Semi-Finals In Golf Play

By George Bertz

Wonderful golf featured the playing of the third round of the men's pionship of the Pacific North-nd madal play. Two of the were carried into extra holes. H. Chandler Egan, present champion, advanced into the semifinal round by defeating Clare Grison the 39th, and Russell Smith triumphed over Heinie Schmidt of ceded on the 38th green. Both matches were the longest ever played in the P. N. G. A. UTAH CHAMPION WINS

The other third round matches resulted in victories for George Von Elm, the 20-year-old Utah champion, over on Stein of Seattle, and Forest Watson of Waverley over Dr. O. F. Willing. Huge gallaries divided their attention between all the matches and some of the veteran followers of the game declared that never before have such won-derful shots been exhibited. Smith displayed nothing but iron nerves in his match with H. Schmidt, former Western champion, and it was this that enables him to be returned

PLAYED PERFECT GOLF

Smith annexed the seventh and the eighth when Schmidt drove in the rough on the seventh and trapped his ball on the eighth. On these two holes, Smith played perfect golf. The ninth was halved, leaving Schmidt 1 up at the turn.

Schmidt won the 10th hole with a 3, playing a beautiful tee shot and laying his second dead for a short putt on his third. Smith was in trouble on this hole. The 11th and 12th were halved and on the Waterloo Smith came through with a 5 and won the hole. Schmidt won the 14th and the 15th was halved in 4s.

A birdle gave Smith the 16th and he won the 17th with an eagle, which squared the match. Both made 5s on the home green.

The 10th and 11th were halved in par golf and Griswold squared the match by winning the 12th and 13th. The next three holes were halved, but Griswold lost the 17th when his tee shot was bunkered and lost the 18th by going into the rough on his second and being away short on his mashie.

NO CHANGE IN AFTERNOON

Starting out 2 up in the afternoon, there was no change in the match, as the result of halving six straight holes, but Griswold won the 7th and 8th. squaring the match and annexed the 9th with a beautiful 2. Egan topped his second shot on the 8th which resulted in the loss of that hole.

Griswold won his fourth straight hole with a dandy 3 on the tenth, but Egan cut the lead down one hole by laying a mashe dead for a 2 on the eleventh. The twelfth was halved, and Egan won the thirteenth with a 4. After halving the fourteenth, Griswold stepped out and won the fifteenth with a nice 3. Egan squared the match with a 2 on the sixteenth, and the next two holes were halved.

Luck was with Grisweld on the first extra hole. Both had good drives, but Griswold dubbed his second and it was necessar have three judges to de-termine at the the ball was in or out of bounds. He made a beautiful re-covery on his third shot and holed a 20-foot putt for a half. Egan's second was on the green with a 30-foot putt, and he was down in 2. The thirty-
