is one of the dark horses of the tourney. He turned in a 77 card for the morning round and his coming in in the afternoon was eagerly awaited by the gallery.

The visiting players are loud in their praise of the condition of the Waverley course. The putting greens were a trifle heavy, which bothered some of the visitors to a certain extent.

The greens committee changed the rules for playing the seventh by allowing players who trapped the ball in the pit on the seventeenth fairway, which is partially filled with water, to drop it back of the trap without penalty. Balls landing in the dry part of the bunker must be played as a hazard

Angels Grab Six; Final Jolt Is 3-2

WADE KILLIFER'S Los Angeles Angels made a clean sweep of the series with the Portland Beavers by annexing the sixth and final clash by a 3 to 2 score Monday afternoon. The contest had been postponed from last Tuesday, inclement weather forcing the match to be set over until yesterday.

Sam Ross was nicked for a total of 11 hits but at that he was responsible for only one run, while the veteran, Otis Crandall, allowed the Beavers to earn both their markers. The game was played in 1 hour and 30 minutes.

The visitors, as has been their custom, opened the affair with two runs in the first stanza. Staatz, as first man up, singled to right and went to second on McAuley's sacrifice. Killifer singled, putting Staatz on third.

MEE'S ERROR COSTLY

Wade took a long lead off first and Ross made a try to get him, whereupon the fiery-topped leader of the Californians dashed for second. Poole's throw to Mee was perfect but the Portland shortstop mussed up the endeavor, Killifer going safe and Staatz scoring on the play. Killifer then stole third and came home when Crawford went out, Poole to Ross.

The McCredieites tied it up when, with one down, Cox singled and Hale walked. Poole came through with a double which scored Cox and put Hale on third. Sammy scored after Killifer's catch of Wolfer's fly to left. All this in the fourth frame.

Rolly Zeider, who appeared in the Los Angeles lineup at third base instead of Lindimore, scored the winning counter in the fifth inning. He singled, went to second on Stanage's sacrifice, and registered on Crandall's double to deep center.

DOUBLE PLAYS MANY

Four snappy double plays enlivened the afternoon's entertainment, the Portlanders making all of them. Marty Krug furnished the fielding "thrill" when he scooped up Crawford's hard hit grounder, but in so doing fell on his face but from his reclining position he made a perfect peg to Mee who forced Griggs, and Mee then threw to Poole in time to head off Crawford. Two other times the double plays, Krug to Mee to Poole, were made. The fourth double play was recorded when Mee speared a line drive with one hand and doubled Crawford off first.

Trial of Black Sox To Begin June 27

(By United News)

Chicago, June 21.—Monday, June 27, has been set as the date of trial for those indicted in connection with the 1919 world's series baseball scandal.

It is reported that William Burns, former ball player, who is among those indicted, will turn state's evidence. He failed to answer his name in court.

"That's all right," Prosecutor George F. Barrett remarked.

Girl Swimming Star Back

San Francisco, June 21.—(I. N. S.)—Accompanied by her mother and Miss Margaret Dowd of the New York Women's Swimming association, Miss Ethelda Bleibtrey, greatest woman swimmer the world has known, arrived here today on the steamer Ventura from Honolulu, completing what has practically been a world tour. From here she will go to Capitola-by-the-Sea, where she will compete next Sunday in the A. A. U. senior national mile championship

Yellow Hand Wins Hanover

Aqueduct, N. Y., June 21.—(U. P.)—Yellow Hand, at 4 to 1, captured the Hanover handicap here Monday. Yellow Hand, with Jockey Miller up, came wide in the stretch, caught Sennings Park at the furlong pole and won going away. Sennings Park was five lengths ahead of Velo.

New Yorkers Arrive Thursday ✱ ✱ ✱ Local Athletes Working Out

By Earl R. Goodwin

ELEVEN Multnomah Amateur Athletic club athletes are working out each day under the direction of Coach Manager L. Vere Windnagle and the squad will be augmented Thursday with the arrival of Eldon Jenne, Gus Pope and Vic Hurley, the three Northwesterners who are returning from the Chicago intercollegiate meet. Williard Wells and Ralph Spearow are expected to report at the Winged "M" institution within the next 36 hours.

Not since the national championships of 1905, held in Portland during the Lewis and Clark exposition, has so much interest been manifested in a track and field meet as has been shown in the dual gathering between the New York Athletic club and the Multnomah club billed for Multnomah field next Saturday afternoon.

SEAT SALE OPENS

Reserved seats for the grandstand have been issued, in order to prevent "jamming" at the gates, as would be the case of "first come, first served." The reserved seat tickets went on sale Tuesday morning at Sherman, Clay & Co.'s, Sixth and Morrison streets. The price of one reserved cardboard is $1.10, which includes war tax, while children 16 years and under will be admitted for 55 cents.

The famous New Yorkers will arrive in the Rose City some time Thursday, according to word received by Vere Windnagle, and they will limber up on Multnomah field Friday. The Winged "M" stars who are working out now are Mose Payne, Harry Floeter, Maurice Snook, "Gap" Powell, Sims, Glenn Walkley, Art Grilley, Rockhey, Olson, Hollinger and Rodney Keating.

Keating is the Washington high distance runner who won both the half-mile and mile events at the recent Portland interscholastic meet. His performances marked him as one of the best high school runners developed in these parts since the days of "Skin" Wilson and Windnagle, about 9 or 10 years ago.

NO WAITS OR DELAYS

The first event Saturday afternoon will start promptly at 2:30 o'clock, and the final number, the relay, will be completed by 4:15 o'clock. This is certain, for Dick Grant is going to be in charge and he has arranged a time schedule which will be carried out to the second.

T. Morris Dunne, secretary-treasurer of the Pacific Northwest association and a member of the championship committee of the Amateur Athletic union, will be the referee of the Saturday gathering. Immediately following the meet both the New York and Multnomah teams will leave for Pasadena, Cal., to take part in the A. A. U. national championships, July 1 and 2.

Wing Confident of Winning Bout From Joe Gorman Friday

SOME hard-fought contests are expected on the Portland boxing commission card scheduled for Friday night for the benefit of the Spanish-American War Veterans.

Weldon Wing, who meets Joe Gorman in one of the 10 round features, is confident of winning from the Spanish battler. He has the airs of Georges Carpentier and is working like a Trojan to get himself in the king for the battle.

Wing is one of the cleverest boys brought out in Portland but his boxing has not been top notch for some time because he has never trained seriously. For the Gorman bout he is down to real business like methods in his training.

The Harper-St. Claire bout ought to be a fast exhibition as both are pretty clever, although Harper is expected to win, as he is the hardest hitter of the two.

Although the card does not appear to be a high class one, the fans are almost sure to get their money's worth. In the past bouts, which were thought to be fizzles, have been closely contested. The complete card will be announced Wednesday.

TENNIS

LONDON, June 21.—(I. N. S.)—Major A. R. F. Kingscote, who is generally picked to meet William T. Tilden II of Philadelphia, present champion, in the challenge round of the British tennis championship tournament today, won his match with C. P. Dixon in decisive fashion. The scores were 6-1, 6-0 and 6-0.

PROSPECTS for the playing off of all the matches scheduled for the opening round of the annual handicap tournament of the Irvington club today were not very bright this morning. If it does not rain any harder this afternoon, several of the contestants are expected to get together. Following are the pairings:

(By United News)

London, June 21.—The opening day's play of the British open tennis champion tournament at Wimbledon provided no surprises. J. D. Jones was scratched and Shimdsu, the Japanese wizard, smothered Hotham, 6-1, 6-1 and 6-0, without having to extend himself.

Alonzo, the Spanish champion, easily beat Asham, 6-0, 6-0 and 6-1.

Sports at the fair grounds will be a part of the July 14 exercises of the Societie Francios de 14th de Juliet at New Orleans.

Pres. Harding Is Real Baseball Fan; Has All the 'Dope'

Washington, June 18.—(I. N. S.) President Harding is a dyed-in-the-wool baseball fan.

"Eddie" Collins, Ray Schalk and "Kid" Gleason, mighty White Sox trio, are of one opinion. They think the president is a "regular guy."

The trio, with "Doc" White, former White Sox star, paid a social call on the president while the Sox were playing at the Senators' lot.

"You're a better ball player than I am," Harding told Schalk.

To Eddie Collins the president said: "Well, well. You're a much younger looking man than I thought."

And of course Eddie blushed.

The president grabbed Gleason by the shoulders and shook him like a college mate.

"Hello, Gleason, I know you," he said. "There's one thing about you I've always liked. Remember last season when your pitchers were going bad and you got out and pitched yourself! Well, I wish you all the success in the world this season."

Quality First

Prestige Isn't Accidental
There is always a good sound reason for it. In the case of the Boston Garter "Quality First" is more than a slogan—more than two words glibly strung together. For over forty years it has been a factory ideal.
GEORGE FROST CO., MAKERS, BOSTON

WHO'LL WIN?

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 21.—(U. P.)—Manning Vaughn, sporting editor and secretary of the Wisconsin boxing commission:

"I expect to see Dempsey win in six rounds. Gunboat Smith lost his bout to Carpentier on a technicality when he had the fight won. Smith is a fourth-rater heavy and doesn't compare at all with Dempsey. Body punches will wear the Frenchman down. He looks like a mark for Dempsey's punches."

Good Fishing on McKenzie

Ten days of excellent fishing were experienced by Walter B. Honeyman, Walter Gearin, Rube Montgomery and Milo Thomson on the south fork of the McKenzie river. Honeyman and Gearin returned to Portland Sunday night with the limit and they report that although the water is high the fish are biting good. They made most of their catches in Secret lake on Indian ridge.

Portlanders High in Trap Title Event

ASTORIA, Or., June 21.—O. N. Ford of Portland, Or., topped the trapshooters in the first half of the state championship race at 200 targets by registering a score of 99 out of 100 targets Monday.

Abner Blair of Portland and Mark Rickard of Corvallis completed the first half with scores of 98 and James W. Seavey, J. Blaine Troeh and E. G. Lacey had scores of 97.

Following are the scores of other Portlanders in the meet: Zachrisson, 80; J. C. Morris, 91; C. B. Preston, 94; E. H. Keller, 94; Dr. Seeley, 81; Henry Veatch, 94; E. G. Hawman, 82.

BOXING

(By United News)

NEW YORK, June 21.—Carpentier's two sparring mates, Paul Journee, the heavyweight Frenchman, and Italian Joe Gans, the middleweight, were knocked out in their bouts here Monday night at Ebbet's field. The referee, Johnny Haukep, stopped the bout between Charlie Wienert of Newark and Journee in the fifth round after the latter was knocked down seven times during the contest.

Augie Ratner, Gans' opponent, punished the Italian so badly that the referee, after 10 rounds of one-sided fighting, stopped the bout to save Gans. Both fights were to have been 12-round goes.

Benton Harbor, Mich., June 21.—(I. N. S.)—Benny Leonard, lightweight champion, will arrive here June 28 to complete his training for his bout July 4 with Sailor Freedman, challenger, of Chicago.
