Informality Is Dominant Note For Summer

By Heien Hutchinsan SOCIAL "doings" for the week are marked with informality following the usual program of summer days. Informal gatherings of a few close friends spend the leisure hours of the afternoon together over the tea table or motor to a nearby resort for the dinner hour constitutes the greater part of the records of each day's diversions. The latter part of the week has been chosen by several young hostesses for afternoon teas and summer luncheon parties.

Miss Louise Dolph, who has recently returned from attending school in the East, was a guest of honor at a luncheon Wednesday for which Miss Cornelia Woodruff was hostess at her home in Irvington. Covers at an attractive luncheon table were placed for Miss Dolph, Miss Helen Albert, Miss Audrey Jensen, Miss Claudia Fletcher, Miss Katherine Burns of Cincinnati, Ohio, and the hostess.

Miss Janet M. Pendegast was the guest of honor at a trosser shower given in honor of her engagement to Dr. Robert Edward Leigh of San Francisco by the women members of the board of directors of the Albermarl Kerr nursery, on Wednesday afternoon, in the reception room of the new nursery building. Many bits of dainty lingerie and other gifts were presented to her.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Prouty have opened their summer cottage, known as the Moss Rose, at Seaside, for the season. Mrs. Harry J. Brown, Master Jay and June Brown are guests of Mrs. Prouty for the summer. Mrs. Eugene Croat was the week-end guest of Mrs. Prouty.

Miss Barbara Stanfield, who is the guest of her uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. David B. Hill, in Pendleton, is being extensively entertained. Miss Stanfield will be a member of the senior group of Camp Willapa, at Nahcotta, Wash.

Mrs. Margaret V. Allen left the city this morning for Southern California, where she will entertain the meeting of the San Diego Pioneer Historical society, of which she is historian and a board member.

Miss Anna Ross was honored Tuesday evening at a birthday surprise party at her home, when a group of her young friends arranged an informal evening of diversions for her pleasure.

Mrs. Burt Granning entertained informally at her home last Tuesday with three tables of bridge. Mrs. Granning was assisted by Mrs. J. Roy Kenty and Mrs. Richard Field.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Hopkins left the city Monday morning by motor for Mt. Rainier national park. They will spend a short time at Paradise Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat H. Allen have left the city for a motor trip through Yellowstone national park. They expect to return about September 1.

Mrs. Arthur Lawrence is entertaining her sisters, Mrs. Lydia Tye and Miss Jennie Anderson of Chicago, at Seaside.

Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Fryar and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dorr of Pasadena, Cal., who are touring by motor, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest R. Goldapp.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Smith and children motored down to Seaside for short time. They left the city last Friday for the beach.

Multnomah Amateur Athletic club members will give a dance at Winde-muth the evening of August 2.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Shaw left the city this morning for Newport, where they will spend a fortnight.

Lincoln Garfield Relief Corps No. 19 will meet for all day sewing in room 522, court house, Friday.

FRATERNAL

The formation of Park Rose Lodge, A. F. and A. M., was completed Monday evening under dispensation by Grand Master Frank S. Baillie and officers of the grand lodge at Park Rose, in the presence of visiting Masons and the membership of 15 chapter signers. The officers of the grand lodge participating were: Frank S. Baillie, grand master; W. G. Shellenbarger, acting deputy grand master; Earl C. Bronaugh, acting senior grand warden; W. H. J. Houghton, acting junior grand warden; John B. Cle-

DRESS

Matinee Frocks

Matinee frocks for autumn will be of velvet, combined with the filiciest of Chantilly and fiber laces and the sweetest of chiffons, either figured or threaded in tarnished gold or silver. A frock that tends to verify the rumor of longer skirts yet, at the same time, clings to the conservatively shorter ones, is the frock illustrated at the left, which drops its hip panels nearly to the ankle, though its land, grand treasurer, James F. Robinson, grand secretary, A. Fritz, acting grand senior deacon, George Kinnear, acting grand junior deacon, L. M. Snow, acting grand senior steward, J. H. Richmond, acting grand chaplain, Archie Frjes, grand marshal, W. G. Wharton, grand tyler.

Following the acceptance of the dispensation speeches made by the officers and visitors present, including the grand officers, W. E. Chamberlain, on behalf of East Gate lodge of Montavilla, offered a set of officers jewels for the new lodge. E. P. Merit, past master of East Gate lodge, congratulated the new lodge on several of its members who were members of East Gate. On invitation of the new lodge the visitors were assembled in the Park Rose Club house where a banquet was served that was prepared by the wives and daughters of the Park Rose lodge.

The following are the officers of Park rose lodge, U. D.: James W. Van Horn, worshipful master; Ralph A. Bremner, senior warden; Samuel E. Lamont, junior warden; E. A. Legg, treasurer; R. M. W. Peterson, secretary; E. C. Grant, senior deacon; Tracy Woods, junior deacon; Andrew Larson, senior steward; C. A. Snodgrass, junior steward; George D. Inglis, tyler; Frank Harpke, marshal; H. D. Canfield, chaplain.

Officers and members of the Grokto are looking up the new lodge at the Hazelwood every Wednesday for a noon luncheon. W. L. Hay, monarch of the veiled prophets of the Grokto, presided on July 20. Dr. L. M. Snow spoke on "What Have We to Fear Next Year?" Dr. S. W. Strzyk responded to the toast: "Who'll the Late Billy Patterson?" and most let out some political secrets. Next week some outside speakers will tell about strange adventures in the wilds of Chicago.

Russellville Grange will hold its regular meeting next Saturday evening and complete arrangements for the picnic at Goble. Russellville Grange degree team and officers staff have planned to visit Beaver Home Grange near Goble on Sunday, July 24, and a good time is anticipated.

The Grand Chapter, Eastern Star, announces that it will not give a dancing party on the boat Bluebird on July 29, as announced in an advertisement in newspapers of Wednesday, July 20. The officials had made tentative plans to that effect, but later cancelled them.

Samaritan social club will have its mid-summer outing on the Bluebird Thursday evening. A good time is assured all I. O. O. F., Rebekahs and friends.

Royal Circle, Neighbors of Woodcraft, held a card party at W. O. W. Temple, 123 Eleventh street, Wednesday night and when the grand circle, in session at

Modern Sinners Far Ahead of Ancients

By Vella Winner TEMPERANCE DAY at the Gladstone Chautauqua called out large and enthusiastic audiences. In the forenoon Mrs. Ada Wallace Unruh occupied the forum hour, taking the place of Mrs. Mary Mallett, who was ill. Mrs. M. Frances Swope, state W. C. T. U. vice president, presided.

In the afternoon, under the auspices of the department of social morality, Mrs. Margaret Martin presided. Mrs. Lola G. Baldwin, head of the woman's protective division of the Portland police bureau, told of her work for delinquent and unfortunate women and girls. In six weeks' time, in the city of Portland, she had committed to the Cedars for medical treatment nine girls between the ages of 8 and 18. In her opinion there is no way to regulate the public dance so as to make it a safe place for either boys or girls. She paid high tribute to the Portland police force, who, she said, much above the average in character and intelligence.

Mrs. Baldwin said she thought it unfair for women offenders who have been released on small bail when the poor must suffer the stigma of a night in the police station or city jail.

Clackamas county gave a reception to visiting White Ribboners at their new cottage opened this season, adjoining state W. C. T. U. headquarters. Refreshments were served and Mrs. E. B. Andrews, Clackamas county president, was hostess, and made a short speech of welcome.

Mrs. Effie McCallum, formerly of Eugene, who has spent the past five years in China as a missionary, being stationed at Nanking, will be the principal speaker at the afternoon session of the Missionary Federation of Christian Churches, which will be held Friday at 1:30 in the First Christian church, corner Park and Columbia streets. The public is invited.

The Lane County Public Health association, with the assistance of Miss Lillian Godsey, county nurse, and Dr. Bertha Stuart Dymont of the University of Oregon, has started a nutrition class. In addition to the weekly meeting of the class, Miss Godsey plans to have the children carry on the health crusade chores through the summer.

The Oregon Graduate Nurse association will hold its regular meeting Wednesday evening, July 27, at 8 o'clock, in room 1 of Central library. Important business will be taken up and a large attendance is desired.

The relictstag had a 49 year member who has never made a speech. That's the reason.

MISS MILDRED M'KEE is a visitor in Portland from California at the home of her aunt, Mrs. S. K. Willett at 808 East Kelly street.

Institute Is Opened By Epworth League

Ashland, July 21.—The initial Epworth League institute of Southern Oregon is now in full swing with an enrollment of near 200 from Cottage Grove to Lake view. Tents are pitched in Lithia park beside Ashland creek and the women of the local churches are serving meals in a building nearby. C. A. Edwards, pastor of the Methodist church, is the local man in charge, assisted by the board of institute faculty, which is made up of the Rev. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick of Salem, the Rev. E. C. Hickman, president of Kimball School of Theology, F. M. Binkins and Mrs. M. C. Reed. The session closes July 24. On the day following the faculty will open a similar institute in Jefferson for a week's session.

Falling Tree Kills Marshfield Logger

Marshfield, July 21.—Carl Bjorkla, a native of Finland, who has been in this territory for the past 10 years, was killed by a falling tree at the Vaughan logging camp near here Wednesday. The coroner is seeking relatives of the man in this state.

'Irene' Is Made More Charming by Picked Company

"Irene," the brilliant musical comedy which has kept on the top crest of popularity in New York and London, where it has established record runs, is doing big business at the Heilig in its limited engagement here, with a fine company of players made up from the ranks of the Chicago and New York companies. This picked company is making a coast-to-coast tour, lending distinction to rough engagements here and there and giving extraordinary strength to the first engagements in Pacific coast cities. That these favorites are now appearing in the West is due partly to the enterprise of our Pacific slope managers, Homer Curran, Will Wyatt, Peter McCourt and Calvin Heilig, who prevailed upon the producing company to undertake this continental tour, and partly to James Montgomery's delightful comedy and Harry Tierney's song-hit music under the most favorable conditions possible.

Barlow to Aurora Road Work Begun; Old Route Detour

Canby, July 21.—Preparation of the roadbed for paving has commenced on the Barlow-Aurora section of the Pacific highway and this section will be closed during construction, according to announcement of L. F. Heuserman, resident engineer of the state highway commission. Traffic will be routed over the old location of the Pacific highway between Barlow and Aurora, which has a smooth gravel surface and is in good condition.
