

ABERDEEN CHOSEN FOR 1922 G. A. R.; OFFICERS NAMED

Olympia, Wash., June 24.—Perfect weather, boundless enthusiasm, and keen enjoyment of life combined to make the thirty-fifth annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic for the department of Washington and Alaska and auxiliary bodies, a session to be remembered for successful business and wholesome pleasure.

Veterans and delegates of four-score years or more apparently cast their years to the winds and once more enjoyed youthful pleasures. Mrs. Helen Elizabeth Taylor of Seattle, 93 years of age, surprised the multitude by giving a street dance on the brick pavement in front of the Hotel Olympian.

The annual campfire was held in the house chamber of the statehouse Wednesday evening, where Judge Burton of Portland, representing the national commander of the G. A. R., gave the principal address, speaking on the songs of the Civil war.

Aberdeen was chosen as the next convention city.

Officers of the Grand Army of the Republic for the department of Washington and Alaska were elected as follows: Commander, Colonel J. H. Coffman, Tacoma; vice commander, national vice commander, senior vice commander, W. P. Cragin, Hoquiam; junior vice commander, Enoch Sears, Spokane; adjutant general and quartermaster, S. P. Durdick; chaplain, F. F. Thompson, Tacoma; medical director, B. R. Freeman, Spokane; council of administration, A. E. Clayton of Wenatchee (chairman), S. H. Hurd of Seattle, J. M. Birmingham of Aberdeen, C. B. Cuning of Spokane, E. C. Kilbourne of Seattle was reelected officer of the day.

On the fourth ballot the Woman's Relief corps, at its convention in the Methodist church, elected Mrs. Kate Whittington of Seattle, a member of Miller post, department president. Other officers chosen were: Senior vice president, Mrs. Maud Shupp, Olympia; junior vice president, Etta Kern, Port Angeles; chaplain, Mrs. Bennett, Seattle.

Ladies of the G. A. R. elected the following officers: Departmental president, Nellie Blackburn, Everett; senior vice president, Dr. Mary Martin, Seattle; junior vice president, Hazel Wenzel, Olympia; treasurer, Florence Adams, Tacoma; counselor, Masude Gardner, Seattle, retiring president.

Sons of Veterans elected officers as follows: Division commander, C. Randall Edd, Blackburn; vice commander, William E. Langdon, Seattle; junior vice commander, J. B. Palmer, Wenatchee; division council, B. W. Colner of Tacoma, Captain Ford of Salem, Or., and B. S. Sheire of Spokane, retiring commander. George Geis of Seattle and John Hammond of Everett were elected delegates to the national encampment at Detroit.

LAST DAY OF G. A. R. MEET IS FESTIVE AT OLYMPIA

Olympia, Wash., June 24.—The laying of the cornerstone of the Legion building, dedication of the West Fourth bridge, entertainment of all boys in Thurston and Mason counties by the Big Brother committee of the local Elks lodge and the final day of the thirty-fifth departmental encampment of the Grand Army order combined to make Thursday a festive holiday in Olympia. A barbecue was staged at Fifth and Franklin streets at which boys were fed to their stomachs' content. They were given automobile rides all day long and in the afternoon the Elks committee conducted field sports at Athletic park, followed by a baseball game between the Forty-seventh infantry of Camp Lewis and the Olympia All-Stars, the latter winning by a score of 9 to 7.

Veterans of the Civil, Spanish-American and World wars participated in the evening parade and O. D. McDonald, retiring commander of the G. A. R., department of Washington and Alaska, laid the cornerstone of Legion auditorium at Sixth and Water streets and Commander Coffman of the Grand Army dedicated the bridge to the sailors and marines who perished in the World war. Thomas M. Vance delivered the oration.

REV. N. K. TULLY COMES TO FIRST PRESBYTERIAN

Rev. Norman K. Tully

Sunday morning at the First Presbyterian church the Rev. Norman K. Tully, formerly of Eau Claire, Wis., will be welcomed as the new associate pastor. Mr. and Mrs. Tully arrived Thursday night.

The new associate pastor comes to assist Dr. Harold Leonard Bowman in the growing activities in the largest Protestant church in Portland. Since the resignation of James F. Ewing as religious educational director, Dr. Bowman has been without an assistant to help him in pastoral work. The Rev. Mr. Tully will take over much of the work formerly handled by Professor Ewing, and in addition will assist in the church services. He will have charge of all the church services within a few weeks when Dr. Bowman leaves on his vacation. Dr. Bowman stated that his associate will not be an assistant pastor, but will be an associate who will share with him equally in the activities of the church.

The Rev. Mr. Tully was pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Eau Claire, and was a fellow student with Dr. Bowman at McCormick Theological seminary. He was born in Nova Scotia and graduated from Macalester college at St. Paul in 1910, after which he was religious work director for the St. Paul Y. M. C. A. for three years. He also held a pastorate at Galesville, Wis. Mr. and Mrs. Tully have two children, a girl 8 years old and a baby girl. Mrs. Tully and Mrs. Bowman will be entertained next Tuesday from 2 to 5 p. m. by the women's association at a silver tea at the home of Mrs. J. O. Elrod, 1980 Franklin street.

Park Playgrounds Children to Hold a Patriotic Parade

Youngsters of the Washington park playgrounds will hold a patriotic parade July 4. The entries will include doll buggies in which flaxen-haired favorites will be wheeled by their young owners, dogs, pedigreed or just "daws"; bicycles, miniature automobiles, coasters and all the other vehicles prized by boys. There will probably be a youthful Uncle Sam, Miss Columbia and other dignitaries in the line of march. Following the parade a group of games and races will be held and a patriotic sing will conclude the day's festivities. Entries will be received by Miss Margaret Vedder or F. E. Harrigan, playground directors for Washington park. The children will do their own decorating with just enough supervision from the grownups to carry the thing through. Children 16 years or under may enter. Prizes are to be arranged by the playground directors and a number of the mothers of the young entrants will assist on the day of the parade.

SINN FEIN KILL 4 OF KING'S GUARD; BLAST HITS TRAIN

London, June 24.—(I. N. S.)—Four British soldiers attached to the forces that had been guarding King George and Queen Mary at Belfast, were killed and 20 injured when a troop train was mined by Sinn Feiners near Dundalk, said a dispatch from Dublin this evening quoting an official statement issued by Dublin Castle.

Early reports from the scene estimated the dead and injured at 50, but this proved an exaggeration. A mine was set off just as the second half of the train was passing over it. There was a terrific explosion and a great volume of debris and smoke shot skyward. The cars that were not wrecked by the blast were thrown from the rails. Some of them rolled down into a gully. Large forces of soldiers and police were rushed to the scene from Dublin and Belfast. The train consisted of four coaches with 15 trucks attached. The trucks held the horses of the crack Tenth Hussars. Sixty per cent of the horses were killed. Two men, who were running from the scene of the disaster, were shot dead. CHILDREN SHOT DOWN DURING FUSILLADE IN CORK STREETS. Cork, June 24.—(I. N. S.)—Several children were wounded by revolver and machine gun bullets during heavy fusillades in this city during the night. The total casualties were a 19-year-old girl, a 12-year-old boy, a 15-month-old girl, a 12-year-old girl, two men and one woman. All the children are in a critical condition. Much of the shooting was done by crown forces, it is alleged. A woman was wounded in the head while operating a sewing machine in her home. The 15-month-old girl was in her mother's arms when she was wounded. A bomb was tossed into the garden of an officer's home and exploded near a 4-year-old girl, but the child miraculously escaped injury. Four men in an automobile threw bombs at a police detachment and escaped. BULLETS SWEEP STREETS IN SINN FEIN RAID IN DUBLIN. Dublin, June 24.—(I. N. S.)—The streets of Dublin were swept by bullets and filled with the roar of exploding bombs today when a bold daylight ambush attack was made against a military automobile. The car was bombed first and then many volleys were fired. Several persons were wounded. Many windows were broken and hundreds of persons fled to shelter. The attack was followed by widespread raids by police and soldiers. Senate Inquiry Is Asked Into Alleged Sovietism in Navy. Washington, June 24.—(I. N. S.)—Investigation by the senate naval affairs committee of alleged "sovietism" in the American navy was proposed in a resolution introduced in the senate today by Senator La Follette (Rep.) of Wisconsin. La Follette proposed the inquiry following the detachment of Captain Clark D. Stearns from command of the battleship Michigan for his alleged encouragement of "sovietism" among enlisted men.
