J. R. Hermann Returns-J. R. Hermann has returned from a trip through the Eastern states, where he went as representative of the Oregon Single Tax league, of which he is manager. He at-tended the national conference in Washington, D. C., and going and coming was received by single taxers in Chicago, Pittsburg, New York, Boston and other places at special dinners. He met in Boston William Lloyd Garrison, grandson of the famous emancipator, who is a well-known banker in the Hub city. Garrison may come to Oregon within a few months on a lecturing tour of the Coast. Hermann found a great deal of interest taken by business men in taxation problems and a disposition to listen to any solution offered.

Somebody Said:

"Why do you spend so much money advertising gas for house-heating if it is such a good thing?" The answer is:

First: It is a new thing for most people and has become known only recently, but eventually everybody will let the Gas Co. do the stoking at the Gas Works and thus be freed from basement chores. At such time it will not be necessary to advertise "Heat with Gas" any more than today one would advertise "Cook with

Second: It is only by increasing our volume that we can give the special gas rates. The gas mains and general organization are there anyhow and it is volume that counts. Each new house-heating customer makes it possible for others to enjoy the special house-heating and many young couples are starting out, shoulder to shoulder, to create the ideal American home-a place of helpfulness, contentment and thrift.

Many, with the aid of a Savings Account, are insur-ing the future with Independence. Don't let the lack of a cash reserve with which to meet the invariable emergency mar your happiness or cheapen your ideals. Most men appreciate the value and importance of a Savings Account. Many young wives, through inexperience, do not. If you are such a one we cordially invite you to come into our Savings Department, where Mr. Hoyt will gladly give you full information.

P. S.-We have a number of "Household Expense Ledgers." This book is complete; shows how to apportion your household expenses and how to keep an accurate account of how much it is costing you to live. They are being given away in this department-come in and receive one today.
