

DEMOCRATIC GUNS BATTER AT TARIFF

By Herbert W. Walker
Washington, July 7.—(U. P.)—The gong sounded today in the house for the opening of another "heavyweight political bout."

The two great political parties are fighting over that much-worked political issue—the tariff. The fight over the Republican permanent tariff bill in many respects marks the opening of the congressional campaign of 1922 and the presidential contest of 1924.

The challenging Democrats open the bout by making a sweeping attack on the entire bill in a minority report. Submission of this report will be followed by general debate lasting for 10 days or two weeks.

Despite overwhelming odds, the Democrats plan to fight the battle every step. One of the first clashes probably will be over the oil tariffs. Scores of protests have been received from American companies who have investments in Mexican oil fields against the proposed duty of 25 cents a barrel on crude oil and 25 cents on fuel.

House Republicans, in caucus last night, agreed on a special rule by which the tariff bill will be voted on July 21.

Prince Goes to Italy
Paris, July 7.—(I. N. S.)—Crown Prince Hirohito of Japan, who has been visiting the world war battlefields, left for Italy today.

Phone Rate Cut Is Demanded by Warren

Warren, Or., July 7.—A. L. Morris and O. E. Erickson will go before the public service commission July 15 to ask a reduction in telephone rates. Should the petition be denied it is said many telephones on the farmers' lines will be taken out, the farmers refusing to pay the rates demanded.

More than 50 miles of wire and poles are included in these lines. A movement to build a new and standard line is under discussion by the farmers here.

T. Coleman Du Pont Appointed Senator

Dover, Del., July 7.—(U. P.)—Governor Denny today sent a telegram to General T. Coleman Du Pont, at Denver, Colo., appointing him United States senator. General Du Pont, if he accepts, will fill one of the unexpired term of Josiah O. Wolcott, Democrat, who resigned from the senate to accept appointment as chancellor of Delaware. Du Pont is a Republican.

Washington Tax Probers to Meet
